INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of January 15, 2024

MEM-022-24 House Democrat seeks a paid Legislative Fellow to assist senior legislative staff with a wide variety of legislative topics and tasks.

The Legislative Fellow will gain experience in preparing for committee hearings and markups; developing and advancing legislation; drafting speeches; and meeting with constituents and other stakeholders. The ideal candidate will possess superb written and oral communication skills; have some policy experience; and enjoy collaborating with others in a fast-paced environment.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to housedemjobs@gmail.com with "Legislative Fellow" in the subject line.

MEM-017-24 The office of Congressman Jeff Van Drew (NJ-02) is currently accepting applications for full and part-time interns for the spring internship session.

The start date would be as soon as possible with a flexible end date. Interns are paid a stipend based on availability and have access to transit benefits.

The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with our nation's legislative process. Interns contribute to the daily operations of the office and are expected to act in a reliable, professional manner at all times.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Congressman Van Drew supports students requesting credit for their internship through their university.

If interested, please email a resume and cover letter to nj02internships@mail.house.gov. Please indicate in your cover letter that you're applying for a spring internship and format the files as [Full Name_Resume], [Full Name_Cover Letter].

MEM-016-24 The Washington, D.C. Office of Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA-07), Chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, is seeking full-time paid interns for the Summer 2024 term. This is an in-person position.

Interns will work primarily with D.C.-based staff performing legislative and administrative work. Tasks include answering phones, sorting and drafting responses to constituent correspondence, attending briefings and hearings, performing legislative research, and supporting staff members on various projects. Ideal candidates should be professional and possess excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, and a commitment to public service and progressive values. All interns will be paid $15/hr unless funded by an outside organization.

The Office of Representative Pramila Jayapal is an equal opportunity employer. Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, new Americans, people with disabilities, and members of other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. State and/or district ties are a plus but not required.

Interested applicants should e-mail a resume, cover letter stating availability, short writing sample, and three references to Jayapal.DCInternships@mail.house.gov with the subject "2024 Summer Internship Application – FirstName LastName" by Sunday, March 31st.

MEM-015-24 The Office of Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton (DC-00) is seeking to hire a motivated, detail-oriented, current college undergrad student, graduate student, or recent graduate wishing to gain constituent-oriented internship experience in the DC District Office.

District Intern responsibilities include answering phones, conducting research, assisting with constituent casework, engaging in constituent correspondence, community outreach, and assisting with special projects at the discretion of the District Director. As a result, the intern will learn about the important functions of our impactful District office.

The term of this internship will be from June 3rd, 2024 to August 15th, 2024. The internship is a paid full-time internship, interns must work at least 30 hours a week and will be provided a travel stipend. Typical hours for internships are Monday through Thursday 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, although hours may be flexible to accommodate students' hectic course schedules.

Interested applicants should email a resume, cover letter, 1 writing sample on a current issue, and at least one reference to norton.casework@mail.house.gov. The deadline to apply is 9:00 am EST, Sunday, February 4th. District ties are encouraged but not required. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability, or age.

MEM-006-24 Spring internships in Congressman Blaine Luetkemeyer's office will be held in-person in the Washington, D.C. office. Schedules are flexible to accommodate academic schedules. All interns are paid a stipend.

Interns would have the chance to gain valuable hands-on experience while serving the constituents of Missouri's third district. Interns would be exposed to a wide range of policy areas, including the Congressman's work on the House Financial Services Committee, Small Business Committee, and the Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party. Responsibilities would include corresponding with constituents, performing research for staff, giving tours of the Capitol building, attending Congressional hearings, and helping prepare for upcoming hearings.

Interested applicants should send a copy of their resume to Andrew.Weinstock@mail.house.gov. Successful interns have strong attention to detail and communications skills, as well as a strong interest in learning about the legislative process.
