INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of June 17, 2024

MEM-237-24 Congressman Rob Menendez (NJ-08) seeks interns for his Washington, D.C. office for Fall 2024.

Ideal candidates are organized and passionate undergraduate students, graduate students, or recent graduates with an interest in public service. They should be self-starters with excellent writing and organizational skills.

Our office is an equal opportunity employer, and we do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, military status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Special consideration will be given to candidates with New Jersey ties and to those from backgrounds that are traditionally underrepresented in Congress.

Key responsibilities of D.C. interns include:

- Greeting guests and assisting with front office operations
- Answering phones, recording constituent opinions, and correctly processing other inquiries
- Legislative work: attending hearing and briefings, writing memos, composing cosponsor recommendations, and drafting letters to be sent to constituents
- Organizing incoming mail
- Assisting with press clips and communications tasks

Applications are processed on a rolling basis, and candidates are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. The internship will take place in-person from August or September to December or January. Preference will be given to those with availability of at least 20 hours per week, and a stipend will be provided.

To apply, please fill out the application and submit a resume and cover letter through this link: <https://menendez.house.gov/services/internships> Please indicate your availability in your cover letter and format the files [LastName_CoverLetter] and [LastName_Resume].

MEM-234-24 “The office of Congressman Glenn Grothman (WI-06) is now accepting applicants for Fall Congressional Internships in our Washington, DC office.

Successful applicants will be motivated, detail-oriented, display a strong work ethic, and interact well with constituents. In addition, applicants should have a strong interest in the legislative process and the function of Congress. A monthly stipend will be provided to individuals selected for the internship.

Internship duties in the Washington, DC office may include:

- Answering constituent phone calls and directing them appropriately
- Researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff
- Attending congressional hearings and policy briefings
- Answering constituent letters on various issues before the House
- Helping the communications/press team
- Conducting Capitol tours for constituents and other guests
- Other projects as assigned by the staff

To apply, please email your resume to Wisconsin.resumes@mail.house.gov

Ties to the state of Wisconsin are preferred, but not required. “

MEM-231-24 The Washington, D.C., Office of Congressman Adam B. Schiff (CA-30) is seeking professional, enthusiastic, and hardworking interns to assist staff with administrative and legislative work.

The Fall 2024 term runs from September through November and is open to undergraduate students and recent college graduates. Interns typically work three days per week, with flexibility to accommodate class schedules. Interns will receive a stipend. Academic credit is also available.

Responsibilities

- Front office duties, including answering telephones, sorting mail, greeting visitors, and assisting with the Congressman’s meetings
- Compiling press clips and assisting the communications team
- Processing and drafting responses to constituent correspondence
- Attending briefings and conducting policy research as requested by legislative staff

- Performing various other tasks to ensure the office functions smoothly

To Apply

All applicants should apply by July 15 at 11:59 p.m.

at <https://schiff.house.gov/help/internships>

Please note that we always receive more applications than we can accommodate and that applicants with ties to the 30th District are given preference. Candidates from BIPOC, LGBTQ+, and/or other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-225-24 LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP: The office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Fall 2024 legislative interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from late August through mid-December/early January.

Both full and part time internships are available, and we offer needs-based stipends to students who are Pell Grant eligible. Our internship program has returned to in-person work with flexible telework options.

Ideal applicants are self-starters who bring a customer service mindset and a passion for community service. Applicants must be intellectually curious, willing to spend a lot of time on the phone, and write well.

Responsibilities range from helping constituents, to doing research and drafting memos for our legislative staff, to staffing the Congresswoman in hearings or meetings. We offer interns the opportunity to see Congress up close and from the inside. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience are a plus. Ties to PA-06 are also a plus.

Please submit applications through the “Legislative Internship” form our website, Houlahan.house.gov.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. If you have any questions, please reach out to Nirmal Singletary at nirmal.singletary@mail.house.gov

MEM-219-24 The office of Congresswoman Stephanie Bice (OK-05) is seeking applicants for a paid internship for the Fall2024 term.

Successful applicants will be motivated, detail-oriented, display a strong work ethic, and interact well with constituents and others. Furthermore, applicants should have a strong interest in the legislative process and the functioning of Congress.

The intern would be expected to handle, sort and/or log incoming calls, mail, and electronic correspondence, lead tours of the Capitol, conduct research, help draft legislative and official correspondence, and assist the D.C. office staff with work as assigned including administrative and logistical support.

Qualified applicants should possess strong and effective communication (both verbal and written), work well in a highly dynamic fast-paced environment, have good time management skills including the ability to prioritize, and track multiple work products, possess attention to detail, and a willingness to learn new skills and tasks and be flexible in supporting the Member and all staff in various roles, both administrative and legislative.

To apply, please email ok05internship@mail.house.gov with a copy of your resume.

MEM-218-24 "The office of Congressman Jeff Van Drew (NJ-02) is currently accepting applications for full and part-time interns for the fall internship session.

The start date would be as early as August 15th (flexible depending on availability) with a flexible end date. Interns are paid a stipend based on availability and have access to transit benefits. The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with our nation's legislative process. Interns contribute to the daily operations of the office and are expected to act in a reliable, professional manner at all times.

Duties include (but are not limited to): greeting visitors, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research, and various other tasks to assist staff. Congressman Van Drew supports students requesting credit for their internship through their university.

If interested, please email a resume and cover letter to nj02internships@mail.house.gov. Please indicate in your cover letter that you're applying for a fall internship and format the files as [Full Name_Resume], [Full Name_Cover Letter]."

MEM-217-24 Congresswoman Suzan DelBene, representing the 1st Congressional District of Washington state, seeks interns for her Washington, D.C. and District (Kirkland) offices. Interns will work in a fast-paced congressional office, gaining valuable experience and knowledge of the United States Congress.

Intern responsibilities include greeting constituents and handling constituent phone calls, assisting staff with administrative tasks, conducting research, and assisting with constituent correspondence. Washington, D.C. interns will have the opportunity to lead tours of the U.S. Capitol as well as attend hearings and briefings for the legislative staff.

To apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and short writing sample (1 to 2 pages) to Internship.DelBene@mail.house.gov. In the subject line, please specify whether you are applying for a D.C. or District internship. In the body of the email, list any start and end date constraints, whether you are interested in a part-time or full-time position, and the number of hours per week you can work.

The deadline for Fall 2024 internship applications is Wednesday, July 3rd at 11:59 PM.
