INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of March 1, 2021

MEM-067-21 District Office

The Lacey Office of Representative Marilyn Strickland (WA-10) is currently accepting applications for a paid, remote Spring/Summer internship (late April/early May – early September).

Interns will be asked to answer phones, assist the constituent services team, attend virtual events, research projects, and aid our press team, Congresswoman, and district staff. As a result, interns learn about constituent services and engagement and the many other functions of a congressional office.

Ideal candidates should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail, customer service skills, the ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. South Puget Sound ties are preferred, but not required.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, a one-page writing sample, and dates of availability in a PDF format to WA10resumes@gmail.com with “WA-10 Spring/Summer Intern” in the subject line. The deadline for applications is Wednesday, March 31, 2021.

Applicants are encouraged to submit their application early. BIPOC applicants are encouraged to apply.

MEM-066-21 DC Office

The office of Representative Marilyn Strickland (WA-10) is currently accepting applicants for paid remote summer internships which will run from May to August.

Legislative Interns assist the legislative staff located in Washington D.C. in conducting research, drafting memos and constituent mail, answering phones, attending hearings, inputting casework, attending virtual events, aiding Congresswoman Strickland's legislative initiatives.

The office is also looking to hire a full-time press intern to assist the press team. Responsibilities include compiling clips, drafting social media posts, op-eds, press releases, digital content and working with the press team to devise media strategies and bolster the office's communication efforts. Experience working in press, communications, or a related field is a plus.

Ideal candidates for these internships should possess excellent communication skills, a strong attention to detail, the ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. Washington State ties are preferred, but not required.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, a one-page writing sample, and dates of availability in a single PDF document to WA10resumes@gmail.com with "WA-10 DC Summer Internship" in the subject line. Please indicate in the cover letter which internship you are applying for.

The deadline for applications is Wednesday, March 31, 2021 but applicants are encouraged to submit their application early. Applications that are incomplete or submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

This office is Equal Employment Opportunity Office and does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, military service, or other non-merit factor. BIPOC applicants and individuals in underrepresented communities are encouraged to apply.

MEM-063-21 The office of Congressman John Sarbanes (D-Md.) seeks a highly motivated, personable and professional legislative intern for the Summer 2021 session.

Preferred candidates are current students or recent graduates with strong writing skills, who pay close attention to detail. Maryland ties a plus. A stipend is available.

To apply, please send a cover letter, a resume, list of references and availability to employment@mail.house.gov. Please no calls.

MEM-061-21 The Office of Congresswoman Brenda L. Lawrence (MI-14) seeks motivated, detail-oriented, and energetic professionals for remote legislative and press internships for the Washington, DC office.

Qualified applicants should have strong communications skills, the ability to manage multiple tasks, possess strong writing skills, and demonstrate a solid work ethic. Interns will be provided with computers to complete official work.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

Scanning voicemails, processing electronic constituent mail, assisting legislative staff with research, attending congressional briefings, participating in hearing preparation, drafting constituent correspondence on a variety of issues, and other duties as necessary.

For Press Interns:

Intern would support Communications Director by drafting written materials such as press releases, creating graphics for social media, tracking media coverage, and assisting with media inquiries and research. Successful candidates will have an interest in politics, communications, and new media, with excellent written communication skills. Knowledge of graphic design programs (Adobe Creative Suite, Canva, etc.) a plus, but not required.

Full-time and part-time internship positions are available beginning in May, 2021. To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, and brief writing sample to Ryan.Casman@mail.house.gov with the phrase "Internship Application" in the subject line. For applicants interested in press internships, please include a small portfolio showcasing your work. Please indicate expected start and end dates as well as hours available to work in your cover letter.

MEM-056-21 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space and Technology seeks full-time and part time, paid interns for Spring 2021. Interns are asked to work with staff to help prepare for committee hearings and markups and will work on substantive research and oversight projects in addition to press matters.

Furthermore, interns will be critical to the daily operation of the office including tasks such as answering phones, greeting visitors, and filing official documents.

Internship Description/Duties:

This position will be a combination of telework and in-office work as safety and logistics permit. Interns will be given an opportunity to work on substantive projects under the direction of Committee Staff while also serving a general administrative function.

Typical Intern Duties include working closely with staff to complete long-term or short-term projects, preparing research memos on scientific topics, supporting staff in the preparation of Committee hearing materials, and participating in events related to the Committee's jurisdiction.

Qualification/Skills:

Candidate should be detail oriented, possess strong oral and written communication skills, have a strong appreciation for situational awareness, be able to multitask, and be adaptable to a fast-paced environment. An interest in topics relevant to the committee's jurisdiction is preferred.

Interested applicants should visit the Committee's website at <https://science.house.gov/contact/internships>. Please fill out the provided application and attach a resume. No calls or drop-ins please.
