INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of December 26, 2022

MEM-597-22 House Democrat seeks a paid Legislative Fellow to assist senior legislative staff with a wide variety of legislative topics and tasks. The Legislative Fellow will gain experience in preparing for committee hearings and markups; developing and advancing legislation; drafting speeches; and meeting with constituents and other stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will possess superb written and oral communication skills; have some policy experience; and will enjoy collaborating with others in a fast-paced environment.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to housedemjobs@gmail.com with "Legislative Fellow" in the subject line.

MEM-594-22 The office of Congressman Jeff Van Drew (NJ-02) is currently accepting applications for full and part-time interns for the Spring internship session.

The start date would be as early as January 17th (with a flexible start and end date depending on availability). Interns are paid a stipend based on availability and have access to transit benefits.

The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with our nation's legislative process. Interns contribute to the daily operations of the office and are expected to act in a reliable, professional manner at all times.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Congressman Van Drew supports students requesting credit for their internship through their university.

If interested, please email a resume and cover letter to JeffVanDrewNJ@gmail.com. Please indicate in your cover letter that you're applying for a Spring internship and format the files as [Full Name_Resume], [Full Name_Cover Letter].

MEM-593-22 Congressman Bill Johnson's office (OH-06) is currently seeking internship applicants in the D.C. office for Spring 2023. Qualified applicants should possess strong communication skills, be interested in learning about the legislative process, and have a willingness to work in our fast-paced office.

Responsibilities include answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, attending policy briefings and meetings, and conducting research and additional tasks to assist the Congressman's staff. Ohio ties are preferred but not required. A monthly stipend is available.

Interested applicants should send resume, cover letter and availability to intern.OH06@gmail.com.

MEM-592-22 Spring Press Intern - Office of Congresswoman Susie Lee (NV-03)

The office of Congresswoman Susie Lee (NV-03) is currently seeking a spring Press Intern to work in the Washington, D.C. office. The press intern will work closely with the communications team in a fast-paced, battleground Congressional office. Interns will gain valuable Capitol Hill experience and a deep understanding of the operations of a House communications/digital team.

Responsibilities will include compiling daily clips, drafting press releases and other written materials, maintaining press lists, assisting with updates to the Member's official social media channels, and collaborating on graphic/creative content. Press interns may also assist with answering phones, drafting letters, and helping other staff as needed.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, one writing sample, and any additional social media/graphic examples that they wish to include to NV03Resumes@gmail.com with “Full Name - Spring Press Intern” in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-589-22 Winter internships in Rep. Angie Craig’s office will be held in-person in both the Washington, DC, and Burnsville offices.

All interns are paid a stipend and provided with the necessary technology for their work. Schedules are flexible to accommodate course schedules and academic programs; however, a minimum availability of 20-25 hours per week is highly preferred.

All interns will have the opportunity to work with staff in both offices over the course of the internship and the program is easily tailored to fit interns’ policy interests and career goals. As a result, interns will learn about the legislative process, learn about all the different functions of a congressional office, and gain hands-on professional experience while serving the constituents of Minnesota’s Second Congressional District.

Successful internship candidates are passionate about public service, confident and effective communicators, proactive problem-solvers and possess strong writing skills. They also are comfortable speaking on the phone and working with the general public.

Application Instructions:

- To apply for an internship in the Washington, DC or Burnsville office, please email a combined PDF of your resume and one-page cover letter to craig.internships@mail.house.gov. Please format your email subject line as “FirstName.LastName – Rep. Craig Internship.”
- Please include which office you are applying for (Burnsville or Washington, DC) and your weekly availability between the hours of 8:00am and 6:00pm. We strongly encourage individuals with ties to Minnesota (especially the Second Congressional District) and those from traditionally underrepresented backgrounds to apply.

Rep. Craig’s office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.

For Winter/Spring 2023 internships, applications must be submitted no later than 11:59pm CT on Sunday, January 1, 2023. Late submissions will not be considered nor accepted. If you have any questions regarding the internship program or the application process, please email craig.internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-588-22 The office of Congresswoman Susie Lee is seeking spring interns for the Washington, D.C. office.

Responsibilities will include answering phones, managing the front office, assisting legislative staff with research, and other tasks as assigned. Successful candidate will work well under deadlines, is organized, hard-working, detail-oriented, has excellent customer service skills, and is a team player. Nevada ties are strongly preferred. Nevada residents will be eligible for a monthly stipend.
