

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service

Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Internship Openings

Week of July 20, 2026

MEM-235-26

Congresswoman Analilia Mejia (NJ-11) is seeking applicants for the Fall 2026 internship program in her Washington, D.C. Office. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

Responsibilities:

The Office of Congresswoman Mejia runs an internship program intended for current undergraduate students, recent college graduates, and students currently enrolled in graduate school. Internships in Congresswoman DeLauro's office combine administrative and legislative work. Interns are involved in all aspects of the office including constituent services, correspondence, and legislative research, in addition to providing general staff support.

The Washington DC internship program also offers an opportunity for a communications internship. This position will assist the communications team with social media, press conferences, and more. To apply for this position, please check the press internship interest box in the program application.

Press Intern tasks include, but are not limited to:

- Drafting for social media
- Compiling daily press clips
- Clipping and editing videos
- Office administrative tasks
- Other tasks as assigned by the Communications team

Qualifications:

Applicants should have an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, possess excellent writing skills, and an enthusiastic attitude.

How to Apply:

Please go to mejia.house.gov/internships to submit the requested information, including your cover letter and resume.

No walk-ins or phone calls.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MEM-233-26

Congressman Mike Levin (CA-49) seeks press intern for his Washington, D.C., office for the Fall 2026 term.

This internship provide an opportunity for undergraduate students, graduate students, and recent graduates to learn more about the workings of a Congressional office, the legislative process, and the role of a communications team. Interns should have a general understanding of the U.S. political system, value open communication, be eager to grow, and bring a can-do attitude.

Internships last approximately three to four months and are intended to be an educational experience. Internships are offered for either academic credit or a stipend. Internship applicants must be high school graduates. Current students and recent graduates will be given first priority for the internship program.

Press intern responsibilities include:

- Assisting the Communications Director and Digital Manager/Press Secretary in drafting and editing social media content, digital graphics, and other digital materials,
- Drafting press releases, newsletters, remarks, and talking points,
- Compiling daily press clips and maintaining press lists,
- Answering phones and processing mail,
- Leading constituents on tours of the Capitol,
- Working on other administrative and communications-related tasks, as directed.

Press interns should have strong social media skills and basic familiarity with graphic design and video editing. Submission of a sample graphic or similar communications work with your application is strongly encouraged.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation. We deeply value the diversity of our employees and encourage candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply.

To apply for an internship with Representative Levin, please email a cover letter, resume, three references, and a brief writing sample all in one pdf file, with the file name including internship class, year, last name, and first name (i.e. Fall2026.Doe.Jane.pdf) to CA49.DCInternships@mail.house.gov by July 23. Please specify you are applying for the press internship. Applicants with strong ties to the 49th District are given preference.

MEM-232-26

The office of Congressman Jack Bergman (MI-01) is accepting applications for Fall 2026 paid internships in our Washington, D.C. Office.

Ideal candidates are motivated, detail-oriented, and possess a strong work ethic, with the ability to communicate effectively with constituents and staff. This internship offers a valuable opportunity to gain hands-on experience in public service and constituent relations while learning about the day-to-day operations of a congressional office.

Responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Answering phones and responding to constituent inquiries
- Greeting visitors and assisting with front office operations
- Leading guided tours of the U.S. Capitol
- Attending briefings and hearings for staff
- Conducting legislative research and writing memos on policy and local issues for the Member and staff
- Assisting with additional administrative and legislative tasks as needed

Qualifications:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Willingness to learn and take initiative
- Professional demeanor and excellent attention to detail
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively as part of a team
- Demonstrated interest in public service, government, or public policy
- Michigan ties are preferred but not required

How to Apply: Interested applicants should submit a resume and brief paragraph outlining their interest and availability to Joaquin.Macias@mail.house.gov. Our office will be accepting applications on a rolling basis until August 3rd at 11:59pm EST.

MEM-231-26

COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP

The DC office of Representative Marilyn Strickland (WA-10) is currently accepting applicants for a paid Fall Communications Internship with a start date of Monday, August 24, 2026, until December 2026, with the potential to extend.

Communications Interns assist the communications staff by compiling media clips, drafting social media posts, press releases, and blog posts, and creating digital content. This is in addition to answering phones, inputting casework inquiries, and aiding in office needs. Experience working in communications is a plus.

Ideal candidates for this internship are diligent, detail-oriented, and can excel in a fast-paced environment. Applicants should possess strong written and verbal communication skills, an eye for and ability to create engaging digital content, and a good sense of humor. Ties to Washington State are preferred, but not required. Applicants are encouraged to include any previous customer service experience (retail, food service, hospitality, etc.) on their resumes.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, a one-page writing sample, and a sample social media post with relevant written and visual components in a single PDF document to WA10resumes@gmail.com with “DC Fall Communications Internship-[LAST NAME]” in the subject line. Please indicate in the cover letter which internship you are applying for and your dates of availability.

While the deadline for applications is Wednesday, August 5th at 5PM EST, applications will be accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis. Applicants are encouraged to submit their application early. Applications that are incomplete or submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

This office is an Equal Employment Opportunity Office and does not discriminate in employment based on race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, military service, or other non-merit factors. Individuals from underrepresented communities are encouraged to apply. Please no unsolicited phone calls or drop-ins.

MEM-230-26

The Office of Congressman Gabe Vasquez seeks a part-time, temporary Communications Fellow for the fall (Late August through December, exact dates flexible). The Communications Fellow is an integral member of the Congressman’s office and the communications team. Your role is essential to the office’s overall mission of communicating the Congressman and his staff’s work on behalf of New Mexicans to his constituents and the press.

The Communications Fellow will primarily be responsible for:

- Drafting written materials including press releases, e-newsletters, social media content
- Designing graphics
- Creating and editing short video clips as needed
- Building press lists

Competitive candidates will possess excellent writing and graphic design skills, creativity, attention to detail and relevant prior experience. Spanish language skills are a plus.

This is a part-time, temporary position, with 20-25 hours of work per week expected. The schedule is flexible, and a hybrid remote and in-person work arrangement is preferred. Fully remote applicants will also be considered.

Fellows will be paid a monthly stipend. To be considered, please send a resume, cover letter, writing sample, and two digital samples with the subject line “NM-02 Fall Communications Fellow” to NM02Press@mail.house.gov by July 29, 2026. No calls or drop-ins, please.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-228-26

A senior Republican Representative serving on the House Financial Services Committee is seeking interns for the Fall of 2026 in their Washington D.C office. Interns will gain a strong understanding of the functions of a congressional office and firsthand experience with the legislative process. Internship start and end dates are flexible and part-time internships are available for students. Full-time hours are Monday-Friday 9:00-5:00. This is a paid opportunity with a monthly stipend and reimbursement for Metro commute.

Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, assisting with constituent correspondence, conducting legislative research, leading Capitol tours, attending hearings and briefings and drafting memos. Applicants should be detail oriented, able to work well in a fast-paced environment, have strong oral and written communication skills and an interest in public policy. Pennsylvania ties are preferred but not required.

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to: Kieran.Patch@mail.house.gov.

MEM-223-26

Congresswoman Nancy Mace's District Office (Daniel Island) is seeking students with a strong interest in political science, public service, and communication to join as a fall intern 2026.

The internship can be full-time or part-time and will run from mid-August through November.

All applicants can submit their information using this link:

Internships | Representative Nancy Mace

The deadline for applications will be July 31, 2026.

MEM-221-26

The office of Congressman Juan Ciscomani (AZ-06) is accepting applications for Fall 2026 paid internships in our Washington D.C. Office.

Ideal candidates are motivated, detail-oriented, and possess a strong work ethic, with the ability to communicate effectively with constituents and staff. This internship offers a valuable opportunity to gain hands-on experience in public service and constituent relations while learning about the day-to-day operations of a congressional office.

Responsibilities may include:

Answering phones and responding to constituent inquiries

- Greeting visitors and assisting with front office operations
- Leading guided tours of the U.S. Capitol
- Conducting legislative research and writing memos on policy and local issues for the Member and staff
- Assisting with additional administrative and legislative tasks as needed

Qualifications:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Willingness to learn and take initiative
- Professional demeanor and excellent attention to detail
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively as part of a team
- Demonstrated interest in public service, government, or public policy
- Arizona residency or connection to the 6th Congressional District preferred

How to Apply: Interested applicants should submit a resume and brief cover letter outlining their interest and availability to Reya.Maestas@mail.house.gov

MEM-217-26

The office of Congresswoman Julie Johnson is accepting applications for internships in her Washington, D.C. Office for the Fall of 2026 (August - November).

Applicants must be open-minded, willing to learn, and have a desire to work for a Texas member. Our office is hiring a general office intern; responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Greeting guests and supporting staff with front office operations;
- Answering constituent phone calls and recording constituent opinions;
- Supporting the legislative team with research and bill recommendations;
- Attending briefings and hearings for staff;
- Leading Capitol Tour groups;
- Organizing incoming mail and supporting staff with outgoing correspondence;
- Other administrative duties as assigned.

We are proudly an office that is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, disability, national origin, military status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.

Our Fall 2026 D.C. internship application closes July 21st at 11:59 PM ET. College students and recent graduates are encouraged to apply. Hours are flexible to accommodate individual schedules, but hours are generally Monday - Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. If you have any questions please contact our Intern Coordinator Ela Schulz at ela.schulz@mail.house.gov.

Apply here: <https://juliejohnson.house.gov/services/internships>

MEM-211-26

The District Office of Representative Joseph Morelle, NY-25 in Rochester, NY, will be accepting applications for an in-person internship during the Fall Semester 2026. Applications will be accepted until July 31st, 2026.

Interns will be responsible for:

- Completing constituent calls
- Writing letters, certificates, and proclamations
- Day-to-day office work
- Interacting with members of staff in the Rochester office and virtually in the D.C. office
- Other duties delegated by members of staff including various constituent case work or work on District-based projects of importance

Interns will learn about the functions of a congressional office, congressional communications, and the legislative process. Ideal candidates should possess excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, the ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. New York State ties are preferred but not required.

Interested applicants should submit the following in one PDF document:

- Resume
- Cover letter
- One-page writing sample
- Dates of availability

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Internships are intended for current undergraduate students and current graduate students.

For more information on the district internship please visit: <https://morelle.house.gov/congressional-internships>

To apply for the Fall 2026 District Office Internship, please fill out the google form found here: Fall 2026 DO Internship Application Form. Our office will be accepting applications on a rolling basis until July 31st at 11:59pm EST. Applicants are encouraged to submit their application early.

MEM-202-26

The House Natural Resources Committee Democrats seek full-time interns for Fall 2026, August 31st – December 11th. Applicants must be organized, detail oriented, and dependable.

Above all, we seek candidates who are passionate about issues within the Natural Resources Committee's jurisdiction, demonstrate exceptional interpersonal skills, and are eager to learn about the committee process. Interns will conduct legislative research, prepare for hearings, assist with administrative duties, perform outreach, and aid communications.

Preferred qualifications: Demonstrates an awareness of and sensitivity to the needs and concerns of individuals from diverse cultures, backgrounds, and orientations. Understands how HNRC issues intersect with racism, economic and social inequality in the U.S., and has a passion for working to dismantle these systems.

Primary responsibilities include:

- Assist with administrative duties
- Assist with legislative and policy projects
- Research legislation, regulations, and public law
- Assist with communications and outreach
- Respond to requests for information
- Attend briefings, meetings, and hearings on behalf of staff

The position is based in Washington, D.C. Interns will be expected to work in-office when Congress is in session and as needed. The position comes with a monthly stipend of $3,200 plus transit benefits.

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, military status, parental status, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other factor or basis prohibited by applicable federal law. Applicants with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation to participate in the application or hiring process are encouraged to request an accommodation at any time during those processes.

The application deadline is close of business on July 8th.

Interested candidates should apply by visiting the House Natural Resources Committee Democrats' website at <https://democrats-naturalresources.house.gov/internships>.

Due to the volume of applicants, we will only be reaching out to candidates who are being actively considered for this position.

MEM-201-26

The Washington, D.C. office of Congresswoman Gwen Moore (WI-04) is seeking interns for the upcoming Fall 2026 term.

Responsibilities include answering phones, attending hearings and briefings, drafting and editing constituent correspondence letters, writing memos, conducting research for the legislative staff, and otherwise providing support for the day-to-day activities of the office. Interns are paid via a monthly stipend.

The Office of Congresswoman Moore is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, or socioeconomic status. All are welcome and encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and two short writing samples to WI04DC.Internships@mail.house.gov. Additionally, applicants should indicate their availability on an hourly, daily, and monthly basis during the Fall term in their email or cover letter. The deadline to apply is 6:00pm ET on Friday, July 24th, 2026.

MEM-194-26

The Office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Fall 2026 legislative interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from mid-August through mid-December.

Both full and part time internships are available, and we offer stipends to applicants, with accommodations for Pell-eligible applicants. Our internship program has returned to in-person work with flexible telework options should interns need to work from home.

Ideal applicants are self-starters who bring a customer service mindset and a passion for community service. Applicants must be intellectually curious, willing to spend a lot of time on the phone and write well.

Responsibilities range from helping constituents, to doing research and drafting memos for our legislative staff, to staffing the Congresswoman in hearings or meetings. We offer interns the opportunity to see Congress up close and from the inside. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience are a plus. Ties to PA-06 are also a plus.

Please submit applications through the “Legislative Internship” form our website, Houlahan.house.gov.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-188-26

The Office of Congresswoman Marcy Kaptur (OH-09) is seeking motivated college students, recent graduates, and graduate students for the Fall 2026 Internship Program in her Washington, D.C., office.

Intern responsibilities vary daily but typically include assisting with constituent services, sorting mail, answering phones, conducting legislative research, attending hearings and briefings, and providing general administrative support to staff.

The ideal candidate will have strong written and oral communication skills, an interest in public service and the legislative process, and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment. Applicants should be organized, dependable, and eager to learn. Ties to Ohio are strongly preferred but not required.

To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a single PDF containing the following materials:

- A current résumé
- A one-page cover letter outlining your interest in the position and availability
- A short written response (300–500 words) to the following prompt:
 - What does public service mean to you? You may share a personal experience, describe values you live by, or reflect on a moment that has shaped your interest in public service.

Please send completed applications in a SINGLE PDF
to angela.maloney@mail.house.gov with the subject line: Fall
2026 Internship Application – [Your Name]
Application Deadline: July 21, 2026, at noon.

This internship offers a unique opportunity to gain firsthand experience in a congressional office, develop professional skills, and contribute to the work of Congresswoman Kaptur and her team.

The Office of Congresswoman Kaptur is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

