MEM-279-23 The House Democracy Partnership (HDP), a bipartisan commission of the House of Representatives that works to strengthen democratic institutions in more than 20 partner countries around the world, is seeking a full-time, permanent Deputy Director.

This is a senior-level position that requires substantial experience working in foreign policy or international development in the U.S. government and/or at non-governmental organizations, as well as significant experience in communications. Experience serving on congressional committees or commissions, familiarity with U.S.-funded democracy and governance programs, and/or organizing executive-level training or international exchange programs is strongly preferred.

The Deputy Director will assume significant responsibility for the following commission functions, with his/her final portfolio to be based on the successful candidate's knowledge, skills, and experience:

- Develop and drive a multi-channel communications strategy including preparing all communications material, social media content, reports, speeches, and website maintenance;
- Assist with implementation of all HDP programs, including outbound congressional and staff delegations, U.S.-based training programs, ad hoc technical assistance missions, and periodic assessments of current or prospective partner countries;
- Participate directly in HDP programs as a member of outbound congressional and staff delegations and an active participant in U.S.-based training programs;
- Conduct periodic evaluations of HDP's programs and activities, and directing other strategic planning activities as required;
- Advise HDP members on developments related to HDP partner countries and to U.S. democracy and governance programs more broadly, including preparing members for participation in congressional delegations and training programs;
- Assist with managing HDP's relationships with internal stakeholders (including the Committee on Foreign Affairs, House Leadership, and other Members and Committees) and external stakeholders (including the State Department, USAID, NDI, IRI, and partner governments).

HDP is an independent congressional commission whose programs are supported by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), and USAID's implementing partners, the National Democratic Institute (NDI) and International Republican Institute (IRI). Because of this unique organizational structure, the Deputy Director serves as a professional staff member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee (HFAC), with offices and administrative support provided by both HFAC and the Committee on House Administration. The Deputy Director reports directly to the Executive Director and serves at the pleasure of the HDP Chairman. Likewise, the Deputy Director works closely with the staff of the HDP Chairman and Ranking Member, and with staff from NDI and IRI in the development and execution of HDP programs. A highly collaborative attitude and an ability to manage complex projects involving multiple stakeholders are thus essential qualifications for this position.

The target start date for this position is July 5, 2023. Interested candidates should submit a CV, cover letter, and three professional references to House Democracy Partnership House_Democracy_Partnership@mail.house.gov. The House Democracy Partnership office is located in the Cannon House Office Building, and is an equal opportunity employer committed to building and maintaining an inclusive and diverse work environment.

MEM-272-23 Digital Outreach Aide

Congressman Glenn Ivey (MD-04) seeks a creative, driven, and graphically minded communications professional who is enthusiastic to help grow the Congressman's social-media presence and online outreach working out of the Washington, D.C., office.

The ideal candidate is a self-starter with an aesthetic eye and technical skill with video recording and editing, photography, iconography, branding, and developing a new-media strategy. We are seeking a strong writer, particularly one adept at crafting punchy, eye-catching soundbites and witticisms that tend to draw online attention, as well as the traditional, long-form exposition that together constitute a robust communications operation. Successful candidates can use Canva and Adobe Creative Suite programs to create high-quality, professional-looking products.

Responsibilities include developing all digital content, including copy, graphics, and videos; managing and creating content for social-media platforms; tracking digital-outreach analytics; overseeing the franked communications program, including spots online, over the phone, over text, on the radio, and in print; designing and drafting a recurrent e-newsletter; building out and updating the Web site; and assisting the Communications Director with media requests and press obligations, as needed.

Title – from press assistant to digital manager or director – and pay will be commensurate with work experience. Candidates at all levels of experience are encouraged to apply so long as they possess the skills, talent, and knowledge needed to execute the job well.

Working for this freshman office represents an opportunity to build something dynamic and lasting from the ground up, particularly for a Member of Congress who is a great communicator and cares deeply about the well-being and professional development of his staff.

Please submit a cover letter; a resume, including two-to-three references; and a digital sample (either a graphic or video clip you generated and edited – or preferably both – previously or in response to this job opening) to md04resumes@gmail.com with the subject line: “Full Name – Digital Outreach Aide.” We will accept applications until the position is filled.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply, and this office is an equal-opportunity employer that does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.
