INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of June 20, 2023

MEM-311-23 "The Washington D.C. Office of Congressman Anthony D'Esposito is looking for highly motivated individuals for their fall internship program.

Candidates should be able to work efficiently in high stress, fast moving environments and handle multiple projects at the same time. Duties include answering phones and speaking with constituents, greeting guests in the front office, assisting the legislative and communications teams, and leading constituent tours. Interns will get a unique look behind the scenes of the federal legislative process and will gain valuable public policy experience. Ties to the district are preferred but not required.

Interested candidates should submit their applications to <https://desposito.house.gov/services/internships> for consideration."

MEM-308-23 "The Office of Congresswoman Lisa Blunt Rochester (DE-At Large) seeks exceptional students that are committed to public service to serve as interns in our DC and DE offices this fall.

The fall internship is from August – December 2023 and is open to college students and recent graduates. In Washington, D.C., interns' responsibilities will vary and include answering phones, researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, and answering constituent letters on various issues before the House of Representatives. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

In the district offices, interns may be asked to help with day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters, and assisting with media clips. In addition, interns may be assigned to work on various constituent casework issues and Delaware-based special projects.

To apply, please send one compiled PDF of your resume, a cover letter that describes why you want to intern for Congresswoman Blunt Rochester, and the contact information for two references to LBR.Internship@mail.house.gov, indicating the office (DC, Wilmington, or Georgetown) and the term you are applying for in the subject line (i.e. "DC Fall 2023 Internship – NAME").

Please note in the cover letter or body of the email if the internship is for school credit. No phone calls, emails, or drop-ins please. “

MEM-304-23 Representative Mary Gay Scanlon (PA-05) Paid Fall Legislative Internship

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Drafting constituent correspondence
- Researching various legislative issues and writing policy memos for the Congresswoman
- Attending briefings, hearings, and markups and drafting related memoranda
- Responding to constituent mail and answering office phones

Ideal applicants will be motivated team players with strong written and oral communication skills and have a demonstrated interest in government and public service. A strong work ethic, the ability to excel in fast-paced environments, and a willingness to assist wherever needed are must-have qualities.

To apply, please submit a resume, cover letter, one short writing sample, and two references to Emily.Kastenbergl@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Fall Legislative Internship, NAME” by July 24th, 2023. Please include availability in the cover letter and compile all application materials into one PDF document.

MEM-303-23 Congresswoman Lois Frankel’s (FL-22) D.C. office seeks interns for the upcoming Fall 2023 semester.

The ideal candidate possesses a high degree of professionalism and maturity, is committed and diligent, and is a team player with a positive attitude. This position demands the ability to multi-task, strong organizational skills and must work cooperatively and courteously with others in a shared space.

Duties include: attending hearings and briefings on behalf of the Congresswoman and legislative staffers, working directly with the communications team on press strategies, answering telephones, compiling daily press clips relevant to the office's priorities, assisting with constituent correspondence, and providing administrative assistance to the D.C. staff.

Undergraduate students and recent college graduates preferred, South Florida ties a plus. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit the below application with a resume and cover letter in a single PDF file. Cover letter should details reasons for applying to the position. A stipend will be given to accepted applicants.

Deadline to apply is Monday, July 10, 2023 by COB (5pm). If 100 applicants have applied, applications will close before the deadline.

Please apply via <https://frankel.house.gov/constituent-services/internships.htm>
