INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of December 13, 2021

MEM-572-21 Republican Congressman Doug LaMalfa (CA-01) is seeking paid, in-person interns in his Washington, DC office for the Spring 2022 term, running from January to May.

Functioning as a key part of the staff, our interns help draft constituent correspondence, memos, and press clips, research legislation, take phone calls, and assist with various administrative tasks. We're looking for college students or recent graduates who are motivated, detail-orientated, and ready to work in a fast-paced setting.

The ideal candidate possesses strong organizational, communication, and writing skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple tasks and work well under pressure in a team environment. A positive attitude and interest in politics is a must. California ties are preferred, but not required and academic credit is available for qualifying students.

Interested candidates should apply by emailing their cover letter and resume to Northstate.ca.gop@gmail.com by December 15th, 2021.

MEM-569-21 The Democratic staff for the House Small Business Committee is currently accepting applications for Spring 2022 interns.

The hours are flexible to accommodate interns' schedules, but generally run from 9am to 6pm when Congress is in session, and 9am to 5pm when not in session.

As an intern with the Committee, you will provide vital support by assisting staff in assignments that include, but not limited to: monitoring supplies, assisting with Full Committee and Subcommittee hearings, archiving official incoming letters and reports, producing one-page Memos for relevant SBC issues, editing various SBC documents and materials, organizing various Committee excel trackers, administrative support, and special policy-based projects.

All interested applicants please send your resume, and cover letter to tracy.ennesser@mail.house.gov.

MEM-568-21 The majority staff of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Asia, the Pacific, Central Asia, and Nonproliferation seeks a part-time, paid Asia Policy Fellow for Spring 2022.

The Fellow will support the subcommittee staff in researching and preparing materials for subcommittee hearings, preparing for the Chairman's meetings with foreign government officials, and other activities. The Fellow will also assist in developing policy and oversight materials, including but not limited to oversight letters, speech writing, and resolution drafting, as needed. Strong writing and communication skills are required, as well as a familiarity with the Indo-Pacific. A background in U.S. policy toward China is strongly preferred. Candidates should be team players, self-starters, and should thrive in a fast-paced environment.

The position ideally begins in February 2022, with a possible duration of up to four months. The subcommittee seeks candidates who can commit to working a minimum of two full-time days per week. The position is compensated through a weekly stipend. The subcommittee is an equal opportunity employer.

The office does not discriminate on the basis of an individual's race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, genetic information, disability, or uniformed service. The office is committed to inclusion and encourages all individuals from all backgrounds to apply.

To apply please send a cover letter, resume, and a 2-4 page writing sample to APCANBera.Applications@gmail.com.

MEM-564-21 House Republican office seeks full time interns for spring internship. Duties include compiling press clips, answering phones, legislative research, greeting guests, and assisting with audio and video recording equipment. Past Hill experience working on IT projects or within a television, video, or digital media production environment is a plus.

This is a fast-paced office; candidates must have the ability to manage priorities, meet deadlines, and work well within a multi-tasking environment. Current students or recent graduates who can commit to the entire semester are encouraged to apply. This position is paid.

To apply, please email a resume, cover letter, and references to HOUSE PLACEMENT EMAIL or carl.griffin@mail.house.gov indicating job referral number in the subject line.

MEM-563-21 The House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on the Western Hemisphere, Civilian Security, Migration and International Economic Policy – chaired by Congressman Albio Sires (D-NJ) – is seeking one full-time intern for Winter/Spring 2022.

The legislative intern will work closely with subcommittee staff while learning the inner workings of Congress and the legislative process. Successful candidates will be enthusiastic, professional, hard-working, and detail-oriented, with strong writing and communication skills and an ability to thrive in a fast-paced work environment.

The internship is a remote-hybrid position beginning in January 2022. Undergraduate or graduate school students and recent alumni interested in foreign affairs and Western Hemisphere policy are encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: providing administrative and research support to staff, assisting with subcommittee hearings and briefings, attending virtual events and writing memorandum for staff, among other administrative and research assignments. Spanish, French, Haitian Creole, or Portuguese proficiency preferred but not required.

Qualified applicants should send a one-page resume and one-page cover letter to WHEMjobs@gmail.com with the subject line “Winter/Spring 2022 Internship Application.” Minorities, women, and LGBTQIA+ individuals and those with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Please be sure to include your preferred start and end date. No calls or drop-ins.

MEM-558-21 The Office of U.S. Representative Anthony G. Brown (MD-04) is currently seeking applicants for a part time internship in our Washington D.C. office during the Spring 2022 session.

Interns will have the opportunity to interact with constituents, give tours of the US Capitol, gain knowledge of the legislative process, engage with the communications team and to see firsthand what it takes for a congressional office to run.

We’re looking for college students or recent graduates who are motivated, detail-orientated, and ready to work in a fast-paced setting. The ideal candidate possesses strong organizational, communication, and writing skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple tasks and work well under pressure in a team environment. A positive attitude and an interest in politics is a must.

Hours are 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM for at least three days a week. Monthly stipends are available to full time and part time interns unless they are sponsored by an outside organization or are planning to receive academic credit for the internship.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

Students that are interested in interning our Washington D.C. office will have some of the following duties:

- Answering phone calls
- Data assembly and entry
- Assisting the Legislative Team with projects
- Assisting with the research and writing of constituent correspondence
- Researching issues or agency policies
- Assisting with mailing projects
- Other projects as assigned

If interested, please send a resume, cover letter, short writing sample, and (2) references to Amiri.Hill2@mail.house.gov, and indicate spring 2022 internship in the subject.

If you have any questions about the internship opportunity program at The Office of U.S. Representative Anthony G. Brown (MD-04), please contact Amiri Hill at Amiri.Hill2@mail.house.gov or 202.225.8699.

MEM-555-21 The House Committee on Oversight and Reform Majority Staff seeks a motivated and reliable student to fill a full-time digital intern position this spring.

Digital intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, content creation, graphic design, manual photography, videography, website maintenance, analytics and performing other press and administrative tasks as necessary.

Successful candidates will possess familiarity with programs such as Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Canva, OBS Studio, as well as compiling and interpreting social media analytics. Ability to work in a fast-paced, rapid response environment and willingness to learn is a must; sense of humor strongly encouraged. This position reports to the communications director. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send a resume and portfolio to oversightpress@mail.house.gov.

MEM-554-21 The House Committee on Oversight and Reform Majority Staff seeks a motivated, reliable, and detail-oriented student with a passion for communications to fill a full-time press intern position this spring.

The ideal candidate should be a strong writer, team player, and able to multi-task in a fast-paced environment. Press intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, compiling press clips, maintaining press lists, and drafting press releases. This position reports to the communications director and broader communications team. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send a resume to oversightpress@mail.house.gov.

MEM-535-21 The Washington, D.C. Office of Congressman Steve Cohen (D-TN-09) is seeking interns for spring 2022. This is a hybrid position—hours can be worked in person and remotely. If the public health situation changes significantly, the position could transition to in-office full-time.

This position offers an opportunity to learn about the U.S. House of Representatives and gain substantive work experience in an exciting and fast-paced office. Internships are offered on a full-time and part-time basis, and stipends are offered based on need and ties to Tennessee's 9th District. Full-time availability is preferred. Interns will work for 10-16 weeks (January-April). Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated interest in politics, policy and/or public service.
- Strong communications and writing skills.
- Hard-working, dependable, detail-oriented and professional.
- Self-motivated (especially given that all work is remote).
- Ties to Tennessee's 9th District are a bonus, but not required.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with constituent correspondence and draft email blasts and other forms of outreach.
- Attend virtual briefings and track virtual hearings.
- Conduct weekly legislative assignments.
- Conduct legislative research on an as-needed basis.

To apply, applicants must complete the form and submit the following materials on <https://cohen.house.gov/services/internships>:

- Resume.
- Cover letter.
- Three references.

About Office of Congressman Steve Cohen

Congressman Cohen is the Representative of Tennessee's 9th District, which includes most of Memphis. He has served in this position since 2007. He is a Democrat.

MEM-527-21 The Washington office of Congresswoman Val Demings seeks spring term interns for her Washington, D.C. office.

Individual responsibilities will vary, but all interns will be asked to answer phones, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings, and answer constituent letters on various issues. Internship hours are flexible, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session. This is a paid internship.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. Women, people of color, and candidates from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter with days of availability and a one-page writing sample to FL10.Internships@mail.house.gov. Please use “Internship Application” in the subject line. Individuals selected for an interview will be contacted. No phone calls or drop ins, please.

MEM-511-21 Winter Congressional Internship Opportunity:

Congressman John Garamendi (D-CA-03) is seeking a highly motivated intern to join his team. Candidates should be collegial, professional, quick learners, and phenomenal team players.

Strong oral and written communication skills and close attention to detail are imperative. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects, writing memos and talking points, attending virtual hearings and meetings, answering constituent phone calls, assisting with scheduling, sorting and distributing mail, and managing tour and flag requests.

Interns are considered an integral part of the team and are given the opportunity to learn and grow through working with us both to achieve the goals of the office and to pursue and develop their areas of interest. First-hand experience in Congressman Garamendi’s congressional office provides interns with an unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development of public policy.

Full-time candidates with California ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, writing sample and dates of availability to Garamendi.Internships@mail.house.gov.
