INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of January 3, 2022

MEM-012-22 The House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, and Human Rights – chaired by Congresswoman Karen Bass (D-CA) – is seeking two full-time interns for Spring 2022.

The legislative intern will work closely with subcommittee staff while learning the inner workings of Congress and the legislative process. Successful candidates will be versatile, professional, able to conduct semi-supervised research, strong communication skills, and able to write clearly and succinctly. They should also be available to work a minimum of 15 hours per week and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced work environment.

The internship is a U.S. based, remote eligible position beginning as soon as possible in January. Undergraduate or graduate school students and recent alumni interested in foreign affairs and Western Hemisphere policy are encouraged to apply. Responsibilities include but are not limited to: providing administrative and research support to staff, assisting with subcommittee hearings and briefings, attending virtual events and writing memorandum for staff, among other administrative and research assignments.

Qualified applicants should send a one-page resume, cover letter, and 2-3 page writing sample to erica.baganza@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Spring 2022 Internship Application.” Minorities, women, and LGBTQIA+ individuals and those with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Please be sure to include your preferred start and end date. No calls or drop-ins.

MEM-010-22 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, Subcommittee on Government Operations, is seeking an energetic and self-motivated graduate student for a full-time internship for Spring 2022.

The position offers the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Subcommittee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting staff in preparing for congressional hearings, writing floor speeches, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch and private sector officials. Interns play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time. The Subcommittee on Government Operations has jurisdiction over issues related to the federal civil service, whistleblower protections, the U.S. Postal Service; government management and accounting measures; the economy, efficiency, and management of government operations and activities; government reorganization; intergovernmental affairs, including state and local governments; federal information technology security, acquisition policy, and management; and federal property.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service and (ii) a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Applicants should be willing to be in the office full time.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing their resume and cover letter in one PDF titled “last name, first name, Spring 2022 GovOps” to Government.Operations@mail.house.gov with “Spring 2022 Internship Application” in the subject line. No phone calls or drop-ins please. Only applicants who are selected for an interview will receive a response.

MEM-589-21 Team Moulton is seeking exceptional students interested in foreign policy and national security to participate in the Fern Holland International Affairs Fellowship Program.

This is a full-time, paid foreign policy fellowship for Summer 2022. This opportunity is based on financial need and is only open to candidates who are Pell-grant eligible. The fellowship is in our Washington, D.C. office. Current undergraduate students, recent college graduates, and students currently enrolled in graduate school are eligible.

Team Moulton is looking for hard-working individuals who are passionate, driven, and committed to strengthening our democracy. This fully-funded fellowship covers the cost of housing, transportation, and food with a stipend. Women, People of Color, and members of other underrepresented communities are especially encouraged to apply.

This fellowship offers an in-depth look into a career of service to our nation. Fellows will be expected to perform rigorous research, advise senior staff and the Congressman on important issues, and craft policies in international affairs and national security, in addition to some regularly assigned intern responsibilities.

To apply, please fill out the internship application form at moulton.house.gov under the 'Services' tab and attach a cover letter and resume. If you have trouble accessing the application form, please email grace.curtiss@mail.house.gov.

If selected, you will be required to submit a FAFSA form. We are accepting applications for Summer through March 15, 2022. Feel free to call our office with any questions you may have at (202) 225-8020 or email our internship coordinator, Grace Curtiss (grace.curtiss@mail.house.gov).

MEM-588-21 The House Judiciary Committee Democratic staff are looking for interns for the summer semester.

The House Committee on the Judiciary's staff internship program offers undergraduate students, law students, graduate students, and recent graduates an opportunity to experience the operation of a congressional committee firsthand and learn about the important role that our Committee plays in the legislative process.

The Judiciary Committee has jurisdiction over a wide range of legislative and oversight issues, including oversight of the U.S. Department of Justice, constitutional law, federal criminal law, voting rights, immigration and naturalization, intellectual property law, and antitrust law. Stipends will be available to summer interns.

Intern assignments will vary depending on the work of the Judiciary Committee each semester. Examples of potential responsibilities include:

- Researching policy issues under the committee's jurisdiction
- Conducting legal research
- Attending briefings and hearings on the Hill
- Drafting memos
- Supporting committee counsels
- Supporting committee clerks and professional staff members
- Providing administrative support, including answering calls, delivering correspondence, and setting up the hearing room.

The Committee strives to ensure that our internship class reflects the diversity of the country's population; candidates from minority backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. The Committee does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status, sexual orientation, and gender identity), disability, age, or national origin.

The deadline to apply for the summer semester is February 15, 2022. This internship is based in Washington, DC.
