Internship Openings

Week of October 19, 2026

Spring Intern – MEM-309-26

Congressman Mike Levin (CA-49) seeks press and legislative interns for his Washington, D.C., office for the Spring 2027 term.

These internships provide an opportunity for undergraduate students, graduate students, and recent graduates to learn more about the workings of a Congressional office and the legislative process. Interns should have a general understanding of the U.S. political system, value open communication, be eager to grow, and bring a can-do attitude.

Internships last approximately three to four months and are intended to be an educational experience. Internships are offered for either academic credit or a stipend. Internship applicants must be high school graduates. Current students and recent graduates will be given first priority for the internship program.

Legislative intern responsibilities include:

- Attending committee hearings and congressional briefings,
- Conducting policy research and drafting legislative materials,
- Authoring constituent correspondence on a range of policy issues,
- Answering phones and processing mail,
- Leading constituents on tours of the Capitol,
- Working on other administrative and legislative tasks, as directed.

Press intern responsibilities include:

- Assisting the Communications Director and Digital Manager/Press Secretary in drafting and editing social media content, digital graphics, and other digital materials,
- Drafting press releases, newsletters, remarks, and talking points,
- Compiling daily press clips and maintaining press lists,
- Answering phones and processing mail,
- Leading constituents on tours of the Capitol,

- Working on other administrative and communications-related tasks, as directed.

Press interns should have strong social media skills and basic familiarity with graphic design and video editing. Submission of a sample graphic or similar communications work with your application is strongly encouraged.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation. We deeply value the diversity of our employees and encourage candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.

To apply for an internship with Representative Levin, please email a cover letter, resume, three references, and a brief writing sample all in one pdf file, with the file name including internship class, year, last name, and first name (i.e. Spring2027.Doe.Jane.pdf) to CA49.DCInternships@mail.house.gov by November 15. Please specify whether you are applying for the press internship or the legislative internship. Applicants with strong ties to the 49th District are given preference.

Spring Intern – MEM-308-26

The Washington, D.C. office of Congresswoman Gwen Moore (WI-04) is seeking interns for the upcoming Spring 2027 term.

Responsibilities include answering phones, attending hearings and briefings, drafting and editing constituent correspondence letters, writing memos, conducting research for the legislative staff, and otherwise providing support for the day-to-day activities of the office. Interns are paid via a monthly stipend.

The Office of Congresswoman Moore is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, or socioeconomic status. All are welcome and encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and two short writing samples to WI04DC.Internships@mail.house.gov. Additionally, applicants should indicate their availability on an hourly, daily, and monthly basis during the Spring term in their email or cover letter. The deadline to apply is 6:00pm ET on Friday, November 13th, 2026.

Intern – MEM-305-26

The Office of Congressman Jefferson Shreve seeks motivated and capable applicants for our Spring 2027 internship program. Applicants are required to be college students or recent graduates.

Interns will gain invaluable work experience as well as a deep understanding of the functionality of a congressional office. Work hours are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on in-session days, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on out-of-session days. Work schedules can be flexible to accommodate course schedules. The spring internship session will begin on Monday, January 4th, 2026.

Washington, D.C.

Interns in our D.C. office are assigned to assist the office with a variety of tasks. Interns are responsible for answering phones, attending hearings and briefings, leading constituent tours, assisting the legislative team with a variety of projects, and other responsibilities as assigned. Interns have a firsthand look at the legislative process and the many functions of a congressional office.

Candidates should be interested in public policy, detail-oriented, motivated, organized, and willing to learn. They should also have good phone etiquette and strong writing skills.

Greenwood, IN

Interns in our Greenwood office are assigned to assist the office with a variety of tasks. These tasks include day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters and assisting with research, as well as assisting with constituent casework and handling district-based projects of importance. DIGITAL INTERNSHIP: The Office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for a Spring 2027 digital intern in our Washington, D.C. office. This internship will run from mid-August through mid-December.

Our office offers part- and full-time internships for students who are in college or a similar post-high school training program, or who have just graduated. We are dedicated to fostering the continued success of our interns beyond their time with our office. Former interns of ours have gone on to work in other offices across Capitol Hill, on state-wide political campaigns, and in various profit and non-profit organizations. We offer needs-based stipends to students who are Pell Grant eligible. Our internship program has returned to in-person work, and we are seeking a digital intern in our Washington, D.C. office.

Ideal intern applicants are adaptable and proactive self-starters who have experience in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented work environment. Digital intern will be responsible for compiling and distributing press clips, helping develop digital content including graphics and videos, and drafting copy for social media and press materials. Digital intern will also have the opportunity to staff the Congresswoman to capture videos and photos of events.

Successful interns in our office are adaptable and proactive self-starters who have experience in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented work environment. Applicants must be independent problem-solvers, have strong writing skills, and be comfortable communicating to both internal and external audiences.

An ideal digital intern has technical experience with video editing software (Premiere, Headliner) and/or graphic design tools (Canva, InDesign, Illustrator). Spanish language skills are preferred but not required. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience, ties to PA-06, and experience with photo editing programs (Photoshop, Lightroom) are all a plus.

To apply, please send: 1) a resume, 2) ONE brief paragraph about yourself and why you're interested in interning in our office, 3) a writing sample, and 4) one example of digital work (video, graphic or photo) to PA06Press.Internships@mail.house.gov.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. If you have any questions, please reach out to Nirmal Singletary at nirmal.singletary@mail.house.gov.

Spring 2027 Legislative Internship – MEM-296-26

LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP: The Office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Spring 2027 legislative interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from mid-August through mid-December.

Both full and part-time internships are available, and we offer stipends to applicants, with accommodations for Pell-eligible applicants. Our internship program has returned to in-person work with flexible telework options should interns need to work from home.

Ideal applicants are self-starters who bring a customer service mindset and a passion for community service. Applicants must be intellectually curious, willing to spend a lot of time on the phone and write well.

Responsibilities range from helping constituents, to doing research and drafting memos for our legislative staff, to staffing the Congresswoman in hearings or meetings. We offer interns the opportunity to see Congress up close and from the inside. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience are a plus. Ties to PA-06 are also a plus.

Please submit applications through the "Legislative Internship" form from our website, Houlahan.house.gov.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.
