

U.S. House of Representatives

CAO

CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service (HVAPS)

B-235 Longworth House Office Building

Washington, D.C. 20515

202-226-5836

Vacancy Bulletins are available for pick-up in
in the CAO Human Resources Office - Ford HOB 102
To Subscribe or Unsubscribe to the Vacancy Listserv visit:

<http://www.house.gov/content/jobs/>

Job Line: 202-226-4504

INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of October 12, 2021

MEM-415-21 The Office of Congressman Mark Pocan (D-WI) is seeking a full-time in-person intern in the Washington D.C. office to begin as soon as possible.

The intern will work mainly with D.C.-based staff, performing legislative and administrative work while gaining valuable career and educational experience. Specific duties include drafting and sorting constituent correspondence, attending virtual policy briefings, performing legislative research, producing daily press clips, and supporting staff members on various projects of interest.

Qualified candidates are organized and detail-oriented, responsible, willing to learn, able to work cooperatively, possess strong written communication skills, and are committed to public service. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, and a brief writing sample to Maura.Haydin@mail.house.gov with "Pocan Internship - Fall 2021" in the subject line. Interested applicants should also apply to the scholarship program at: <https://pocan.house.gov/scholarship-program>

MEM-414-21 The Office of Congressman Mark Pocan (D-WI) is seeking full-time in-person interns in the Washington D.C. office to begin in January.

The intern will work mainly with D.C.-based staff, performing legislative and administrative work while gaining valuable career and educational experience.

Specific duties include drafting and sorting constituent correspondence, attending virtual policy briefings, performing legislative research, producing daily press clips, and supporting staff members on various projects of interest.

Qualified candidates are organized and detail-oriented, responsible, willing to learn, able to work cooperatively, possess strong written communication skills, and are committed to public service. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, and a brief writing sample to Maura.Haydin@mail.house.gov with “Pocan Internship - Spring 2021” in the subject line. Interested applicants should also apply to the scholarship program at: <https://pocan.house.gov/scholarship-program>.

MEM-413-21 The House Foreign Affairs Committee Majority Staff is currently looking for interns for the Spring 2022 semester.

Interns will be responsible for providing staff members with policy and administrative support. Duties may include answering phones, compiling press clips, attending staff briefings, performing legislative and policy research, drafting memoranda and other written materials, facilitating committee operations and a variety of other tasks.

Candidates should be team-oriented, resourceful, upbeat people who have skills beyond research and require little supervision. This internship is open to undergraduates (juniors and seniors), recent graduates, and Master’s and law students. Minorities, women, and LGBTQ persons are strongly encouraged to apply.

If you would like to be considered for an internship please submit a one-page resume and cover letter in PDF format to hcfa.democrat@mail.house.gov and include “HFAC Internship Application – Spring 2022” in the subject line of the email.

MEM-412-21 The office of Representative Kai Kahele (HI-02) is currently accepting applications for Spring interns in both his Hilo, Hawai‘i and D.C. offices from January to May 2022.

Hawai‘i District Office interns will be asked to answer phones, sort mail, research legislation and stakeholder meetings, assist staff with constituent casework and outreach activities and perform administrative work as assigned. As a result, interns will have the opportunity to learn about constituent services and the functions of a congressional district office.

D.C. Office interns will be asked to answer phones, research legislation, attend virtual hearings and briefings and draft memos for the Congressman and legislative staff. As a result, interns will have the opportunity to learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional D.C. office.

Ideal candidates should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail and the ability to work in a fast-paced environment. We highly encourage college students and recent graduates to apply. Students in high school are only eligible to apply for our Summer term. Hawai'i ties are strongly preferred, but not required.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Women, people of color, LGBTQIA+, unhoused people, and members of other marginalized communities are encouraged to apply.

Interested candidates should apply on the Congressman's website at <https://kahele.house.gov/services/internships>. The deadline for applications is Friday, November 26 at 5:00pm EST. Applicants are encouraged to submit their application early. Applications that are incomplete or submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

MEM-409-21 The Washington D.C. office of Representative Matt Cartwright (PA-08) is currently accepting applications for Full-time/Part-Time Interns for the Fall of 2021.

Duties include (but are not limited to): answering phones, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. The ideal candidate for this internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Pennsylvania ties are preferred but not required. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ+ persons are encouraged to apply.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to dtours.cartwright@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Fall 2021 Internship."

The deadline for applying is October 15th.

MEM-407-21 The office of Congresswoman Ann Kirkpatrick is currently accepting internship applications for the Spring of 2022 in our DC and Tucson offices. The internship will be paid.

Duties include: Greeting visitors, running errands, opening and sorting mail, leading tours of the Capitol (if tours resume), researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on various issues before the House. Interns will also have the opportunity to assist in various constituent casework cases or work on District-based projects of importance. Some of these duties may be altered due to COVID-19.

Arizona ties are preferred but not required. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ+ persons are encouraged to apply.

All interested applicants should complete this form via the following: <https://kirkpatrick.house.gov/services/internships/> and submit a one-page resume (required) and one page cover letter (optional) by November 1, 2021.

MEM-406-21 Congresswoman Lisa Blunt Rochester is currently seeking energetic and self-motivated interns for her Washington, DC and Wilmington offices for the Spring 2022 term. This is a paid internship. This is currently a hybrid in-person/remote position that is subjected to change based on CDC guidelines.

Preferred candidates should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail, strong writing skills, a passion for public service, and a good sense of humor.

Primary responsibilities include answering phones, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on various issues before the House of Representatives. Delaware ties are preferred, but not required.

This office is an equal opportunity employer. Interested candidates should send a resume, a cover letter that describes why you want to intern for Congresswoman Blunt Rochester, and 2 references to LBR.Internship@mail.house.gov, indicating the office (DC or Wilmington) and the term you are applying for in the subject line. For example: "DC Spring 2020 Internship." Applications are due on November 30th, 2021

MEM-405-21 Congressman Barry Moore (AL-02) is seeking part-time OR full-time interns for the Spring 2022 semester in both his Washington, D.C. and District offices.

The internships are based in the Washington, D.C., Andalusia, Wetumpka, and Dothan, Alabama offices. They are open to college students of all majors and designed for undergraduate and graduate students, as well as recent graduates with an interest in public service. Hours are flexible to accommodate course schedules, but generally run from 9:00am to 5:00pm.

Preferred candidates should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail, a passion for public service, and the ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others.

Intern responsibilities include answering the phones, drafting constituent letters, listening to hearings and briefings, assisting the press & leg team, conducting research, and administrative work as needed. Interns will gain an understanding of the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and class schedule/availability to Internships.AL02@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Spring Intern Application 2022 (Office Location).” Please specify in the email and subject line which office you are applying for.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Alabama ties are appreciated, but not required.

MEM-404-21 Digital Resident (full-time, in-person)

The House Democratic Caucus is seeking motivated, detail-oriented Digital residents to work full-time, in-person in a fast-paced leadership office. Residents will be primarily responsible for assisting digital campaigns and creating content for various social media platforms. The program will also include an educational work component in which residents will attend and manage remote congressional briefings and hearings, conduct research, draft internal documents and participate in professional development sessions.

The term of this paid residency will be from November 2021 to March 2022. Applicants must be able to work in Washington, D.C. Ideal applicants will have a professional and positive attitude, a demonstrated knowledge of Democratic politics and problem-solving skills.

Digital candidates should have proficiency with social media platforms, graphic design, video editing software and other digital programs. Navigation of creative design platforms is mandatory (Adobe Creative Cloud, Canva, etc.). Strong writing skills are required. A passion for politics, the legislative process and the digital creative industry is a plus.

Qualified applicants should send one PDF file including their resume, cover letter, digital portfolio or digital examples along with three professional references to CaucusInternResume@mail.house.gov with the subject line “APPLICANT NAME Fall 2021 Digital Residency Application.”

Women, people of color, LGBTQIA+ individuals, veterans and those with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The deadline to submit applications is Monday, October 18, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. ET. No drop-ins or calls, please.

MEM-403-21 The Washington, D.C. Office of Congressman Steve Cohen (D-TN-09) is seeking an intern for winter 2021. This is a hybrid position—hours can be worked in person and remotely. If the public health situation changes significantly, the position could transition to in-office full-time.

This position offers an opportunity to learn about the U.S. House of Representatives and gain substantive work experience in an exciting and fast-paced office. Internships are offered on a full-time and part-time basis, and stipends are offered based on need and ties to Tennessee's 9th District. Full-time availability is preferred. Interns will work for 10-16 weeks (December-April). Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated interest in politics, policy and/or public service.
- Strong communications and writing skills.
- Hard-working, dependable, detail-oriented and professional.
- Self-motivated (especially given that all work is remote).
- Ties to Tennessee's 9th District are a bonus, but not required.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with constituent correspondence and draft email blasts and other forms of outreach.
- Attend virtual briefings and track virtual hearings.
- Conduct weekly legislative assignments.
- Conduct legislative research on an as-needed basis.

To apply, applicants must complete the form and submit the following materials on <https://cohen.house.gov/services/internships>:

- Resume.
- Cover letter.
- Three references.

About Office of Congressman Steve Cohen

Congressman Cohen is the Representative of Tennessee's 9th District, which includes most of Memphis. He has served in this position since 2007. He is a Democrat.

MEM-402-21 The Washington D.C. office of Representative Raja Krishnamoorthi (IL-08) is currently accepting applications for a Part-Time Intern for the Fall of 2021.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. The ideal candidate for this internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Illinois ties are preferred but not required. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ+ persons are encouraged to apply.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to illinois08interns@gmail.com with the subject line “Fall 2021 Internship.” The deadline for applying is October 15th.

MEM-398-21 The House Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Crisis Majority Staff seeks motivated and reliable students to fill remote digital/press intern positions for the fall and the spring. A public health background is a bonus, but not required.

Selected candidates will be responsible for both press and digital duties. Digital and press responsibilities include but are not limited to, developing a social media calendar and crafting daily social media content, clipping videos, designing graphics, manual photography, editing short videos, monitoring social media, compiling press clips, editing and compiling media lists, conducting press research, and performing other press and administrative tasks as necessary, particularly on hearing days.

Successful candidates will possess familiarity with programs such as Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Canva, OBS Studio, and Cision, as well as compiling and interpreting social media analytics. Positions require attention to detail, strong writing skills, creativity, and a willingness to learn.

Positions report to the communications director. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. To apply, please send a resume and portfolio to SSCCJobs@mail.house.gov.

MEM-391-21 The Washington D.C. office of Representative Rick Larsen (WA-02) is currently accepting internship applications for the Fall of 2021. The internship will be paid.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Due to the ongoing spread of COVID-19, some of these duties may be altered. The ideal candidate for this internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Washington ties are preferred but not required. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ+ persons are encouraged to apply.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to Libby Otto at libby.otto@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Fall 2021 Internship.” Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. The anticipated start and end dates will be determined based on individual circumstances.

MEM-382-21 The Washington D.C. office of Congressman Ken Buck (CO-04) is currently accepting internship applications for the Fall of 2021.

Typical duties include answering phones, leading Capitol tours, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on a variety of issues. Due to the ongoing spread of COVID-19, some of these duties may be significantly altered. The ideal candidate for this paid internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Students and recent graduates interested in learning more about our country's legislative process are encouraged to apply. The Congressman sits on the Judiciary Committee and the Foreign Affairs Committee, making this an ideal opportunity for those interested in law and/or foreign policy. Colorado ties are preferred but by no means required.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to Allie Woodward at internships.co04@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Fall 2021 Internship." Please send all attachments as PDFs. Additionally, applicants should include their availability as a part- or full-time intern (if part-time, please be as specific as possible).

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. The anticipated start and end dates will be determined based on individual circumstances.

MEM-381-21 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, Subcommittee on Government Operations, is seeking an energetic and self-motivated graduate student for a full-time internship through December 2021.

The position offers the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Subcommittee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting staff in preparing for congressional hearings, writing floor speeches, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch and private sector officials. Interns play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time. The Subcommittee on Government Operations has jurisdiction over issues related to the federal civil service, whistleblower protections, the U.S. Postal Service; government management and accounting measures; the economy, efficiency, and management of government operations and activities; government reorganization; intergovernmental affairs, including state and local governments; federal information technology security, acquisition policy, and management; and federal property.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service; (ii) a desire to learn; and (iii) exceptional analytic skills. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Applicants must be pursuing an advanced degree to be eligible for this internship. Applicants should be willing to work full time.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing their resume and cover letter in one PDF titled “last name, first name, Internship GovOps” to Government.Operations@mail.house.gov with “2021 Internship Application” in the subject line. No phone calls or drop-ins please. Only applicants who are selected for an interview will receive a response.

MEM-380-21 The office of Congressman Jeff Van Drew (NJ-02) is currently accepting applications for full and part-time interns for the spring internship session. The start date would be as early as Dec 10 (flexible depending on availability) with a flexible end date. Interns are paid a stipend based on availability and have access to transit benefits.

The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with our nation’s legislative process. Interns contribute to the daily operations of the office and are expected to act in a reliable, professional manner at all times.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Congressman Van Drew supports students requesting credit for their internship through their university.

If interested, please email a resume and cover letter to JeffVanDrewNJ@gmail.com. Please indicate in your cover letter that you’re applying for a spring internship and format the files as [Full Name_Resume], [Full Name_Cover Letter].

MEM-377-21 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform is seeking energetic and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive-branch and private sector officials for the purpose of taking notes.

Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff. Background: The Oversight and Reform Committee is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service and (ii) a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full time are preferred.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing a cover letter and resume to oversightjobs@mail.house.gov, with “Legal Internship” in the subject line. Please attach the resume and cover letter with the file name using the following format: “LastName.FirstName.Resume” and “LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter.” No phone calls or drop-ins please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.