MEMBER AND COMMITTEE VACANCY LISTING

Week of November 6, 2023

MEM-574-23 The Office of Congressman Jamie Raskin (MD-08) seeks a Staff Assistant/Driver to work in the D.C. office in a full-time capacity.

This position will be responsible for driving and assisting the Member, answering phone calls and greeting visitors, managing and organizing the reception area and Member's office, helping to manage and train interns, onboarding new staff, processing tour and flag requests, maintaining office inventories, sorting incoming constituent mail, and providing varied administrative support to the team. The experiences gained in this role provide a unique entry-level opportunity to work directly with a Member and a solid foundation to advance into positions of increasing responsibility.

The successful candidate must be a motivated self-starter and team player who demonstrates scrupulous attention to detail, excellent verbal and written communication skills, keen organizational skills, effective time management, and a professional and discreet demeanor. Reliable access to a vehicle is required.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds and/or other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. The U.S. House of Representatives is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, military status, gender identity and expression, marital status, parental status, or sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law, in any of its activities or operations. Ties to Maryland's 8th District and Spanish fluency are a plus.

To apply, please send an email to MD08.Resumes@mail.house.gov with "Staff Assistant: Last Name" in the subject line and the following application materials attached as one combined PDF:

- Cover letter (not to exceed one page) – please customize your letter to this position
- Résumé
- Two writing samples (not to exceed one page each)
- Three references (not to exceed one page) – for each reference, please include name, current title/office, phone number, email, and a one-sentence description of your relationship to the reference

The deadline to apply is 5:00 p.m. on November 14, 2023

MEM-573-23 Representative Ami Bera, M.D. (CA-06) is seeking a dynamic and creative Press/Digital Assistant to join his office. The Press/Digital Assistant will play a key role in supporting the Communications Director in developing and implementing the office's communications strategy and digital outreach efforts.

This position requires a candidate who can leverage graphics, videos, and impactful writing to enhance our online presence and engage with the constituents in CA-06.

Ideal candidates will have Sacramento or California ties, a strong proficiency in writing, digital skills, and photography, along with the ability to think innovatively in order to effectively convey key messages to new audiences. A minimum of 1-2 years of prior experience in digital outreach and graphic design (using tools like Canva, Photoshop, etc.) is essential.

Key responsibilities will include creating graphics and social media content, producing videos, managing press lists, compiling press clips, drafting newsletters for constituent outreach, drafting press materials, providing support for Franked communications plan, and performing additional tasks as assigned.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, uniformed status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. Women, people of color, and candidates from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please submit a resume, cover letter, one writing sample, and two examples of your graphic design or video/photography work in a single PDF document to jobs.ca06@gmail.com with "Press/Digital Assistant – Last Name, First Name" in the subject line. No walk-ins or phone calls.

MEM-556-23 Legislative Director

Congresswoman Susie Lee (NV-03) seeks an experienced Legislative Director to join her office in Washington, D.C. In close collaboration with the Member, Chief of Staff, and her communications and district teams, the Legislative Director will oversee the Member's policy agenda, particularly through her work on the House Appropriations and Natural Resources Committees and manage her legislative team. This position reports to the Chief of Staff and works closely with the COS in formulating the Member's legislative strategy while uplifting the legislative team in their work.

Candidate should have a strong track record of managing, training, and supervising a team in a fast-paced environment, translating authorizing and appropriations priorities into successful outcomes, and developing strong relationships with on- and off-Hill stakeholders. Sound policy judgement and firm grasp of committee, floor, and other House procedures are musts. Candidate should have strong verbal and written communication skills fit to keep the Member and full team consistently briefed. Candidate must be driven, creative, good-humored, skilled at receiving and delivering feedback, and committed to furthering a team-first, collaborative work environment. Candidate will also oversee the office's constituent correspondence program. Nevada ties are a plus, as is experience with immigration, defense, foreign affairs, education, and judiciary issues.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received, and interviews could begin very soon, with an eye to quickly filling this position. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply as soon as they can.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status, sexual orientation, and gender identity), disability, age, or national origin.

To apply, send in a single PDF a resume, cover letter, writing sample of 1,000 words or fewer, and three references (including name, current title and organization, phone number, email, and relationship to the reference) to nv03resumes@gmail.com, with the following subject line: “Full Name – Legislative Director.”

MEM-552-23 The Congressional Equality Caucus, a caucus of 195 U.S. Representatives focused on advancing LGBTQI+ equality, is looking for a Press Secretary/Digital Director to work full-time in Washington, DC.

The Press Secretary reports directly to the Executive Director of the Congressional Equality Caucus and also works closely with the communications team in the Chair’s personal office.

Job responsibilities include:

- Drafting social media guidance documents for Equality Caucus members, including talking points and sample social media posts for themed days and anniversaries (e.g., Pride Month, Transgender Day of Remembrance) and high-profile legislative activity;
- Managing the Caucus’ website and social media channels, including updating the website, drafting Facebook posts, tweets, and Instagram posts, and creating graphics;
- Drafting press releases and communicating with the press;
- Building and maintaining relationships with Equality Caucus Members’ communications staff;
- Working with the Equality Caucus fellow on drafting the weekly newsletter and daily clips;
- Assisting the Executive Director, as needed, with logistical and administrative support, such as coordinating event and briefing logistics; and
- Other duties as assigned.

Ideal qualifications: Ideal candidates will be excellent writers, detail-oriented, organized, self-starters, team players, and able to produce high quality work in a fast-paced environment under tight deadlines. Experience on Capitol Hill is not required but candidates must have a familiarity with the House of Representatives and a basic understanding of the legislative process. In addition, experience working on LGBTQI+ issues is a plus but not required. This is not an entry-level position. Candidates should have 2-3 years of relevant experience.

Salary and Benefits: Salary is commensurate with experience; the salary range for this position is $60,000-$75,000.

Additional benefits include health, dental, and vision insurance; retirement benefits; transit benefits; access to the student loan repayment program for House employees; ability to work remotely during certain non-session days; and 20 days of annual leave, among other benefits.

Equal Opportunity Employer: The Equality Caucus benefits from a staff that reflects the diversity of the country’s population; candidates from minority backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. The caucus does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, and sex characteristics, including intersex traits), disability, age, or national origin.

About the Congressional Equality Caucus (CEC): Founded in 2008, the mission of the Congressional Equality Caucus is to promote equality for all, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or sex characteristics, including intersex traits. The Caucus is strongly committed to achieving the full enjoyment of human rights for LGBTQI+ people in the U.S. and around the world. You can learn more at <https://lgbtq.house.gov/>.

To apply: All interested candidates are encouraged to apply. Interested candidates should send a one-page resume, a one-page cover letter (covering, at minimum, why you want to work for the CEC and how your past experiences have provided you the skills to succeed in this role), and a short writing sample as a single PDF to equality.caucushire@mail.house.gov. Please put “Press Secretary/Digital Director – [Your First and Last Name]” in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
