INTERSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of May 31, 2022

MEM-266-22 The Office of Congresswoman Katie Porter (D-CA-45) is seeking a current student to serve as a press intern to assist with communications, social media, and graphic design, either remotely or in-person at our district office in Irvine, California.

Candidates should possess strong written and verbal communication skills and have an interest in politics and government. Daily tasks include but are not limited to producing assets for the Congresswoman's social media accounts, such as graphics and short videos; tracking and compiling mentions of the Congresswoman in the news; transcribing press interviews; creating and managing press lists; and assisting with media inquiries and research. Knowledge of programs like Adobe Creative Suite and Canva a plus, but not required.

Qualified candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and one writing sample (1-2 pages) as one attachment to katieporter.press@mail.house.gov with the subject "[full name] Summer 2022 press internship application".

We recommend that applicants also submit one to two examples of previous digital media or graphic design products, but this is not required. We are accepting applications on a rolling basis, but we will prioritize candidates that apply on or before June 5, 2022.

Our office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

The press intern will receive a monthly stipend.

MEM-264-22 The office of Congressman Austin Scott (GA-08) is seeking full-time and part-time Fall 2022 interns in his Washington D.C. Office.

A qualified candidate should possess strong written and oral communication skills and a demonstrated interest in public service. Interns will be expected to fulfill the regular duties of a congressional intern and may also receive opportunities to assist the Staff Assistant and the Press and Legislative Staff. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office. Generally, the office hours run from 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM when Congress is in session and 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM when not in session.

Interested applicants should email a cover letter and resume to william.matney@mail.house.gov. Georgia ties are preferred, and the deadline to apply for the Fall 2022 internship is the close of business on June 24.

MEM-252-22 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform is seeking energetic and self-motivated law students for full-time or part-time internships for the fall of 2022.

The position offers current law students the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Committee, while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: assisting Committee staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive-branch and private sector officials for the purpose of taking notes. Law students play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Oversight and Reform Committee is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time.

Qualifications: Applicants should have (i) an interest in public service and (ii) a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Hours can be flexible, but applicants willing to be in the office full time are preferred.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing a cover letter and resume to oversightjobs@mail.house.gov, with “Fall 2022 Legal Internship” in the subject line. Please specify in your cover letter whether you can work full time and when you can start. Please use the following formats to name your resume and cover letter: “LastName.FirstName.Resume” and “LastName.FirstName.Cover Letter.”

No phone calls or drop-ins please. The office is an equal opportunity employer and encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.
