MEMBER AND COMMITTEE VACANCY LISTING

Week of September 11, 2023

MEM-468-23 The Office of Congressional Ethics (OCE), an independent, non-partisan investigative entity established by the United States House of Representatives, seeks one attorney with 5-10 years of experience to serve as Investigative Counsel.

The Investigative Counsel reports to the Staff Director and Chief Counsel and will be responsible for conducting sensitive inquiries into allegations of possible violations of federal law and ethical standards of conduct by current Members, Officers and Staff of the House of Representatives and advising the Staff Director and Chief Counsel on legal and policy matters.

The OCE is seeking attorneys interested in the OCE's work supporting ethics and transparency within the House of Representatives. The Investigative Counsel would join a small, Washington, DC-based, investigative team, and would be eligible to apply for hybrid work accommodations combining in-person core days and remote work.

Core Responsibilities:

- Review information received by OCE, discern possible violations, and identify facts requiring further investigation
- Plan, organize and conduct investigations regarding allegations and advise the Staff Director and Chief Counsel regarding appropriate evaluation of cases
- Advise the Staff Director and Chief Counsel on legal issues in matters under investigation and on broader legal and policy issues involved in the operations of OCE

- Draft lengthy and detailed memoranda, reports, and referrals for Board consideration and potential public release

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated ability to conduct and direct complex legal research and present the results in a clear, precise and persuasive manner
- Thoroughness and careful attention to detail
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Strong legal judgment and demonstrated professional integrity
- Experience auditing large sets of data or evidence and providing detailed analysis
- Desirable but not required:
 - oInvestigative experience with high-profile and sensitive matters;
 - oExperience with investigations involving public officials;
 - oExperience with campaign finance or ethics law;
 - oExperience conducting interviews or depositions;
 - oExperience writing public reports or legal documents; and
 - oAdvanced proficiency in development and use of electronic databases, and other computer skills including knowledge of current information technology tools related to investigations
- Ability to:
 - oWork independently or as part of an investigative team;
 - oManage multiple tasks and projects;
 - oWork well under pressure and tight time deadlines; and
 - oExercise discretion and independent judgment

Duties:

- Developing investigative strategies and implementing investigative plans
- Reviewing evidence and data in order to analyze, develop, and provide detailed written and oral reports of findings
- Identifying information to substantiate or disprove allegations and assess the likely sources of that information
- Collecting and reviewing documents, electronic media, and physical evidence
- Interviewing witnesses and subjects
- Performing other duties as assigned

Requirements:

- Ability to pass Security Background Investigation to obtain Top Secret clearance
- Graduation from an ABA accredited law school and active bar membership

Applicant Instructions:

Please send cover letter, short writing sample, and resume (electronic submissions preferred) to:

MEM-466-23 Legislative Assistant/Foreign Policy Advisor Opening -- Congresswoman Lois Frankel (FL-22), is hiring a Legislative Assistant/Foreign Policy Advisor to support her work as a member of the House Appropriations Committee and as Co-Chair of the bipartisan Women, Peace, and Security Caucus. This position will encompass a wide range of foreign policy issues including covering the State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee, Israel, homeland security, immigration, veterans, and other issues as assigned.

Applicant must be comfortable working in a fast-paced and team-oriented environment. Excellent writing skills, ability to build and maintain relationships, and attention to detail are required. This is not an entry-level position. Previous experience on the Hill and with the Appropriations process is preferred.

Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ people, and members of other minority or marginalized groups are strongly encouraged to apply. We are an equal opportunity employer and do not discriminate against candidates on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability status, or veteran status.

Salary range is $70,000 - $85,000 depending on experience, and includes health insurance, student loan repayment, and other competitive benefits. Title and salary will be commensurate with experience. Please fill out the google form at tinyurl.com/FL22FPLA to apply. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-464-23 Press Secretary / Digital Director / Deputy Communications Director – Congresswoman Diana DeGette (D-CO) is seeking a highly motivated, detail-orientated communications professional for a vacancy in her communications shop. This position can be based out of either DeGette’s Washington, D.C. or Denver, CO office.

The ideal candidate will be creative, have strong writing and organizational skills, and a proficiency in crafting digital content — as well as experience coordinating with media. Being a detail-oriented team player is essential, along with the ability to be a self-starter and work on multiple projects at once in a fast-paced environment. A good attitude and friendly demeanor are greatly appreciated. Capitol Hill experience or Colorado ties are a plus, but not required.

Responsibilities will include overseeing digital content for the member's social media platforms and website; graphic design; video filming and editing; taking photographs; drafting releases, newsletters, advisories, talking points, speeches, and more; organizing press events; and compiling daily press clips. This position will coordinate closely with and report to the Communications Director.

The salary range for the position is commensurate with experience and expected to fall within $55,000 – $65,000 annually. Both title and salary are negotiable based on experience.

This is not an entry-level position. Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, two writing samples, and an example of previous digital media or graphic design projects to DeGette.Comms@mail.house.gov with their last name in the subject line. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until the position is filled. No phone calls, faxes, or drop-ins please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Candidates from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

MEM-305-23 DPCC COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR – The House Democratic Policy and Communications Committee seeks an experienced Communications Director.

The Communications Director will work with the Executive Director to design and execute strategies that advance the message priorities and values of House Democrats; create messaging guidance, event suggestions, sample releases, and other communications tools; help Democratic offices pitch stories, hold strong local press events, and position Members in the media; and assist in bolstering paid communications programs in Democratic offices.

The Communications Director is also expected to assist with the planning and execution of regular DPCC message meetings and policy dinners; support DPCC outreach initiatives; and assist with daily tasks and long-term planning. Spanish language fluency and experience with constituency media is strongly preferred.

This is not an entry-level position; a strong background in communications on Capitol Hill is required. DPCC is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ+ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the position is filled. DPCC will contact the best qualified candidates to begin our interview process.

To apply, please email jobs.DPCC@mail.house.gov with the following application materials attached as one combined PDF: 1. Cover letter; 2. Résumé; 3. Two writing samples, with one coming from work on Capitol Hill; and 4. Two references including name, current title and organization, phone number, email, and a one-sentence description of your relationship to the reference (we will not contact these references without contacting you first).

MEM-300-23 Congressman Steven Horsford (NV-O4) seeks a highly motivated, hard-working, skilled and experienced Legislative Director to help shape and manage a robust legislative portfolio.

Congressman Horsford is a member of the Armed Services and Financial Services Committees, Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus, and an active frontline member. Previous legislative experience on Capitol Hill is required, and Nevada ties are a plus.

Ideal candidates will have experience managing and mentoring staff, thinking strategically and will possess a sophisticated understanding of the legislative process, along with excellent writing, organizational and time management skills. The ideal candidate will primarily be responsible for managing a legislative portfolio that consists of healthcare, taxes, gun violence prevention, and other issues.

Candidates should be creative, proactive and self-motivated, and have an ability to operate effectively under pressure and work closely in a team atmosphere in this fast-moving, dynamic office.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, military status, marital or parental status. Women, people of color and LGBTQAI+ candidates are strongly encouraged to apply, as are candidates with Nevada ties.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience, along with generous benefits and professional development opportunities.

Interested candidates must include a cover letter, resume, two page max writing sample and three professional references in a single PDF file.

Email submissions to the Director of Administration, Selena Harvey at nv04resumes@mail.house.gov. Subject line must read " MEM-NV04-LD-23_last name". No calls please. Individuals selected for an interview will be contacted.
