

U.S. House of Representatives

CAO

CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service (HVAPS)

B-235 Longworth House Office Building

Washington, D.C. 20515

202-226-5836

Vacancy Bulletins are available for pick-up in
in the CAO Human Resources Office - Ford HOB 102
To Subscribe or Unsubscribe to the Vacancy Listserv visit:

<http://www.house.gov/content/jobs/>

Job Line: 202-226-4504

INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of October 4, 2021

MEM-398-21 The House Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Crisis Majority Staff seeks motivated and reliable students to fill remote digital/press intern positions for the fall and the spring. A public health background is a bonus, but not required.

Selected candidates will be responsible for both press and digital duties. Digital and press responsibilities include but are not limited to, developing a social media calendar and crafting daily social media content, clipping videos, designing graphics, manual photography, editing short videos, monitoring social media, compiling press clips, editing and compiling media lists, conducting press research, and performing other press and administrative tasks as necessary, particularly on hearing days.

Successful candidates will possess familiarity with programs such as Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Canva, OBS Studio, and Cision, as well as compiling and interpreting social media analytics. Positions require attention to detail, strong writing skills, creativity, and a willingness to learn.

Positions report to the communications director. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. To apply, please send a resume and portfolio to SSCCJobs@mail.house.gov.

MEM-391-21 The Washington D.C. office of Representative Rick Larsen (WA-02) is currently accepting internship applications for the Fall of 2021. The internship will be paid.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Due to the ongoing spread of COVID-19, some of these duties may be altered. The ideal candidate for this internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Washington ties are preferred but not required. Women, people of color, and LGBTQ+ persons are encouraged to apply.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to Libby Otto at libby.otto@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Fall 2021 Internship.” Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. The anticipated start and end dates will be determined based on individual circumstances.

MEM-382-21 The Washington D.C. office of Congressman Ken Buck (CO-04) is currently accepting internship applications for the Fall of 2021.

Typical duties include answering phones, leading Capitol tours, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on a variety of issues. Due to the ongoing spread of COVID-19, some of these duties may be significantly altered. The ideal candidate for this paid internship will be team- and detail-oriented and have strong written and verbal communication skills.

Students and recent graduates interested in learning more about our country’s legislative process are encouraged to apply. The Congressman sits on the Judiciary Committee and the Foreign Affairs Committee, making this an ideal opportunity for those interested in law and/or foreign policy. Colorado ties are preferred but by no means required.

All interested applicants should e-mail their resume and cover letter to Allie Woodward at internships.co04@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Fall 2021 Internship.” Please send all attachments as PDFs. Additionally, applicants should include their availability as a part- or full-time intern (if part-time, please be as specific as possible).

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. The anticipated start and end dates will be determined based on individual circumstances.

MEM-381-21 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, Subcommittee on Government Operations, is seeking an energetic and self-motivated graduate student for a full-time internship through December 2021.

The position offers the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Subcommittee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting staff in preparing for congressional hearings, writing floor speeches, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch and private sector officials. Interns play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time. The Subcommittee on Government Operations has jurisdiction over issues related to the federal civil service, whistleblower protections, the U.S. Postal Service; government management and accounting measures; the economy, efficiency, and management of government operations and activities; government reorganization; intergovernmental affairs, including state and local governments; federal information technology security, acquisition policy, and management; and federal property.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service; (ii) a desire to learn; and (iii) exceptional analytic skills. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Applicants must be pursuing an advanced degree to be eligible for this internship. Applicants should be willing to work full time.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing their resume and cover letter in one PDF titled “last name, first name, Internship GovOps” to Government.Operations@mail.house.gov with “2021 Internship Application” in the subject line. No phone calls or drop-ins please. Only applicants who are selected for an interview will receive a response.

MEM-380-21 The office of Congressman Jeff Van Drew (NJ-02) is currently accepting applications for full and part-time interns for the spring internship session. The start date would be as early as Dec 10 (flexible depending on availability) with a flexible end date. Interns are paid a stipend based on availability and have access to transit benefits.

The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with our nation's legislative process. Interns contribute to the daily operations of the office and are expected to act in a reliable, professional manner at all times.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Congressman Van Drew supports students requesting credit for their internship through their university.

If interested, please email a resume and cover letter to JeffVanDrewNJ@gmail.com. Please indicate in your cover letter that you're applying for a spring internship and format the files as [Full Name_Resume], [Full Name_Cover Letter].

MEM-377-21 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform is seeking energetic and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive-branch and private sector officials for the purpose of taking notes.

Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff. Background: The Oversight and Reform Committee is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service and (ii) a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full time are preferred.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing a cover letter and resume to oversightjobs@mail.house.gov, with "Legal Internship" in the subject line. Please attach the resume and cover letter with the file name using the following format: "LastName.FirstName.Resume" and "LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter." No phone calls or drop-ins please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.

MEM-357-21 The House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on the Western Hemisphere, Civilian Security, Migration and International Economic Policy – chaired by Congressman Albio Sires (D-NJ) – is seeking one full-time intern for Fall 2021.

The legislative intern will work closely with subcommittee staff while learning the inner workings of Congress and the legislative process. Successful candidates will be enthusiastic, professional, hard-working, and detail-oriented, with strong writing and communication skills and an ability to thrive in a fast-paced work environment.

The internship is a U.S. based remote eligible position beginning as soon as possible in September. Undergraduate or graduate school students and recent alumni interested in foreign affairs and Western Hemisphere policy are encouraged to apply.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: providing administrative and research support to staff, assisting with subcommittee hearings and briefings, attending virtual events and writing memorandum for staff, among other administrative and research assignments. Spanish, French or Portuguese proficiency preferred but not required.

Qualified applicants should send a one-page resume and cover letter to WHEMjobs@gmail.com with the subject line “Fall 2021 Internship Application.”

Minorities, women, and LGBTQIA+ individuals and those with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Please be sure to include your preferred start and end date. No calls or drop-ins.

MEM-353-21 Congressman Steve Cohen (TN-09), Chairman of the Constitution, Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Subcommittee, is accepting applications for a full-time legal fellowship position in his Washington, D.C. office.

Positions are available starting October 1, 2021, through December 31, 2021, with an opportunity for an extension. This fellowship will provide a valuable, hands-on experience in a Congressional office and a greater understanding of the legislative process. Fellows will work closely with an active legislative team and will be expected to produce high-level content under tight deadlines.

Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, conducting policy research, drafting legislation, memos and briefs, assisting staff with preparation for Committee hearings and attending hearings and briefings. Fellows should expect to work on a variety of issue areas including matters before the House Judiciary Committee. Qualified applicants should have excellent research and writing skills, the ability to perform under pressure, interest in the legislative process, a professional demeanor and a collegial attitude.

This is an excellent opportunity for recent law school graduates seeking substantive Capitol Hill experience. No undergraduate students will be considered. Tennessee ties are preferred, but not required.

A stipend will be provided to qualifying fellows. Interested applicants should email a resume, cover letter, a short writing sample and references to Cohen.jobs@mail.house.gov with “Legal Fellowship” in the subject line. Please, no calls or walk-ins.