MEMBER AND COMMITTEE VACANCY LISTING

Week of April 15, 2024

MEM-168-24 Congressman Glenn Ivey (MD-04) seeks an experienced legislative staffer for the Member's D.C. office who has a background in matters before the House Homeland Security, Judiciary, and Appropriations Committees. Candidates with a J.D. or another advanced degree are strongly encouraged to apply, and experience working as a legislative assistant, legislative aide, or similar permanent staffer for a minimum of two years is required.

The ideal candidate is a well-informed student of politics and government who possesses a working knowledge of current events and a diverse array of issues. We seek a strong writer with a track record of successfully developing and implementing legislative strategy, preparing, and staffing the principal for committee hearings and markups, and managing a broad policy portfolio. Ideally, the candidate would also have a successful track record of project management related to a Member's legislative and in-district priorities.

Responsibilities include preparing the Member for committee hearings, markups, briefings, stakeholder meetings, and other engagements; developing and drafting bills, amendments, letters, policy statements, talking points, floor speeches, op-eds, memos, and reports; planning and organizing briefings and other events; managing relationships with local, state, and national stakeholders and institutions; tracking legislation relevant to the Member's District or policy priorities; preparing vote recommendations; building coalitions of diverse, bipartisan stakeholders to advance legislative priorities; and assisting organizations and constituents in the District with regard to federal matters. The successful candidate's title, including the possibility of senior legislative assistant / counsel, and pay will be commensurate with work experience. Working for this freshman office represents an opportunity to build something dynamic and lasting from the ground up, particularly for a Member of Congress who is a great communicator and cares deeply about the well-being and professional development of his staff.

Please submit a cover letter; a resume, including two to three references; and a writing sample to md04resumes@gmail.com with the subject line: "Full Name – Legislative Assistant" We will accept applications until the position is filled.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply, and this office is an equal-opportunity employer that does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-166-24 Rep. Joe Courtney (D-CT-2) is seeking a Scheduler/Operations Manager in a team-oriented office. Applicants must have exceptional organizational skills, attention to detail, and an ability to manage competing demands and deadlines.

Responsibilities include:

- 1.Managing all aspects of the member's daily and long-term schedule in Washington, including intaking, evaluating, and scheduling meeting requests, updating and ensuring accuracy of member's calendar, and coordinating travel arrangements and day-to-day logistics.
- 2.Working with legislative and press staff to ensure member is prepared for engagements.
- 3.Managing member personal correspondence and records.
- 4.Interfacing with government agencies, Congressional offices, and outside organizations on behalf of the Member
- 5.Working with staff to coordinate staff-level meetings and manage office meeting space.
- 6.Coordinating office internship program

This is not an entry-level position. Previous scheduling experience required and 1-3 years of prior work experience desired. The ideal candidate for this position is detail-oriented and proactive, possesses strong communication skills, a self-starter, has good managerial instincts, and can thrive in a collaborative environment. Valid driver's license and access to a vehicle preferred; Connecticut/New England ties, prior Capitol Hill experience, and good sense of humor are all plusses. Salary and title commensurate with experience.

This office is an equal opportunity employer. Candidates with diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and writing sample to CT02JOB@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Scheduler Application”

MEM-165-24 Digital Director – The office of Rep. Jimmy Gomez (CA-34), a member of the Ways and Means Committee, seeks a driven individual with experience in digital and social media, video editing, content creation and impeccable copyediting skills to join a fast-paced team as the Digital Director.

Candidates must possess strong writing, editing and time management abilities, and must be able to draft daily social media posts and create a long-term digital content plan. The Digital Director will manage multiple social media accounts for the member, and will be key in working with the member and under the Communications Director to create timely, relevant, well-produced content.

This is not an entry-level position. Prospective candidates should e-mail a cover letter, resume and two writing/digital samples in PDF format to Gomez.Jobs@mail.house.gov with the subject line “LASTNAME_Digital.” No calls or drop-ins please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status or parental status.
