MEM-088-24 The Democratic Staff of the House Energy and Commerce Committee seeks qualified undergrad students and recent graduates for legislative interns for the Summer 2024 session.

An internship with the Energy and Commerce Democrats is designed to give students a thorough understanding of a Congressional committee's role in the legislative process. Throughout the course of the program, interns will assist staff with administrative tasks such as answering phones, conducting legislative research, and preparing materials for staff and member briefings. In addition, interns will have the opportunity to shadow staff at hearings and markups, as well as attend briefings on subjects within the Committee's broad jurisdiction.

Our ideal candidates are organized and committed students eager to join a fast-paced environment and build upon their knowledge of how Congress works—in particular, the role that congressional committees play in the federal legislative process. Superior writing and communication skills, attention to detail, and a sense of humor are required. Full-time availability is preferred, but part-time candidates are eligible as well.

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or age. Women, minority, and veteran candidates are highly encouraged to apply. Interns will receive a stipend, and applicants may request the Committee's assistance to receive credit from their educational institution.

Interested applicants should submit their resume, cover letter, and one writing sample (two pages max.) to InternshipResume.EC@mail.house.gov. In your cover letter, please indicate preferred start/end dates for scheduling purposes and whether you are available to work full-time or part-time. Please put "Summer 2024 Legislative Intern Application" in the subject line.

The deadline for applications is March 20, 2024. Please no phone calls or drop-ins.

Please note that we always receive more applications than we can accommodate and that applicants with ties to the 30th District are given preference. Candidates from BIPOC, LGBTQ+, and/or other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-037-24 The Office of Congresswoman Summer Lee is committed to investing in the next generation of public leaders and citizen activists.

Congressional internships offer a comprehensive learning opportunity to understand better how congressional offices and the legislative process work. Both in the Washington, DC, and District Office, the internship program is designed to be a learning experience in which students are exposed to various areas including constituent services, scheduling, office administration, press and communications, and legislative policy.

Typical duties will include answering phones, leading Capitol tours (Washington, D.C.-based), researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on a variety of issues. The ideal candidate for this paid, part-time internship will be team-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Students and recent graduates who are interested in the legislative process are highly encouraged to apply. The Congresswoman is on the Oversight and Accountability Committee and the Space, Science, and Technology Committee. Ties to Pennsylvania's 12th Congressional District are preferred, but not necessary.

All applicants should apply by March 15, 2024

MEM-016-24 The Washington, D.C. Office of Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA-07), Chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, is seeking full-time paid interns for the Summer 2024 term. This is an in-person position.

Interns will work primarily with D.C.-based staff performing legislative and administrative work. Tasks include answering phones, sorting and drafting responses to constituent correspondence, attending briefings and hearings, performing legislative research, and supporting staff members on various projects. Ideal candidates should be professional and possess excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, and a commitment to public service and progressive values. All interns will be paid $15/hr. unless funded by an outside organization.

The Office of Representative Pramila Jayapal is an equal opportunity employer. Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, new Americans, people with disabilities, and members of other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. State and/or district ties are a plus but not required.

Interested applicants should e-mail a resume, cover letter stating availability, short writing sample, and three references to Jayapal.DCInternships@mail.house.gov with the subject "2024 Summer Internship Application – FirstName LastName" by Sunday, March 31st.
