

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service

Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Member and Committee Openings

Week of December 01, 2025

MEM-362-25

The Office of Congressman Jamie Raskin (MD-08) seeks a Legislative Assistant to advance the Congressman's priorities related to foreign policy, human rights, campaign finance, democracy reform, voting rights and elections, and other policy areas to be assigned. This is a full-time, in-person position in the Washington D.C. office.

Key responsibilities will include:

- Identifying and proactively pursuing legislation and other policy initiatives related to the priorities of the Congressman and Maryland's Eighth District.
- Working closely with the Legislative Director and Chief of Staff to formulate and execute a coordinated legislative strategy for the Congressman for their assigned issue areas, and working with external stakeholders, Legislative Counsel, and other Congressional offices to draft and advance legislation, speeches, policy letters and other policy initiatives.
- Providing the Congressman with timely legislative updates, generating ideas, and working with the communications team on press releases, op-eds, and speeches.
- Staffing the Congressman for meetings with constituents and advocacy groups.
- Meeting with constituents and advocacy groups on the Congressman's behalf.
- Drafting and reviewing constituent correspondence.

This position will report directly to the Legislative Director and work in close collaboration with the Congressman, Chief of Staff, the District Office team, and the communications team. This position may include evening and weekend work as the Congressional schedule requires.

Key qualifications include:

- At least three years of relevant professional experience and subject matter knowledge in the policy areas described above. This is not an entry-level position.
- Willingness to cover a diverse issue portfolio and be responsive to constituents' varied concerns and perspectives.
- Exceptional writing skills, attention to detail, and creativity.
- Strong verbal communications skills.
- Serious work ethic, keen organization, effective time management, a professional and discreet approach, and the ability to work in a fast-paced, dynamic and collaborative

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

environment and quickly respond to requests from the Congressman, colleagues, and constituents.

- Residence in, or ties to, Maryland's Eighth District and facility with other languages are both plus factors, though not requirements.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds and underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. The U.S. House of Representatives is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, military status, gender identity and expression, marital status, parental status, or sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law, in any of its activities or operations.

The deadline for applications is Friday, December 12 at 5pm. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

To apply, please 1) fill out this basic form (copy and paste the URL into your browser):<https://forms.office.com/g/uvBhtdLwgs> AND 2) send an email to MD08.Resumes@mail.house.gov with “Legislative Assistant: [YOUR NAME]” in the subject line and the following application materials attached as one combined PDF:

- o Cover letter (not to exceed one page)
- o Résumé
- o Two writing samples (not to exceed two pages each)

MEM-361-25

PRESS ASSISTANT
OFFICE of CONGRESSMAN AUCHINCLOSS

SUMMARY:

Congressman Jake Auchincloss (D-MA) is seeking a Press Assistant in the Washington, D.C. office to join an aggressive, fast-paced communications team. The Press Assistant will have excellent writing, editing, and digital skills. Strong proofreading and copyediting skills are a must. This role will be heavily focused on digital communications, working with the Communications Director to produce social media content and develop a creative digital strategy.

This role primarily assists the Communications Director with drafting constituent-facing outgoing communications and developing a social media plan. Candidates seeking to join a highly active press team across national, local, and digital media are encouraged to apply.

Videography and video editing skills are a plus. This role requires some work outside of business hours. The salary for this position is $55,000.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS:

- Drafts, edits or compiles the Congressman’s remarks, newsletters, press releases, and other public-facing written materials;
- Designs and executes a robust social media plan that builds engagement and audience growth;
- Posts daily social media content in accordance with the social media plan under quick deadlines and suggests new ideas;
- Runs the office’s 499 program;
- Monitors social media and relevant news to produce rapid response tweets;
- Clips the Congressman’s TV appearances and public facing events for social media;
- Possesses strong instincts for digital trends and digital media opportunities;
- Provides creative, proactive ideas on social media, press pitches and events;
- Assists the Communications Director with drafting press releases, quotes, statements, floor speeches and talking points;
- Works closely with the Communications Director to produce franked mail, texts, digital ads, telephone surveys, and telephone town halls;
- Conducts research on podcasts and other upcoming press hits;
- Works well under pressure and with quick turnarounds;

Please email a resume, cover letter, writing sample and two digital work samples in a single PDF to AuchinclossJobs@mail.house.gov with “First Name Last Name—Press Assistant” in the Subject Line. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. No phone calls, faxes or drop-ins please.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, sexual orientation, age, disability, or military status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

NOTICE:

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin.

MEM-355-25

Congresswoman Lizzie Fletcher (TX-7) seeks a positive, well-organized, and outgoing Field Representative in her Houston, TX office. Primary duties include attending local events as the Congresswoman’s representative; building and maintaining relationships with constituents, community leaders and organizations, and local government offices; assisting with the outreach programs; planning events; and staffing the Congresswoman.

Strong candidates will demonstrate excellent written and oral communication skills and attention to detail, strong organizational skills, ability to manage multiple projects at once, and function well in a team-oriented environment. Candidates should be able to communicate clearly in a fast-paced environment with good humor, and to work effectively with different teams in the office as well as organizations and government offices in the community.

This position requires flexible working hours, including on weekends, and availability by phone and email during evenings and weekends. Previous government experience is highly desirable. Salary is commensurate with experience. Interested candidates should email their resume, writing sample, and references to TX07.hiring@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Field Representative.” No phone calls or walk-ins please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-354-25

The Committee on Ways and Means, U.S. House of Representatives, seeks applications to fill a Trade Counsel position on the Democratic Staff.

Responsibilities include arranging and staffing hearings; legislative drafting; providing expert legal and policy analysis; negotiating and corresponding with Executive agencies; and conducting oversight and investigative activities.

Candidates for the position must be graduates of an accredited law school and members in good standing of a state or the District of Columbia Bar. Candidates must be a U.S. citizen and should have at least five years of trade litigation or trade policy experience. Exceptional legal research and writing skills are required.

Candidates must be able to obtain and maintain a U.S. security clearance.

Previous Federal Executive Branch experience is preferred with a specific background in customs law, trade remedies, services trade, government procurement, intellectual property rights, artificial intelligence, competition law, labor law, technical barriers to trade, environmental law, or human rights.

Applicants must be able to travel internationally. Candidates with an ability to converse in French or Spanish is desirable.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and references to WMDemTradeSubmissions@mail.house.gov. Position closes December 11, 2025

Due to an anticipated high volume of applications, we are unable to contact each applicant individually regarding the status of their application.

MEM-352-25

To apply, please email jobs.landsman@mail.house.gov with “Legislative Director – Your Name” in the subject line (EX: Legislative Director – Jane Smith).

The office of Rep. Greg Landsman (OH-01) seeks an experienced, organized, confident, collaborative, and energetic leader who can operate well under pressure to serve as a Legislative Director based in our DC office.

The Legislative Director will be a senior member of the leadership team in the office, working extraordinarily closely with the Member, Chief of Staff, Communications Director, Director of Operations, and District Director. The Legislative Director will serve as the primary policy advisor – providing strategic direction and insight to the Member and team, while being responsible for overseeing the Member’s legislative and policy agenda, overseeing the legislative team, and collaborating closely with senior leadership to solve complex problems and deliver results.

Key duties include:

- Managing, training, and supervising a team in a fast-paced environment
- Overseeing policy and legislative priorities – including drafting bills, letters, and amendments
- Keeping the Member and team updated on legislative updates and policy news
- Tracking floor and committee activity, and making vote recommendations
- Developing strong relationships with district and DC partners
- Effectively representing the Member and Member’s views and opinions to internal and external stakeholders
- Overseeing the office’s appropriations, Community Project Funding, and grants process
- Overseeing the office’s constituent correspondence program
- Collaborating with Member, Chief of Staff, Communications Director, Director of Operations, and District Director

Key qualities include:

- Prior Hill experience – including at least 4 years of policy/legislative experience
- Strong ability to manage a team, and exercise good judgment and work ethic
- Sound policy judgment and firm grasp of committee, floor, and other House procedures
- Strong verbal and written communications skills and ability to communicate up, down, and across the team

- Ability to quickly learn and adapt to the Member's style and legislative priorities
- Commitment to a collaborative work environment and professional development for all team members
- Attention to detail, creativity, and most of all, hustle
- An understanding of Ohio issues and communities is a plus

Salary range: $90,000 – $110,000 – commensurate with experience.

To apply, please email jobs.landsman@mail.house.gov with “Legislative Director – Your Name” in the subject line (EX: Legislative Director – Jane Smith) and the following application materials attached as one combined PDF.

- Resume
- Brief cover letter

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-351-25

Job Posting: DC Scheduler for Congresswoman Dexter – District OR-03

About the Position:

Congresswoman Maxine Dexter is seeking a highly organized and detail-oriented individual to serve as a Scheduler for her Washington, D.C. office. This position is essential in managing the Congresswoman's daily schedule, travel arrangements, and other related activities. The Scheduler will act as a liaison between the Congresswoman, staff, the public, and other Members of Congress. A valid driver's license and owning a car is preferred. Full-time benefited position with a starting salary range of $65-75K. Additional benefit of student loan repayment.

Essential Job Functions:

- Prepare the Congresswoman's daily schedule.
- Organize monthly projected schedules and brief the Congresswoman on all scheduling activities.
- Coordinate staff meetings, briefings, and events involving the Congresswoman.
- Schedule press, interview, radio, and television engagements in coordination with the Communications Director.
- Manage reservations for air travel, ground transportation, and lodging.
- Submit vouchers for travel and expense reimbursement.
- Ensure the Congresswoman receives briefing materials for each event by coordinating with participants and staff.

- Maintain files related to travel, correspondence, and event materials.
- Assist with preparing documentation for the Congresswoman's annual financial disclosure report.
- Act as a liaison between the Congresswoman, constituents, and government offices.
- Maintain positive working relationships with staff and other stakeholders.
- Work a flexible schedule including long hours, nights, and weekends, and perform other duties as assigned.

Education & Experience:

- At least one year of experience working in a congressional office is preferred.

Skills & Knowledge Required:

- Strong telephone, oral, and written communication skills.
- Ability to prioritize and manage appointments with discretion and independent judgment.
- Excellent organizational skills with keen attention to detail.
- Ability to work cooperatively and maintain professional relationships with diverse personalities.
- Knowledge of office administration, policies, and procedures.
- Ability to work under pressure and handle stress in a fast-paced environment.
- Must be adaptable to a flexible work schedule.

How to Apply:

Please send a resume and cover letter to Grace.Banfield@mail.house.gov and Kari.Williamson@mail.house.gov.

MEM-350-25

Job Opening: District Representative

The office of Congresswoman Susie Lee (NV-03) is hiring a District Representative based out of her district office in Las Vegas. The ideal candidate is enthusiastic, team-oriented, self-motivated, good-humored, and resourceful. Qualified applicants will have strong oral and written communication skills, astute attention to detail, work efficiently under pressure, and be creative, proactive, and strategic. This position requires flexibility to work some nights and weekends, especially when the Congresswoman is in southern Nevada. The District Representative will report to the District Director.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to organizing and hosting events, tracking and attending community events, supporting and staffing the Congresswoman, preparing briefing memos, staying informed with assigned issue areas in the community, conducting casework and other constituent services, and acting as a liaison for the Congresswoman in the community. The District Representative will also assist with various tasks to support the Congresswoman while in district, including driving the Congresswoman. Applicants must possess a valid drivers' license, strong driving skills, and own a registered vehicle.

Office of Talent and Development

CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The preferred candidate will have experience working with elected officials and community groups, ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment, ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others in a fast-paced office, and basic knowledge of government affairs and constituent services. Knowledge of Nevada's Third Congressional District is desired. Compensation will be commensurate with experience.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Qualified candidates should submit in PDF format a cover letter, resume, three references (including name, title and organization, phone number, email, and relationship to the candidate) and one writing sample to nv03resumes@gmail.com with the following subject line: "Full Name – District Representative."

MEM-349-25

Location: Washington, DC

Salary Range: $60-70,000 based on experience

Congresswoman Nanette Barragán (CA-44) is seeking a Press Secretary|Digital Director to join our communications team. The Press Secretary|Digital Director will work under the office's Communications Director to carry out the Congresswoman's communications and outreach strategy. Ideal candidates are motivated self-starters, detail-oriented, highly organized, possess problem solving skills, thrive in a very fast-paced environment - and be willing to work extended hours and oftentimes under tight time constraints. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply by 15 December 2025.

Key Responsibilities

- Work with the Communications Director to build and maintain the Congresswoman 's brand.
- Develop and manage digital content across platforms (Facebook, Instagram, X, Bluesky, and YouTube). Support the office's social media strategy by drafting social media posts and producing video and graphic materials.
- Update and manage the official website.
- Monitor national and local media coverage, as well as social media trends.
- Clip and caption TV appearances, floor speeches, long and short form videos, and more.
- Draft and edit press releases, advisories, franked communications, and other communications materials as assigned

- Help plan and execute press events, interviews, and digital outreach.
- Maintain press contact lists and support external communications efforts.

Qualifications

- Strong writing, editing, and strategic messaging skills
- Skilled in Canva, Adobe Suite, or similar platforms
- Media relations success and ability to assist with communications in a fast-paced environment
- Los Angeles Metro|Southern California ties are a plus
- Fluency in Spanish is a plus
- Must be a collaborative, high-energy team player committed to advancing the office's mission and responsive to emerging priorities.

TO APPLY: Send (1) Cover Letter, (2) Resume, (3) 2 writing samples of 500 words or less, (4) digital/photographic portfolio, and (5) and three references (including name, title, organization, contact details, and your relationship. Please send all materials to CA44Resumes@mail.house.gov With "CA44 Press Secretary" in the Subject Line.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-348-25

U.S. House of Representatives
Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, Democratic Staff

DIGITAL DIRECTOR

Ranking Member Robert Garcia of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform has an immediate need to hire a creative, organized, detail-oriented individual to serve as Digital Director to assist with content creation on a fast-paced, highly collaborative communications team and work efficiently under tight deadlines and produce high-quality, quick-turnaround content.

Position Overview:

Creating rapid response and visually engaging content is an essential component of the Committee's digital-forward communications strategy. Individual responsibilities include the ability to:

- Draft and design engaging digital content that highlights the Committee's work and investigations.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

- Collaborate closely with the Ranking Member, Communications Director, and communications team to craft cohesive digital messaging.
- Coordinate with Member offices to engage Committee Members in Oversight Dems' digital strategy.
- Work closely with the Director of Video to plan out and execute a robust video program.
- Draft and design message guidance and talking points for Committee Members and the Democratic Caucus.
- Edit and maintain the Committee's website to include relevant updates, press releases, and engaging content.
- Manage and guide the paid media program and ensure all materials comply with House Rules and Communications Standards Commission (Franking) regulations.
- Work cross-functionally with other staff on special projects as assigned.

Proficiency in Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator and the ability to work in a fast-paced environment are a must. Applicants should also have a working knowledge of Canva and HTML.

COMPENSATION & WORKPLACE

Salary is commensurate with experience. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin. Candidates with diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

This position is based in Washington, D.C. and reports to the Communications Director. The position may require work outside standard office hours. This is not an entry level position. Qualified candidates will have at least 2 years of digital media or graphic design experience, preferably on Capitol Hill. The ability to work well with others, manage competing priorities, and turn around high-quality products under tight deadlines is a must.

Our Commitment to Inclusion

The Oversight Committee is committed to, and benefits from, a diverse staff. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply. Applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin.

Application Instructions:

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit a resume and digital portfolio to sara.guerrero@mail.house.gov and gabi.garcia@mail.house.gov with “Digital Director" in the subject line by December 1, 2025, at midnight. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. No calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-344-25

Congresswoman Val Hoyle (D-OR-04) seeks a self-starting District Caseworker to join her office to work with a dedicated and hardworking district team. In this role, the District Caseworker acts as a liaison to federal agencies for constituents on behalf of the Member. They provide casework assistance through correspondence and verbal communications to constituents and federal agencies. They also often work with state and local agencies.

The ideal candidate has excellent written and oral skills; can exercise discretion and independent judgment in carrying out the duties of the position; has working knowledge of local, state, and federal agencies and departments; is aware of and can communicate about issues and events in the district of importance to the Member; can communicate with a variety of personalities in a tactful, pleasant and professional manner; has a professional telephone manner; is courteous to others; is thorough and pays careful attention to detail; and can fulfillment of all casework responsibilities. They work closely with other district caseworkers and field staff, and reports to the District Director and the Chief of Staff. A preference for Spanish speakers is preferred but not required for this position.

Please have candidates send a cover letter and resume to resumes.hoyle@mail.house.gov. Applications will be reviewed on an ongoing/rolling basis

MEM-336-25

Congresswoman Nanette Barragán (CA-44) seeks an experienced Scheduler for her Washington, DC office.

The salary range for this position is $60,000 - $80,000, depending on experience and qualifications.

Main responsibilities include:

- maintaining the Member's daily and long-term schedules for both DC and the District;
- organizing and evaluating all incoming meeting requests and invitations.
- keeping the Member on schedule throughout the day.
- working with legislative and communications staff to ensure the Member is prepared for events/meetings.
- coordinating travel arrangements.
- processing and managing expenses and reimbursements for the Member.

- supporting planning and scheduling for the Congressional Hispanic Caucus related to the Chairwoman.
- Facilitate weekly scheduling meetings with the Member and Chief of Staff to evaluate meeting requests.
- Coordinating with the Member and Chief of Staff regarding political scheduling requests;
- Communicating with constituents by phone and email to address requests;
- Drive the Member as needed;
- And additional administrative responsibilities as necessary.

Candidates must be highly organized, detail-oriented, energetic, and capable of thriving in a fast-paced and rapidly changing workplace.

This position requires availability outside of regular business hours including some weekend availability as needed.

Previous experience in scheduling/operations and/or Hill experience is preferred. Salary is commensurate with experience.

Southern California | Los Angeles Metro area ties, access to a car, and Spanish fluency are a plus.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and three references with “SCHEDULER” in the subject line to CA44Resumes@mail.house.gov.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-335-25

The Office of Congresswoman April McClain Delaney (D-MD-06) seeks a Constituent Services Representative to be based out of her District Office in Frederick, MD. The position reports directly to the District Director and is responsible for assisting in all aspects of the District Team's day-to-day responsibilities. This role will require travel throughout Maryland's Sixth District.

Job Summary

A Constituent Services Representative acts as a liaison to federal, state, and city agencies for the Member's constituents. This position will handle a portfolio of issue areas on behalf of the Member and work closely with the District Director and staff to provide outstanding service to the Member's constituents. A Constituent Services Representative is also responsible for answering casework correspondence and verbal communications with constituents. Additionally, a Constituent Services Representative works with the Director of Constituent Services and the Director of Outreach to ensure effective communication with agencies and constituents.

Essential Duties :

- Serves as a liaison with federal governments to address individual constituent concerns
- Monitors casework trends to provide updates to the District Director and Director of Constituent Services
- Prepares incoming and outgoing constituent casework to manage casework in assigned areas of expertise
- Maintains accurate and complete files on all assigned casework to keep track of all casework progress
- Screens and monitors cases to determine if referring the case to other government entities is appropriate
- Answers casework correspondence, meets with constituents, and serves as a liaison with federal, state, and local authorities to act as the representative for the Member within their areas of responsibility
- Attends community meetings to support public events and provides updates to District Director and Director of Outreach
- Writes responses to constituent letters relating to casework to answer questions or inform them of case progress
- Organizes workload to prioritize tasks in accordance with varying deadlines and ensure work is completed in an efficient and effective manner
- Other duties as assigned

Skills

- Thoroughness and careful attention to detail
- Ability to work well under pressure while juggling multiple tasks with competing priorities
- Ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment in fulfillment of casework responsibilities
- Availability to work long hours, including nights and weekends, if needed
- Ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Thorough knowledge of the legislative process
- Knowledge of all issues in the District in which the Member is involved
- Maryland ties are a plus
- The ability to speak Spanish is a plus
- 1-3 years of experience working for a candidate or elected official (Federal, State, or Municipal)

Salary & Benefits

The salary range for this position is $55,000 - $65,000 annually. Additionally, the office provides a robust benefits package.

To Apply :

Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to md06.jobs@gmail.com with the subject line “Constituent Services Representative.” No calls or walk-ins please. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; the office does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, or military status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law

MEM-333-25

LEGISLATIVE CORRESPONDENT

Moderate House Democrat seeks a Legislative Correspondent for their Washington, D.C. office.

Ideal candidates will have:

- A Bachelor’s degree or related job experience;
- 1-3 years of relevant job experience;
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills;
- Excellent attention to detail and time-management abilities;
- A strong commitment to providing outstanding constituent service;
- The ability to thrive in a fast-paced, team-oriented environment;
- Sound judgment and a positive, professional attitude;
- A demonstrated interest in public service and legislative work;
- Prior Capitol Hill experience preferred.

Duties will include but not be limited to:

- Managing a robust constituent mail program through Indigov and ensuring timely, accurate responses;
- Helping manage a legislative portfolio, including tracking legislation in assigned issue areas and assisting with legislative research and briefing materials;
- Researching legislative issues and drafting correspondence to explain the Member’s position on a wide range of public policy matters;
- Collaborating with legislative staff to develop and maintain an up-to-date library of constituent correspondence;
- Drafting, editing, and personalizing letters to address constituent inquiries.

This position reports up to the Legislative Director and Chief of Staff.

Notice:

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, military status, parental status, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other factor or basis prohibited by applicable federal law. Applicants with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation to participate in the application or hiring processes are encouraged to request accommodation at any time during those processes.

Applicant Instructions:

All interested candidates are encouraged to submit a resume, a cover letter, and a writing sample with “Legislative Correspondent” as the subject line to jobs@mail.house.gov.

