INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of September 19, 2022

MEM-468-22 Republican Congressman Andrew Clyde (GA-09) seeks students or recent graduates for a full-time internship in his Washington D.C. office.

Internships are offered year-round for students and recent graduates. Internships are in-person. Hours are flexible to accommodate students' course schedules, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Credit hours may be offered to college students.

Intern responsibilities will include answering phones, researching legislation, attending hearings and briefings, writing constituent correspondence, giving US Capitol tours, performing administrative duties, and completing other various tasks and projects as assigned.

Interns will have access to Congressional Staff Academy and Congressional Research Service classes and seminars. Interns will also be given opportunities to attend various receptions and networking events while gaining invaluable congressional experience.

All majors and academic backgrounds are invited to apply. The ideal candidate will possess:

- excellent oral and written communication skills
- research skills
- friendly and professional demeanor
- team player mentality

- ability to take initiative
- demonstrated eagerness to learn about the legislative process and gain congressional experience

This internship is an excellent opportunity for those interested in working politics, policy, or public service.

To Apply: Please email a resume and cover letter to peter.wright@mail.house.gov with subject line "Fall 2022 Internship Application"

MEM-463-22 The office of Rep. Rodney Davis is seeking fall 2022 interns for the DC office.

Motivated individuals should be eager to work and ready to help with various projects around the office. Interns will have the opportunity to learn about congress and our government throughout their time here.

To learn more and apply, follow the link to the site: <https://rodneydavis.house.gov/internship-application>. Or, email kevin.cheng@mail.house.gov your resume and cover letter.

MEM-460-22 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform is seeking energetic and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships for the spring of 2023.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive-branch and private sector officials for the purpose of taking notes. Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Oversight and Reform Committee is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service and (ii) a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full time are preferred.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing a cover letter and resume to oversightjobs@mail.house.gov, with “Spring 2023 Legal Internship” in the subject line. Please specify in your cover letter whether you can work full time and when you can start. Please use the following formats to name your resume and cover letter: “LastName.FirstName.Resume” and “LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter.” No phone calls or drop-ins please. The office is an equal opportunity employer and encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.

MEM-459-22 U.S. Representative David N. Cicilline (D-RI) is seeking a remote LEGAL INTERN for fall 2022 to work with his legislative team.

Interns will work closely with the office’s Legislative Counsel and other staff, and duties will entail conducting legal research, drafting materials related to hearings and votes, reviewing and analyzing legislation, attending briefings, and providing other assistance as needed. Opportunities to come into the office for specific events may be available. Issue areas will include constitutional law, oversight over federal agencies, criminal justice, gun violence prevention, voting rights, immigration, intellectual property, privacy, financial services, and women’s issues/reproductive rights.

This internship is open to rising 2L and 3L law students (2L or 3L students in the 2022-2023 academic year) in good academic standing. This internship must be done for academic credit. The time commitment is ~15 hours per week. Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, individuals with disabilities, and those with Rhode Island ties are strongly encouraged to apply.

To apply, please email a (1) resume, (2) cover letter, (3) three-to-five-page writing sample, (4) unofficial law school transcript, and (5) list of three references with email contacts to RI01LegalInterns@gmail.com. Please send all application documents in a single PDF file and include “Legal Intern Application” in the subject line.

MEM-454-22 The Republican Staff of the House Committee on the Budget seeks motivated, reliable, and detail-oriented undergrad students and recent graduates for the Fall Internship Program.

Intern responsibilities include assisting staff in preparing for congressional hearings, assisting in performing research, attending Congressional briefings, answering telephones, and other miscellaneous duties.

The ideal candidate should be detail oriented, possess strong oral and written communication skills, have a strong appreciation for situational awareness, be able to multitask, and be adaptable to a fast-paced environment. An interest in topics relevant to the committee’s jurisdiction is preferred.

Please submit your resume, cover letter, and one-page writing sample to Carl.Griffin@mail.house.gov

MEM-453-22 Congressman Carlos A. Gimenez is currently seeking full-time interns for his Fall 2022 internship program in Washington, D.C.

Intern responsibilities will include answering and logging constituent phone calls, leading constituent tours of the U.S. Capitol, drafting correspondence and legislative memos, and assisting staff with legislative research and administrative duties.

Miami ties and Spanish language skills are preferred but not required. Please send a resume to Gimenez.resume@mail.house.gov to apply.

MEM-451-22 Representative Susie Lee was sworn in to serve Nevada's third congressional district during the 116th Congress on January 3, 2019, and was re-elected for a second term for the 117th Congress. Rep. Lee serves Nevada's third congressional district in southern Nevada that includes parts of Las Vegas, Henderson, Boulder City, Laughlin, Jean, Good springs, and Primm.

Rep. Lee serves on the House Committee on Appropriations, including three subcommittee appointments: Energy and Water Development, and Related Agencies; Interior and Environment, and Related Agencies; and Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies. Prior to her being elected to serve in the U.S. House of Representatives, Rep. Lee served the people of Nevada through her work as a nonprofit leader in the education community.

As a district office intern, you would assist with work that aids in the success of the above described role. The role would include, but is not limited to, writing program book letters, writing gold bond congratulatory letters, searching for community events, attending events, presenting certificates at events, making remarks at events, shadowing outreach representatives as they engage in casework, and the chance to create your own event for the Congresswoman.

To apply, please submit your resume to NV03resumes@gmail.com. Applicants can also call our office at (702) 963-9336 for more information.

MEM-448-22 Congressman Cliff Bentz (OR-02) is seeking Fall interns for his Washington D.C. Office.

Congressman Bentz is a member of the House Judiciary Committee and the House Natural Resources Committee. Ideal candidates will be college students or recent graduates who are outgoing, proactive, hard-working, detail-oriented, enthusiastic, able to multi-task, and have customer service experience.

Interns will assist with many of the daily activities related to constituent relations and legislative research. Although no two days are the same, an intern may be expected to answer phones, greet Oregonians, attend policy meetings with other staff, and assist in managing constituent correspondences and administrative operations. Interns may also lead tours of the U.S. Capitol and attend committee hearings.

Interns will be immersed in the congressional process and their work will provide valuable experience for future endeavors. The internship will generate the opportunity to foster excellent connections, learn about many issues affecting our state and country, gain expertise in any policy areas you might be interested in, and get a detailed look at what makes the United States the most enduring democracy in the world.

Desired Availability: Applicants should be able to commit to at least 20 hours per week. Office hours are 9:00AM – 5:00PM weekdays. The internship is in-person.

All interested applicants are asked to fill out the application form found on the Congressman's website: <https://bentz.house.gov/services/internships> or email resumes to Natalia.Vasquez@mail.house.gov with the subject line: "Fall 2022 Internship"

MEM-444-22 The Office of Rep. Eric Swalwell (CA-15) seeks a press fellow for the upcoming Fall 2022 term from September to December.

Fellows are eligible for a stipend. The ideal candidate will have strong written and oral communication skills, familiarity with graphic design including Canva and Adobe creative suite, and relevant internship experience related to communications, government, or campaigns.

Duties include assisting with editing video clips, creating digital content, developing social media content and helping the team with a variety of projects as needed throughout the week. A strong work ethic, the ability to excel in fast-past environments, and a willingness to assist wherever needed is a must.

Hours are flexible to accommodate students' course schedules; generally, a full-time fellowship would run from 9:00AM to 5:00PM ET. at least three days a week.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.

To apply please email resume, cover letter, and two examples of previous digital media or graphic design products to Jessica.Gail@mail.house.gov with "Press Fellow" in the subject line.
