MEM-139-24 Summer internships in Rep. Angie Craig's office will be held in-person in the Eagan, MN office and Washington, D.C. office.

We are not accepting remote or hybrid applicants at this time. The internship will run approximately from May 20, 2024, through August 18, 2024, with some room for flexibility. All interns are paid a stipend and provided with the necessary technology for their work. Schedules are flexible to accommodate course schedules and academic programs; however, a minimum availability of 20-25 hours per week is highly preferred.

All interns will have the opportunity to work with staff in both offices over the course of the internship and the program is easily tailored to fit interns' policy interests and career goals. As a result, interns will learn about the legislative process, learn about all the different functions of a congressional office and gain hands-on professional experience while serving the constituents of Minnesota's Second Congressional District.

Successful internship candidates are passionate about public service, confident and effective communicators, proactive problem-solvers and possess strong writing skills. They also are comfortable speaking on the phone and working with the general public.

Application Instructions:

- To apply for an internship in either the MN or DC office, please email a combined PDF of your resume and one-page cover letter to craig.internships@mail.house.gov. Please format your email subject line as "FirstName.LastName – District Office Internship" OR "FirstName.LastName – DC Office Internship."
- Please include your weekly availability between the hours of 9:00am and 6:00pm in your cover letter and confirm that you will be available for in-person work.

We strongly encourage individuals with ties to Minnesota (especially the Second Congressional District) and those from traditionally underrepresented backgrounds to apply. Rep. Craig's office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.

For Summer internships, applications must be submitted no later than 11:59pm CT on Wednesday, April 10, 2024. Late submissions will not be considered nor accepted. If you have any questions regarding the internship program or the application process, please email craig.internships@mail.house.gov

MEM-138-24 “Congressman Emanuel Cleaver’s Washington, D.C. office is seeking summer interns from May through August. Intern responsibilities vary daily but typically include sorting constituent mail, answering the phones, attending hearings and briefings, leading tours, drafting constituent response letters, and assisting the legislative staff.

Qualified candidates will have strong written and interpersonal skills, a positive work ethic, and the ability to manage multiple tasks at once. The ideal candidate can work a full-time schedule.

To apply, please submit a single PDF containing a cover letter with intended start and end dates, a resume, and a writing sample to MO5internships@mail.house.gov. Applications for the summer internship are due by Friday, April 5 at 11:59 PM.

The office is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.”

MEM-134-24 Congressman Jared Huffman (CA-02), Ranking Member of the Water, Wildlife, and Fisheries Subcommittee, is seeking applicants for the summer 2024 internship program in his Washington D.C. office.

Interns' responsibilities will vary, and range from answering phones, compiling press clips, booking and leading tours, conducting research for legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and drafting constituent letters on various issues before the House. We are seeking motivated, organized, and reliable individuals with great communication and writing skills. California ties are preferred.

If you are interested in applying, please send a resume, cover letter, dates and hours of availability and 2 references to DCInternship.Huffman@mail.house.gov.

This office is an equal opportunity employer. The office does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. The office is currently operating with a modified telecommuting policy.

MEM-124-24 The Office of Congressman Bruce Westerman (AR-04) seeks highly motivated, detail oriented, and energetic individuals for legislative internships in both the Washington, D.C. Office and the Hot Springs District Office for the Summer of 2024.

Interns will work in a fast-paced environment, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the U.S. Congress while helping the 4th Congressional District of Arkansas. Intern responsibilities include answering constituent phone calls, assisting staff with administrative tasks, conducting legislative research, and assisting with correspondence. Interns should have a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills.

Successful interns will be detail-oriented self-starters who can take and listen to directions, while being able to work independently and as part of a team. Applicants should have a working knowledge of current events and policy topics as well as a willingness to assist with daily office tasks and participate in office activities. Arkansas ties strongly preferred.

Internships are open to college and graduate students as well as recent graduates. The office offers paid and unpaid internships depending on availability. To apply for an internship with the Office of Congressman Westerman visit westerman.house.gov and follow the application instructions as listed. If you have any questions, please feel free to call our office at (202) 225-3772.

MEM-123-24 The Office of Congressman Matt Cartwright (PA-08) seeks motivated, detail-oriented, and energetic individuals for legislative internships in Washington, DC for April-June. Please indicate availability in the first sentence of the cover letter.

Qualified applicants should have strong interpersonal skills, the ability to manage multiple tasks, possess strong writing skills, and demonstrate a solid work ethic. Responsibilities include but are not limited to: logging constituent concerns, drafting constituent correspondence on a variety of issues, attending legislative briefings, greeting constituents and visitors when in the office, assisting staff with research and special projects, tracking media coverage, and performing administrative duties. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

To apply for an internship in the Office of Congressman Cartwright, please submit an application, including a resume, cover letter, and a short writing sample at the following link: cartwright.house.gov/services/internships

No phone calls or drop-ins please.

MEM-119-24 Congresswoman Brittany Pettersen's Washington DC and Lakewood District offices are seeking paid congressional interns for Summer 2024.

The internship is in-person and will run from late May to August. Dates are flexible. This internship is open to undergraduate students and recent college graduates.

This internship provides students with a firsthand understanding of the functions of a congressional office and the legislative process. Intern responsibilities vary but include answering phones, sorting mail, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, giving tours of the Capitol building, and drafting press releases and constituent letters on various issues. Additionally, the office encourages and will facilitate networking opportunities for interns and staff members.

Internship hours are flexible to accommodate students' course schedules, but generally run from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. EST in the DC office, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. MT in the District office. Applicants must have a high school diploma. Applicants who are rising juniors in college or further in their education or careers will be prioritized. Applicants must be able to commit to working at least 20 hours a week. Applicants with Colorado ties are strongly prioritized.

Internships are eligible for a paid monthly stipend.

To apply, please send an email with your resume, cover letter and writing sample (maximum length of 5 pages) to CO07internapplications@mail.house.gov with "[Your Last Name] [Season][Year] DC Internship" in the subject line- for example: "Smith Summer 2023 DC Internship". MEM-118-24 Rep. Troy E. Nehls, a member of the House Judiciary Committee, including the immigration and crime subcommittees, and House Freedom Caucus is accepting law clerk applications for summer 2024.

Law clerks will engage in a range of activities, including preparing for and attending Judiciary hearings, conducting legal and policy research, writing memos and legislation, drafting oversight and constituent letters, giving tours, answering phones, and performing other administrative duties.

Candidates must have strong writing skills and be able to work in a team-oriented environment. Law clerks will work under the direct supervision of Rep. Nehls' Judiciary Committee staff. Ideal candidates are current law students who have a demonstrated passion for federal policy and America First priorities.

If you are interested in applying, please send a resume and cover letter to taylor.reaves@mail.house.gov.

MEM-104-24 The Democratic Staff of the House Energy and Commerce Committee seeks qualified undergrad students and recent graduates for Legislative Interns.

An internship with the Energy and Commerce Democrats is designed to give students a thorough understanding of a Congressional committee's role in the legislative process. Throughout the course of the program, interns will assist staff with administrative tasks such as answering phones, conducting legislative research, and preparing materials for staff and member briefings. In addition, interns will have the opportunity to shadow staff at hearings and markups, as well as attend briefings on subjects within the Committee's broad jurisdiction.

Our ideal candidates are organized and committed students eager to join a fast-paced environment and build upon their knowledge of how Congress works—in particular, the role that congressional committees play in the federal legislative process. Superior writing and communication skills, attention to detail, and a sense of humor are required. Full-time availability is preferred, but part-time candidates are eligible as well.

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or age. Women, minority, and veteran candidates are highly encouraged to apply. Interns will receive a stipend, and applicants may request the Committee's assistance to receive credit from their educational institution.

Interested applicants should submit their resume, cover letter, and one writing sample (two pages max.) to InternshipResume.EC@mail.house.gov. In your cover letter, please indicate preferred start/end dates for scheduling purposes and whether you are available to work full-time or part-time. Please put "2024 Legislative Intern Application" in the subject line. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. Please no phone calls or drop-ins.
