INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of March 20, 2023

MEM-174-23 The Office of Congresswoman Laurel Lee (FL-15) is currently seeking candidates for a paid Spring 2023 internship in her Washington D.C. office.

Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering and logging constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, drafting constituent letters, performing legislative research, leading Capitol tours, and assisting with communications tasks. The internship provides a valuable opportunity to contribute to the daily operations of a congressional office and gain first-hand experience with the legislative process.

Ideal candidates will be team-players who have a strong work ethic, quality written and verbal communication skills, possess a positive attitude and a commitment to exceptional constituent service. Florida ties are preferred but not required.

Interested candidates should submit their cover letter, resume, and writing sample to Hannah.So@mail.house.gov.

MEM-173-23 The Office of Congresswoman Andrea Salinas (D-OR-06) is seeking candidates for a full-time (40-hours a week) summer internship in our Washington D.C. office. This internship will take place June through August with a flexible start and end date.

Interns will get an in-depth look at the operations and functions of a congressional office, including policy, communications, office operations and constituent services. Interns will get opportunities to attend hearings and briefings; assist with constituent services; and research legislation.

Qualifications:

- Outstanding verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to speak courteously with constituents
- Ability to work independently and as a part of a team
- Attention to detail and eagerness to go above and beyond
- Professionalism and demonstrated interest in public service
- OR-06 ties are preferred, but not required

Compensation information:

- Interns will be paid $15 an hour
- Academic credit is available and should be arranged with your academic institution
- This is an internship based in Washington D.C. Those who live outside of the Washington D.C. area may be eligible to receive an additional $1,500 compensation to assist with housing over the course of the internship

The Office is an equal employment opportunity employer and, consistent with the Congressional Accountability Act (“CAA”) and House Rule XXIII, does not discriminate on the basis of an individual’s race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, parental status, or any other factor or basis prohibited by applicable federal law.

This means that these factors will not be the basis for any hiring, discharge, promotion, pay, benefits, or reassignment decision or action, or any other personnel or job action affecting the terms, conditions, and privileges of employment. Consistent with the CAA, the Office may, however, consider party affiliation, domicile, and political compatibility in making employment decisions.

Application:

We are currently accepting applications for an internship based in Washington D.C.. We are not currently hiring in district, but applicants who are interested in an internship based in Oregon's 6th district are welcome to apply for future consideration.

To apply, please complete the online form: <https://salinas.house.gov/services/internships>. Please note that you must include your resume and cover letter. Rolling applications are open until April 3rd at 8:59 PM PST/ 11:59 PM EST.

MEM-172-23 Congressman Gregory W. Meeks (NY-05) is seeking an enthusiastic, highly motivated press/digital intern to work in person in the Washington, DC office for the summer 2023 session.

MEM-166-23 Rep. Frost Internship

In the Washington, D.C. and district offices, internships run throughout the fall, spring or summer semesters for college students. Students gain invaluable educational experience from working in Congress. The hours can be flexible to accommodate students' course schedules, but generally run 9:30 am to 4:30 pm, 5 days a week.

In Washington, D.C., interns' responsibilities will vary. They may be asked to answer phones, run errands, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

Undergraduate students, recent college graduates and district ties preferred. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should apply via <https://frost.house.gov/services/internships>. Cover letters should detail reasons for applying to the position. A stipend will be given to accepted applicants. Deadline to apply is April 15, 2023.

MEM-165-23 Title: Internship (DC)
Salary Level/Range: Paid
Closing Date: March 31, 2023

Congresswoman Rosa L. DeLauro (CT-03), Ranking Member of the House Appropriations Committee, is seeking applicants for the Summer 2023 internship program in her Washington, D.C. office.

Responsibilities: The office of Congresswoman DeLauro runs an internship program intended for current undergraduate students, recent college graduates, and students currently enrolled in graduate school. Internships in Congresswoman DeLauro's office combine administrative and legislative work.

Interns are involved in all aspects of the office including constituent services, correspondence, and legislative research, in addition to providing general staff support.

Qualifications: Applicants should have an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, possess excellent writing skills, and an enthusiastic attitude. Interning in Congresswoman DeLauro's office is a great opportunity to work in a highly active legislative office.

How to Apply: Please email your completed intern application form (tinyurl.com/5ak6snad or available at delauro.house.gov/services/internships) along with a cover letter, resume, brief writing sample (1-2 pages), and two reference contacts to Daniel.Robillard@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Summer 2023 Internship" by 11:59PM on March 31. Please send completed application form and all application materials in a single PDF file.

Applicants and employees shall not be discriminated against with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of such person's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, service in the military, disability, or sexual orientation.

MEM-159-23 The office of Congressman Kevin Mullin (CA-15) is accepting applications for part-time, paid internships for the Spring quarter.

The ideal candidate will have excellent communication skills, interest in the legislative process, resourcefulness, and a willingness to learn in a fast-paced environment. Ties to the Bay Area or California are preferred, but not required.

Responsibilities include answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, drafting constituent correspondence, attending policy briefings and hearings, and other tasks as assigned. The Spring term begins mid-April and ends mid-June with flexible start and end dates. Work will be in-person.

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter as one PDF including availability to MullinInternships@gmail.com. Email subject line should follow the following format: LastName, FirstName – Spring Internship. Additionally, please note any ties to the Bay Area or California in the body of your email. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-155-23 The Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe seeks candidates for its Max Kampelman Fellowship program.

Kampelman Fellowships last three months, with fellows expected to work 30 hours per week. Fellows are paid $25 per hour and are offered ongoing enrichment, professional development, and networking opportunities facilitated by senior commission staff. Policy and communications fellowships are available.

The Kampelman Fellowship program is open to recent undergraduates (the beginning of the fellowship term should be less than one year since graduation), current graduate students, and undergraduate students with previous internship experience. All Kampelman Fellowship candidates should have a keen interest in learning more about international affairs, the inner workings of Congress, and the relationship between the legislative and executive branches in the realm of foreign policy. Proficiency in a second OSCE language is an asset.

We are currently accepting applicants for Summer 2023 (May 22 – August 25): Applications will be accepted from February 1st, 2023 to March 31st, instructions can be found at <https://www.csce.gov/about-csce/join-our-team/max-kampelman-fellowships> religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-146-23 D.C Legislative Intern

PAID Internship Opportunity: Office of Congressman Chris Pappas NH-01
Serving as an intern on our team is an exciting opportunity to work closely alongside staff and develop professional skills in a Congressional office setting.

The ideal intern should be responsible, focused, enthusiastic, able to work cooperatively with Congressional staff, and possess excellent oral and written communications skills.

An internship in the Washington, DC office encompasses a variety of tasks and assignments such as answering phones, greeting visitors, giving tours, writing letters, and assisting with media clips. In addition, interns may be assigned to work with the legislative team and outreach staff to assist with legislation, special projects, writing, and/or research. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many functions of a Congressional office.

Apply

To apply for an internship, please submit your resume, cover letter, and one short writing sample (no longer than two pages) to Pappas.Internships@mail.house.gov with “[Last Name] Internship Application – [Season] 2023 ” in the subject line. In your email, please also specify your specific dates and times of availability.

The deadline for Summer applications is Sunday, April 9 at 11:59 pm.

Current appropriations law prohibits the use of federally appropriated funds to pay the compensation of U.S. government employees whose post of duty is in the continental U.S. unless that person, generally:

1. Is a U.S. citizen;
2. Is a lawful permanent resident and has applied for (or affirms that he or she will apply for) citizenship within six months of first becoming eligible to apply (and the person must complete the citizenship process within two years of applying, but delays attributable to the processing of the application do not count toward the two-year deadline);
3. Is admitted as a refugee or is granted asylum and has filed a declaration of intention to become a lawful permanent resident and subsequently a citizen when he/she is eligible to do so; or
4. Is a person who owes allegiance to the U.S. (e.g., nationals of American Samoa, the Swains Island, or the Northern Mariana Islands; and nationals who meet other requirements described in 8 U.S.C. § 1408).

See Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2022, Pub. L. No. 117-103, div. E tit. VII, § 704 (2022).

MEM-144-23 Congresswoman Brittany Pettersen’s Washington DC and District offices are seeking paid congressional interns for Summer 2023. The internship is in-person and will run from late May to August. Dates are flexible. This internship is open to undergraduate students and recent college graduates.

This internship provides students a firsthand understanding of the functions of a congressional office and the legislative process. Intern responsibilities vary but include answering phones, sorting mail, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, giving tours of the Capitol building, and drafting press releases and constituent letters on various issues. Additionally, the office encourages and will facilitate networking opportunities for interns and staff members.

Internship hours are flexible to accommodate students’ course schedules, but generally run from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. EST in the DC office, and 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. MT in the District office. Applicants must be able to commit to working at least 20 hours a week. Applicants with Colorado ties are prioritized. Internships are eligible for a paid monthly stipend.

To apply for the DC position, please send an email with your resume, cover letter and writing sample to Hannah.illathu@mail.house.gov with “[Your Last Name] Summer 2023 DC Internship” in the subject line. For the district position, please send an email with your resume, cover letter and writing sample to David.clark@mail.house.gov with “[Your Last Name] Summer 2023 District Internship” in the subject line. Please include dates of availability in your submission.

If submitted after April 15th, applications will only be considered on a rolling basis.

MEM-114-23 LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP: The office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Summer 2023 legislative interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from late May/early June through mid-August.

Both full and part time internships are available, and we offer needs-based stipends to students who are Pell Grant eligible. Our internship program has returned to in-person work with flexible telework options.

Ideal applicants are self-starters who bring a customer service mindset and a passion for community service. Applicants must be intellectually curious, willing to spend a lot of time on the phone, and write well.

Responsibilities range from helping constituents, to doing research and drafting memos for our legislative staff, to staffing the Congresswoman in hearings or meetings. We offer interns the opportunity to see Congress up close and from the inside. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience are a plus. Ties to PA-06 are also a plus.

MEM-103-23 We are now accepting Spring 2023 intern applications for the Washington, DC office of Congressman Morgan McGarvey representing Kentucky’s third congressional district!

This internship program will run for 6 weeks and we encourage all eligible applicants to apply. This internship will provide invaluable work experience and significantly contribute to the functionality of the office.

The objective of the internship program is for students to gain as much experience as possible throughout their tenure and feel connected to all staff and constituents they interact with. Interns should leave the program with substantial knowledge of how a congressional office works, why the U.S. House of Representatives is important, and how the federal government functions overall. It is also important for the interns to leave with a staff-approved resume and writing sample.

An intern's main responsibility will be leading tours of the Capitol for constituents, answering the phones, helping research legislation, and assisting staff with miscellaneous tasks as needed.

All interns will be paid, have the opportunity to receive course credit, and must be able to commit to at least 20 hours a week.

Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis.

To apply, send your resume, a cover letter, two references, and a short writing sample (less than 500 words) to Halpin.Burke@mail.house.gov. Please send all application materials as one PDF document with the subject line: “[Last Name, First Name]- Spring 2023 Internship”

Individuals must be eligible to be paid by the United States Government to qualify for this internship, this includes meeting employment eligibility requirements for the U.S. House of Representatives (see www.house.gov/employment for more) and ability to present proof of valid work authorization in accordance with the Immigration Reform Act of 1986.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, military status, gender identity and expression, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.
