INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of July 26, 2021

MEM-282-21 Congresswoman Grace Meng's (NY-06) D.C. Office is seeking interns for the upcoming Fall 2021 Semester.

This internship is based in the Washington, DC office and is open to college students. Hours are flexible to accommodate students' course schedules, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session. Due to the ongoing impact of COVID-19, our office will continue to take precautions, including some remote work.

Interns' responsibilities will vary. Responsibilities include: checking voicemails, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on various issues before the House. Interns gain an understanding of the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office. If eligible, this internship includes a monthly stipend.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to NY06_Intern_App@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Fall Intern Application" no later than 4:00p on Tuesday, August 10th, 2021. New York ties are a plus!

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to NY06_Intern_App@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Communications Intern Application" no later than 4:00p on Tuesday, August 10th, 2021. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-279-21 Congresswoman Suzan DelBene seeks motivated, flexible, and detail-oriented interns to serve in her offices for Fall 2021.

The ideal candidates will possess exceptional written and oral communication skills, a high degree of professionalism, as well as a strong interest in public service. Congressional internships are open to all majors and designed for undergraduate and graduate students, as well as recent graduates with an interest in public service.

Intern responsibilities include greeting constituents and handling constituent phone calls, assisting staff with administrative tasks, conducting research, and assisting with constituent correspondence. Washington, D.C. interns will have the opportunity to lead tours of the U.S. Capitol as well as attend hearings and briefings for the legislative staff.

Ties to Washington state and/or the 1st Congressional District are encouraged to apply but not required.

Starting and ending dates are flexible, although prospective interns should be able to commit at least 20 hours per week during the semester.

How to apply:

Please send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to Internship.DelBene@mail.house.gov and specify whether you are applying for a D.C. or District office internship in the subject line. Please also state any ties you have to Washington state and/or to the 1st Congressional District. The deadline to submit applications is July 30, 2021 at 11:59PM PT.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-277-21 Congresswoman Lisa Blunt Rochester is currently seeking energetic and self-motivated interns for the DC and Wilmington office for the Fall 2021 term. This is a paid internship. This is currently a hybrid position that is subjected to change based on CDC guidelines.

Preferred candidates should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail, strong writing skills, a passion for public service, and a good sense of humor. Primarily responsibilities include answering phones, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings, and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. Delaware ties are preferred, but not required.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or citizenship status, sex, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, sexual orientation, age, disability, or military status.

Interested candidates must send a resume, a cover letter that describes why you want to intern for Congresswoman Blunt Rochester, and 2 letters of recommendation to LBR.Internship@mail.house.gov, indicating the office (DC, Wilmington, or Georgetown) and the term you are applying for in the subject line.

For example: "DC Spring 2020 Internship." Candidates from BIPOC, LGBTQIA+, and/or underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. Please note in the cover letter or body of the email if the internship is for school credit and if you are Pell Grant eligible.

MEM-276-21 The Democratic Staff of the Select Committee on the Climate Crisis seeks full or part-time candidates for an internship from mid-to-late September through December 2021.

Responsibilities may include watching/attending briefings and hearings for staff, conducting research projects, preparing materials for Committee hearings and events, and other tasks as assigned or needed. The ideal candidate will be detail-oriented, self-motivated, reliable, and have excellent writing and communications skills. An interest in environmental, climate change, or science policy is strongly desired and preferred. Those currently enrolled in relevant undergraduate or graduate programs are encouraged to apply.

While this internship will start as a virtual opportunity, interns should be available to work in-person as needed in Washington, DC for a hybrid internship pursuant to health and safety guidelines.

Please send a resume and cover letter to SCCCDjobs@mail.house.gov with “Fall Intern” in the subject line by August 6, 2021. Please include your approximate months of availability in the message, and how many days per week you would be available.

The office is an equal opportunity employer, and diverse candidates are encouraged to apply. No calls or drop-ins please. Individuals selected for an interview will be contacted.

MEM-275-21 The Office of Congressman Raja Krishnamoorthi (IL-08) is seeking a highly motivated, proactive virtual/in-person press intern to assist on an aggressive communications team. Applicants must be available to begin in mid-August. This internship may offer a stipend. Qualified candidates will demonstrate a strong and positive work ethic, pay attention to detail, be responsive and punctual, and have solid writing and editing skills.

Preferred applicants are diligent, communicative, creative, and are willing to perform and follow through on a wide variety of tasks. Applicants must have the ability to work proactively from home and must have a reliable computer, internet connection, phone connection, and power. The intern will be expected to be online and fully available from 8:30am-5pm ET Monday through Friday.

Intern responsibilities include:

- *Compiling press clips by 9:30am ET every morning

MEM-211-21 The Washington, D.C. office of Congresswoman Gwen Moore (WI-04) seeks interns for the upcoming Fall 2021 term. The D.C. office has two types of internships: A Legislative Internship and a Press Internship. Both will be remote for the duration of the term.

Legislative Intern responsibilities include attending hearings and briefings, drafting and editing constituent correspondence letters, researching legislation for the legislative staff, and providing support for the day-to-day activities of the office.

Press Intern responsibilities include drafting social media posts, designing graphics, conducting interview preparation for the Member, drafting and editing constituent correspondence letters, and assisting the Press Secretary in the day-to-day operations of the office.

Both the Press and Legislative Internships are paid via monthly stipend. The Office of Congresswoman Moore is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, or socio-economic status. All are welcome and encouraged to apply.

Applicants should send a resume, a one-page cover letter, and 1-2 short writing samples to WI04DC.Internships@mail.house.gov. Additionally, applicants should indicate their expected start and end dates, availability for Monday-Friday, and which position they are applying for (or state that you do not have a preference).

We also ask that applicants for the Press Internship submit 1-3 sample graphics. Please include “Moore Internship – Fall 2021” in the subject line and compile all application materials into one PDF document. Applications for the Fall 2021 term will be considered until 6:00 PM EST on July 28th, 2021.

No calls or drop-ins, please.

MEM-176-21 The D.C. Office of Rep. Ro Khanna (D-CA) seeks interns for the upcoming Fall 2021 term. The D.C. office has two types of internships available: an in-person internship and a remote, research-focused internship.

In-person intern responsibilities will include drafting social media posts for the Member’s official social media pages (including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram), designing graphics, attending hearings and briefings (either in person or virtually from the office), researching legislation for both the Member and legislative staff, drafting constituent letters on the Member’s behalf, interfacing with constituents and visitors, staffing the front office, and potentially conducting tours.

To be considered for this position, candidates must show proof of full COVID-19 vaccination, and if hired, agree to follow additional precautionary measures, such as mask-wearing and regular sanitizing.

Remote intern responsibilities will similarly include drafting social media posts, designing graphics, attending virtual hearings and briefings, and drafting constituent letters on the Member's behalf, but there will be a heavier focus on conducting legislative research for both the Member and legislative staff.

All interns are paid $15.00 per hour for a minimum of 15 hours/week and maximum of 40 hours/week unless the intern is receiving a stipend from an external organization in relation to their internship.

The Office of Rep. Ro Khanna is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, or socio-economic status. All are welcome and encouraged to apply.

Applicants should send a resume, a short cover letter, two sample tweets on a current event, and availability to julia.albertson@mail.house.gov.

Additionally, applicants should indicate which position (if you don't have a preference, please indicate that as well) you're seeking, and include their vaccination status if applying to the in-person internship.

Applications for the Fall 2021 Term will be considered until 11:59pm EST on Monday July 26th, 2021.
