Internship Openings

Week of October 05, 2026

Internship – MEM-293-26

The office of Congresswoman Dina Titus (NV-01) seeks highly motivated candidates for a paid Spring 2027 internship position in our Las Vegas office.

The ideal candidate possesses excellent oral and written communication skills, can multi-task, and is committed to being a team player. Responsibilities will include answering phones, attending agency briefings and meetings, attending in-district events, and conducting research to support the needs of the Congresswoman's staff.

The internship will run through the Spring 2027 semester, with a flexible schedule but a required commitment of at least 15 hours per week. Ties to Nevada's First District are strongly preferred.

The office of Congresswoman Dina Titus is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Women, LGBTQ+ individuals, and members of other historically marginalized communities are encouraged to apply.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants should fill out the form below and include a cover letter, resume, and short (1-2 page) writing sample. Applications will be accepted until Monday, November 16, 2026, on a rolling basis. No calls or drop-ins, please.

Application Form

Internships - MEM-292-26

In the Washington, D.C. office, internships run throughout the year based on the semester calendar. Applicants must be based in Washington, D.C. for the duration of the internship. Our internship program typically runs during these times:

- Spring: Mid-January to mid-May; application window opens in October
- Summer: Mid-May to mid-August; application window opens in February

- Fall: Early September to mid-December; application window opens in June

Ideal candidates should possess excellent written and verbal communications skills, a strong attention to detail, the ability to succeed in a fast-paced work environment, and a good sense of humor. New York State ties are preferred but not required.

Washington, D.C. Internship Responsibilities

Interns in the Washington, D.C. office play an important role in the daily operations of the office and gain firsthand experience in the legislative process.

Core Responsibilities (all interns)

All interns will be responsible for:

- Greeting guests and assisting with front office operations
- Answering phones, recording constituent opinions, and correctly processing other inquiries
- Conducting Capitol tours for constituents and other guests
- Supporting the Legislative Correspondent with sorting mail and drafting constituent letters
- Attending hearings and briefings, as requested by senior staff
- Researching legislation for the Member and legislative team
- Assisting with day-to-day office work and other duties as delegated by members of the staff
- Interacting with members of staff in the D.C. office and virtually with the Rochester office
- Other administrative tasks as assigned

Additional Responsibilities (by focus area)

Each semester, interns have the opportunity to take on additional duties based on office needs and individual interests. These may include responsibilities in Communications, Scheduling, or Correspondence:

Communications Interns may:

- Compile daily press clips and monitor media coverage of issues relevant to the Member
- Draft press releases, media advisories, and statements under staff guidance
- Assist with social media content creation and scheduling
- Help update the office website and other digital platforms
- Maintain press contact lists and track media inquiries
- Support logistics for press events and prepare briefing materials for interviews or appearances

Scheduling Interns may:

- Assist with processing and tracking incoming invitations to the Member
- Confirm details and logistics for meetings, events, and travel
- Help maintain the Member's calendar and coordinate with district staff as needed
- Prepare briefing materials for scheduled events or meetings
- Support logistics for events, including visitor coordination and follow-up
- Assist with schedule adjustments, conflicts, and communications

Correspondence Interns may:

- Track and organize inbound constituent correspondence
- Draft responses to constituent letters on legislative issues and policy questions under
- staff supervision
- Research issues raised by constituents to inform responses
- Assist the Legislative Correspondent in preparing reports summarizing constituent
- concerns and trends

Throughout the semester, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office. For more information about this internship, please view this PDF.

Full-time paid internships run Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session (please refer to the House Calendar).

Part-time internships are scheduled to accommodate students' course schedules, as well as the needs of the office. Part-time interns can expect to receive either pay or academic credit. Interns may receive compensation from an outside organization (academic institution, fellowship, etc., but this needs to be communicated with the office during the application process. Interns must be a U.S. citizen and legally eligible to work for the U.S. federal government.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Internships are intended for current undergraduate students, current graduate students, and recent college graduates.

To apply for the Spring 2027 DC Internship, please fill out the google form found here: Spring 2027 DC Internship Application Google Form. Our office will be accepting applications on a rolling basis until November 19th at 11:59pm EST. Applicants are encouraged to submit their application early.

Internship - MEM-290-26

D.C./San Antonio Internship Listing
The Office of Congressman Joaquin Castro (TX-20) seeks motivated and capable applicants for our Spring 2027 internship program. Applicants are required to be college students or recent graduates.

Interns will gain invaluable work experience as well as a deep understanding of the functionality of a congressional office. Work hours are flexible to accommodate students' hectic course schedules but are generally from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. All interns are paid $15 an hour.

Washington, D.C.

Interns in our D.C. office are assigned to assist the office with a variety of tasks. Interns are responsible for answering phones, researching legislation, attending hearings and briefings, and responding to constituent letters on the various issues that come before the House. As a result, interns have a firsthand look at the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

Candidates should be interested in public policy, detail-oriented, motivated, organized, and willing to learn. They should also have good phone etiquette and strong writing skills. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

San Antonio, TX

Interns in our San Antonio office will be asked to do many things, including day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters and assisting with research, as well as assisting with constituent casework and handling district-based projects of importance. Working in our San Antonio office allows interns the opportunity to work directly with our constituents in the community.

Application Instructions:

For your application to be considered complete, please submit your information to our office at this form along with submitting your cover letter, resume, and 2 page writing sample to castro.internapplication@mail.house.gov. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Application Deadlines: Applications must be received by October 16th.

Late Fall Internship - MEM-289-26

The Committee on House Administration (Democratic Staff) is now accepting applications for a short-term internship opportunity during the late fall 2026 term. Applicants should be based in Washington, D.C. for the duration of the internship. Interns will have the opportunity to contribute directly to the Committee's work during an important period for the House, including supporting preparations for New Member Orientation and helping incoming Members and their offices prepare to begin their service in Congress. This hands-on experience offers individuals interested in Congress and public service the opportunity to make an immediate contribution to the work of the House while gaining firsthand insight into the operations of the institution.

Interns must be a U.S. citizen and legally eligible to work for the U.S. federal government. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Internships are intended for current undergraduate students, current graduate students, and recent college graduates.

We will be accepting applications on a rolling basis until October 9th at 11:59 PM EST. Interested applicants should fill out the form here.

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Law Clerk – MEM-288-26

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Law Clerk

The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs seeks a law clerk for the Spring 2027 semester. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting legislative and policy research,
- Drafting memos, letters, and other written materials,
- Attending briefings and hearings,
- Assisting with Committee events, and
- Completing other tasks as assigned.

Qualified candidates will be second- or third-year law students who have a demonstrated interest in public service, Congress, or veterans policy. Candidates for this position must have superior organizational skills, a strong work ethic, ability to pay close attention to detail, as well as excellent research, writing, and analytical skills. Additionally, the ability to excel in fast-paced environments and a willingness to assist wherever needed is a must.

The Committee strongly encourages veterans, minorities, women, people with disabilities, LGBTQ+ candidates, and HBCU and MSI students to apply.

This paid, full-time or part-time, in-person position is based in Washington, D.C.

The deadline to apply is 5 pm ET on Friday, October 30, 2026. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Late applications will not be accepted. No calls or emails please.

Please apply at https://democrats-veterans.house.gov/opportunities.

The Committee will contact those candidates selected for an interview.

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Legislative Intern – MEM-287-26

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Legislative Intern

The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs seeks a legislative intern for the Spring 2027 semester.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting research,
- Managing and responding to constituent correspondence,
- Assisting with Committee events,
- Attending briefings and hearings for staff,
- Drafting memos,
- Providing administrative support, including greeting visitors, answering calls and emails, and
- Other tasks as assigned.

A strong work ethic, the ability to excel in fast-paced environments, and a willingness to assist wherever needed is a must.

Qualified candidates will have strong oral and written communications skills, be detail-oriented, and have a desire to help veterans and learn about the Committee and the legislative process. The Committee strongly encourages veterans, minorities, women, people with disabilities, LGBTQ+ candidates, and HBCU and MSI students to apply.

This paid, full-time or part-time, in-person position is based in Washington, D.C.

The deadline to apply is 5 pm ET on Friday, October 30, 2026. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Late applications will not be accepted. No calls or emails please.

Please apply at https://democrats-veterans.house.gov/opportunities.

The Committee will contact those candidates selected for an interview.

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Press/Digital Intern - MEM-286-26

House Committee on Veterans' Affairs Press/Digital Intern

The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs seeks a press/digital intern for the Spring 2027 semester. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Compiling and distributing morning press clips,
- Tracking media hits for Committee members,
- Assisting with video shoots,
- Assisting with creating messaging packets and digital toolkits for the caucus,
- Writing first drafts of remarks, press releases, and video scripts,
- Developing social media content,
- Clipping floor and hearing remarks from members,
- Providing administrative support, including greeting visitors, answering calls and emails, and
- Other tasks as assigned.

A strong work ethic, the ability to excel in fast-paced environments, and a willingness to assist wherever needed is a must.

The ideal candidate will have strong oral and written communications skills, be detail-oriented, have a familiarity with social media platforms, and have a desire to help veterans and learn about the Committee and the legislative process.

The Committee strongly encourages veterans, minorities, women, people with disabilities, LGBTQ+ candidates, and HBCU and MSI students to apply.

This paid, full-time or part-time, in-person position is based in Washington, D.C.

The deadline to apply is 5 pm ET on Friday, October 30, 2026. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Late applications will not be accepted. No calls or emails please.

Please apply at https://democrats-veterans.house.gov/opportunities.

The Committee will contact those candidates selected for an interview.

Legislative Interns - MEM-274-26

Congresswoman Dina Titus (NV-01) seeks highly motivated Legislative Interns in her D.C. office for Spring 2027.

Interns in our D.C. office will have the opportunity to witness the legislative process and the inner workings of Capitol Hill first-hand. Responsibilities include but are not limited to answering constituent phone calls, attending policy briefings and meetings, providing tours of the United States Capitol, and conducting legislative research to support the needs of the Congresswoman's staff. The internship will run from January through May, from 9:00am—6:00pm when Congress is in session and from 9:00am—5:00pm when Congress is not in session. This is a full-time internship.

The ideal candidate possesses excellent oral and written communication skills, prioritizes professionalism, is a dedicated team player, and has a friendly persona. Ties to Nevada's First District are a plus but not required. The office of Congresswoman Dina Titus is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

How to Apply:
Interested applicants should use the link below to fill out the form and include a cover letter, resume, and short (1-2 page) writing sample. Applications will be accepted until Monday, November 16, on a rolling basis.

Application Form