INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of May 8, 2023

MEM-233-23 "The office of Congresswoman Yvette D. Clarke (NY-09) is seeking a Washington D.C. based, in-person, full-time, paid Digital Press Intern for the upcoming Summer 2023 session. Team Clarke expects the ideal candidate to be driven, team-orientated, and interested in diving into the inner workings of Capitol Hill.

This position requires applicants to have the ability to multitask, strong organizational skills, and possess high degrees of professionalism and diligence. Responsibilities include compiling daily press clips, answering telephones, and working alongside the communications team to draft social media collateral, including copy, graphics, and other materials. Applicants may hold interests in or have previous experience working with policy areas such as environmental sustainability, racial justice, cybersecurity, immigration, infrastructure, affordable housing, Caribbean issues, and health care.

Interested applicants should send their resume and two writing samples to clarke.comms@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Clarke Digital Internship." New York ties strongly preferred.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. Women, people of color, and candidates from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

Deadline to apply is May 26, 2023. Due to the large volume of applicants, only those applicants who are selected for interviews will be contacted."

MEM-232-23 The Democratic staff of the Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic is seeking passionate and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch officials and stakeholders for the purpose of taking notes. Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Applicants should have an interest in public service and a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full-time are preferred. Women, LGBTQI+, and BIPOC candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please send a resume and cover letter as PDFs to SSCPJobs@mail.house.gov, with "Summer 2023 Legal Internship" in the subject line. Please attach the resume and cover letter with the file name using the following format: "LastName.FirstName.Resume" and "LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter." No unsolicited calls, emails, or drop-ins, please.

The Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic is authorized to investigate a broad range of matters pertaining to the coronavirus pandemic under H. Res. 5. The Select Subcommittee was established within the Committee on Oversight and Accountability, which is the primary investigative committee of the United States House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X.

MEM-597-22 House Democrat seeks a paid Legislative Fellow to assist senior legislative staff with a wide variety of legislative topics and tasks. The Legislative Fellow will gain experience in preparing for committee hearings and markups; developing and advancing legislation; drafting speeches; and meeting with constituents and other stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will possess superb written and oral communication skills; have some policy experience; and will enjoy collaborating with others in a fast-paced environment.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to housedemjobs@gmail.com with “Legislative Fellow” in the subject line.
