- o Manage and maintain the Congresswoman's daily and long-term schedule, ensuring all appointments, meetings, events, and travel are accounted for.
- o Receive, prioritize, and organize incoming scheduling requests from internal and external stakeholders.
- o Communicate with external organizations, constituents, and other congressional offices to coordinate scheduling requests, events, and meetings.
- o Maintain flexibility to accommodate changes to the schedule throughout the day and ensure the Congresswoman is briefed on updates in real time.
- o Ensure that all meetings, events, and activities are properly logged and tracked.

2. Travel & Logistics:

- o Coordinate all travel arrangements for the Congresswoman, including transportation, lodging, and related logistics.
- o Work with the Chief of Staff and Deputy Chief of Staff to coordinate travel schedules and ensure seamless transitions between office duties and travel commitments.
- o Manage travel-related expenses, including collecting receipts and submitting for reconciliation with the financial administrator.

3. Briefing & Preparation:

- o Work with the Member and relevant staff to prepare daily briefing materials, including key meeting objectives, background information, and travel logistics.
- o Provide daily and weekly briefings to the Congresswoman on upcoming events, meetings, and other scheduling matters.

4. Liaison & Communication:

- o Serve as the primary point of contact for coordinating scheduling with key stakeholders, including Members of Congress, Congressional staff, government officials, donors, advocates, and other influential partners.
- o Ensure timely and professional communication with constituents, including responding to scheduling inquiries and arranging meetings or office visits as appropriate.

- o Collaborate with other congressional offices, leadership staff, and external organizations to ensure seamless scheduling and minimize conflicts.

5. Administrative Support:

- o Track and manage the Congresswoman's messages, telephone calls, and emails as requested, ensuring timely follow-up, follow-through and prioritization.
- o Assist with administrative tasks as needed, including drafting correspondence, managing schedules, and other office support functions.

Salary & Benefits:

- Salary: commensurate with experience.
- Benefits: Eligible for transit benefits, student loan repayment assistance, and other standard congressional office benefits. Additional benefits to be discussed during the interview process.

Application Process:

Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter, a resume, and three references to NC12.resume@mail.house.gov with "[NAME] –Scheduler" in the subject line.
