Week of January 23, 2023

MEM-044-23 The office of Congresswoman Sydney Kamlager-Dove (CA-37) is currently hiring a Paid Full Time Spring Press Intern to work in the Washington, D.C. office.

The press intern will work closely with the communications team in a fast-paced, battleground Congressional office. The internship will begin in January and run through early May 2023.

Responsibilities will include:

- Compiling daily clips
- Drafting press releases and other written materials
- Maintaining press lists
- Creating graphics for social media
- Assisting with updates to the Member's official social media channels

The ideal candidate will be able to work in a fast-paced environment and have previous intern experience in communications.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Interested applicants should send a resume, one writing sample (or cover letter), and any additional social media/graphic examples that they wish to include to ca37staff2022@gmail.com with “Full Name - Spring Press Intern” in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-039-23 The DC office of Congressman Dan Goldman seeks a Press Intern, a Legislative Intern, and a Law Clerk to start this February. All are paid positions.

The Press Intern will have the opportunity to work on a busy press team compiling press clips, drafting press releases and other written materials, maintaining press lists, assisting with press events, drafting social media content, developing graphics, processing constituent mail, and drafting constituent responses among other duties. College students and recent graduates are welcome to apply.

The Legislative Intern will have the opportunity to work on an active legislative team to attend briefings, draft memos, conduct research, assist with constituent meetings, monitor the floor, and assist with events as well as with processing constituent mail and drafting constituent responses among other duties. College students and recent graduates are welcome to apply.

The Law Clerk will have the opportunity as a law student or recent graduate to conduct research, monitor legislation, represent the member in meetings/briefings, assist with preparing materials for committee hearings, markups, and events, draft oversight letters, support with processing constituent mail, and draft constituent responses among other duties.

We are proudly an office that is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, military status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.

Special consideration will be given to candidates from underrepresented backgrounds, those with ties to NY-10, who speak a second language, are first-generation, have lived experiences that will allow them to bring diverse perspectives to the work they do, and those with prior Congressional Internship experience so please include this information in your cover letter.

To apply for one of these positions, please send a resume, a cover letter, and a writing sample as one PDF to ny10goldmanresumes@gmail.com with “Full Name - [Press Intern/Legislative Intern/Law Clerk]” as the subject line.
