INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of April 17, 2023

MEM-233-23 "The office of Congresswoman Yvette D. Clarke (NY-09) is seeking a Washington D.C. based, in-person, full-time, paid Digital Press Intern for the upcoming Summer 2023 session. Team Clarke expects the ideal candidate to be driven, team-orientated, and interested in diving into the inner workings of Capitol Hill.

This position requires applicants to have the ability to multitask, strong organizational skills, and possess high degrees of professionalism and diligence. Responsibilities include compiling daily press clips, answering telephones, and working alongside the communications team to draft social media collateral, including copy, graphics, and other materials. Applicants may hold interests in or have previous experience working with policy areas such as environmental sustainability, racial justice, cybersecurity, immigration, infrastructure, affordable housing, Caribbean issues, and health care.

Interested applicants should send their resume and two writing samples to clarke.comms@mail.house.gov with the subject line "Clarke Digital Internship." New York ties strongly preferred.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. Women, people of color, and candidates from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

Deadline to apply is May 26, 2023. Due to the large volume of applicants, only those applicants who are selected for interviews will be contacted."

MEM-232-23 The Democratic staff of the Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic is seeking passionate and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch officials and stakeholders for the purpose of taking notes. Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Applicants should have an interest in public service and a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full-time are preferred. Women, LGBTQI+, and BIPOC candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please send a resume and cover letter as PDFs to SSCPJobs@mail.house.gov, with "Summer 2023 Legal Internship" in the subject line. Please attach the resume and cover letter with the file name using the following format: "LastName.FirstName.Resume" and "LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter." No unsolicited calls, emails, or drop-ins, please.

The Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic is authorized to investigate a broad range of matters pertaining to the coronavirus pandemic under H. Res. 5. The Select Subcommittee was established within the Committee on Oversight and Accountability, which is the primary investigative committee of the United States House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X.

MEM-231-23 The Office of Congressman Brian Mast (R-FL-21) is currently accepting applications for part-time internships during the Summer 2023 term at the Washington, D.C. office.

The internship will run from May through mid-August.

Responsibilities include answering and logging constituent phone calls, assisting staff with administrative duties, projects, legislative research and drafting constituent correspondence.

The ideal candidate will be able to work in a fast-paced environment, have a general understanding of the legislative process, and possess strong written and oral communication skills. Florida ties are not necessary.

Interested applicants should send their resumes and a brief writing sample in one pdf to mckayla.swan@mail.house.gov. Please use the subject line “Summer 2023 internship.” The application deadline is May 1, 2023.

MEM-228-23 Summer internships in Rep. Angie Craig’s office will be held in-person in both the Washington, DC, and Burnsville offices.

All interns are paid a stipend and provided with the necessary technology for their work. Schedules are flexible to accommodate course schedules and academic programs; however, a minimum availability of 20-25 hours per week is highly preferred.

All interns will have the opportunity to work with staff in both offices over the course of the internship and the program is easily tailored to fit interns’ policy interests and career goals. As a result, interns will learn about the legislative process, learn about all the different functions of a congressional office, and gain hands-on professional experience while serving the constituents of Minnesota’s Second Congressional District.

Successful internship candidates are passionate about public service, confident and effective communicators, proactive problem-solvers and possess strong writing skills. They also are comfortable speaking on the phone and working with the general public.

Application Instructions:

- To apply for an internship in the Washington, DC or Burnsville office, please email a combined PDF of your resume and one-page cover letter to craig.internships@mail.house.gov. Please format your email subject line as “FirstName.LastName – Rep. Craig [DC or District] Internship.”
- Please include which office you are applying for (Burnsville or Washington, DC) and your weekly availability between the hours of 8:00am and 6:00pm in your cover letter.

We strongly encourage individuals with ties to Minnesota (especially the Second Congressional District) and those from traditionally underrepresented backgrounds to apply. Rep. Craig’s office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.

For Summer internships, applications must be submitted no later than 11:59pm CT on Sunday, April 30, 2023. Late submissions will not be considered nor accepted. If you have any questions regarding the internship program or the application process, please email craig.internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-212-23 Summer Press Intern – Office of Congressman Eric Swalwell (CA-14)

The Office of Rep. Eric Swalwell (CA-14) seeks a press intern for the upcoming Summer 2023 term from May to August. Interns are eligible for a stipend. The ideal candidate will have strong written and oral communication skills, familiarity with graphic design including Canva and Adobe creative suite, and relevant internship experience related to communications, government, or campaigns.

Duties include assisting with editing video clips, creating digital content, developing social media content and helping the team with a variety of projects as needed throughout the week. A strong work ethic, the ability to excel in fast-past environments, and a willingness to assist wherever needed is a must.

Hours are flexible to accommodate students' course schedules; generally, a full-time fellowship would run from 9:00AM to 5:00PM ET. at least three days a week.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. To apply please email resume, cover letter, and two examples of previous digital media or graphic design products to Cassie.Baloue@mail.house.gov with "Press intern" in the subject line.
