

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service

Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Member and Committee Openings

Week of July 20, 2026

MEM-236-26

Communications Director — Congresswoman Lois Frankel (FL-22)

The Office of Congresswoman Lois Frankel (FL-22), Ranking Member of the House Appropriations National Security and Department of State Subcommittee (formerly SFOPS), is seeking an experienced Communications Director with exceptional writing skills to join her team. This is a full-time, in-person position based in Washington, D.C.

Responsibilities include:

- Developing and implementing strategies to best communicate the Congresswoman's work through TV, print media, social media, and paid media.
- Drafting communications materials including media advisories, press releases, Floor and Committee remarks, op-eds, newsletters, statements, and press conference and event remarks and memos.
- Managing spending on all paid media, including social media ads and boosted posts, physical mailers, and telephone/virtual town halls, working with relevant external vendors.
- Collaborating with legislative staff to prepare talking points and background for the Congresswoman.
- Other duties as assigned.

The ideal candidate will be an exceptionally strong writer, able to adapt to the Congresswoman's voice and needs, willing and able to effectively incorporate AI tools into their writing, and be a team player who is eager to collaborate with colleagues. Florida ties are a bonus. This is not an entry level position. Professional, full-time experience is required.

The starting salary range is $95,000 - $115,000 annually, commensurate with experience. Salary includes a generous benefits package, including health, vision, and dental insurance, paid vacation days and sick time, student loan repayment, and transit benefits.

Interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, and writing sample at tinyurl.com/FrankelCD. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and are due by 5:00 PM on Thursday, July 30.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-234-26

The Committee on Energy and Commerce Democratic staff seeks a Policy Analyst to join the Commerce, Manufacturing, and Trade Subcommittee and the Communications and Technology Subcommittee. Excellent writing, verbal, and organization skills, a high attention to detail, and a solid understanding of the legislative process are essential attributes. Additionally, the ability to thrive under pressure, meet strict deadlines, and manage multiple priorities are key. This is not an entry-level position.

Essential Job Duties

- Manage clerical and administrative responsibilities for hearings and markups, including but not limited to:
 - distributing committee documents
 - tracking member and staff attendance
 - submitting documents for the record
 - tracking recorded votes
 - editing hearing transcripts
 - collecting and formatting questions for the record
 - communicating with the Republican staff and Democratic member offices
- Field inquiries and act as the liaison between on and off committee member offices, outside stakeholders, and subcommittee staff.
- Track relevant new bills in the subcommittee's jurisdiction.
- Take diligent notes for briefings, hearings, or meetings to distribute to staff.
- Assist subcommittee staff on a wide range of projects, including legislative research.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, three references, and a short writing sample with “CAT/CMT Policy Analyst 2026” in the subject line to ECD.jobs@mail.house.gov. Applications are due on July 31, 2026. No calls or drop-ins, please.

MEM-229-26

Scheduler – Rep. LaMonica McIver (NJ-10)

The office of Congresswoman LaMonica McIver (NJ-10) seeks an experienced and organized individual to serve as Scheduler in her Washington, D.C. office. The Scheduler must be detail-oriented, communicative and able to excel in a fast-paced work environment. Ideal candidates will have scheduling experience with a congressional office, political campaign or similarly dynamic organization.

The Scheduler will manage the member's daily and long-term itinerary, arrange travel, organize and evaluate all invitations and meeting requests with the input of senior staff, correspond with constituents and stakeholders, assist with reimbursements, coordinate closely with the full team to strategically build the member's schedule, and execute relevant office operations. This role reports to the Chief of Staff, but works closely with the entire team.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status or parental status. Salary is commensurate with experience.

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter as one PDF document to NJ10Jobs@gmail.com with the subject line "Scheduler_[LAST NAME]." Applications reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-226-26

Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz seeks an organized and motivated self-starter to serve as Scheduler in her fast-paced Washington, D.C. office. Candidates are expected to keep the Congresswoman's schedule updated, respond to and process invitations for meetings and events in a timely manner, and manage the Congresswoman's travel plans and logistics.

The Scheduler will work closely with the Chief of Staff, District Director, Legislative Director and Communications Director, and other duties as assigned. The incumbent will have the opportunity to work with every part of the operation and will be needed to work some nights and weekends as needed.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Maintains a good working relationship with the Member, staff and constituents;
- Prepares the daily schedule for the Member, and distributes copies to the Washington, D.C. and district offices;
- Prepares projected schedules for the Member and FL-25 Team;
- Briefs the Member on all scheduling activities for the Washington, D.C. and district offices and makes recommendations to improve efficiency;
- Schedules all staff meetings and briefings involving the Member;
- Coordinates scheduling of press interviews and recordings with the Comms Team;
- Makes reservations for the Member's air travel, ground transportation, and lodging;
- Reviews the Member's mail and invitations;

- Responds to all invitations, either by personal call or written correspondence;
- Ensures that the Member is provided with briefing materials for events and meetings by coordinating with relevant staff (briefing materials include group information, legislative background, talking points, logistical information, attendee bios, etc.);
- Monitors the Member's incoming telephone calls in a telephone log, takes messages, and returns calls as requested;
- Work with Member to maintain some files, including all travel receipts, relevant correspondence, acknowledgements and thank you letters.
- Along with rest of staff, acts as a liaison for constituents and other individuals when they visit the Member;
- Along with rest of staff, acts as a liaison between the Member and other Members, committee staff, White House, and government offices and agencies to arrange for the Member's attendance at meetings or to coordinate travel plans;
- Accepts performance-based criticism and direction; and
- Meets attendance requirements as established by the office.

Requirements & Qualifications:

- Exceptional research, writing, and editing skills are essential.
- Familiarity with IQ is a plus.
- Previous Hill experience is required.
- Florida ties are preferred.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: To apply, send in a single PDF with a resume, a cover letter, and three references (including name, current title and organization, phone number, email, and relationship to the reference) to FL25Resume@mail.house.gov, with the following subject line: “Full Name – Scheduler.”

If interested, please apply by Tuesday, July 21, 2026. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status, sexual orientation, and gender identity), disability, age, or national origin.

MEM-225-26

Congressman Glenn Ivey has an immediate need to hire an experienced Caseworker for the Landover District Office in a full-time capacity. Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a resume and cover letter by July 30, 2026. Once the application period closes, the office will contact the best-qualified candidates to begin our interview process.

Job Expectations:

The Caseworker plays an important role by serving as a liaison to the federal government on behalf of the Member's constituents. The Caseworker will handle a portfolio of issue areas, including but not limited to Social Security, OPM, Immigration, and IRS on behalf of the Member. The Caseworker will also work closely with the District Chief of Staff, other caseworkers and the outreach team to provide outstanding service to the Member's constituents. The Caseworker is also responsible for answering casework correspondence and verbal communications with constituents. Occasional evening and weekend work hours and occasional travel throughout the district may be required

Salary Level/Range: $50,000-$60,000 commensurate with experience

Job Duties:

- Serves as a liaison with federal government entities for individual constituent concerns
- Monitors casework trends to provide updates to the Member and District Chief
- Prepares incoming and outgoing constituent casework to manage casework in assigned areas of expertise
- Maintains accurate and complete files on all assigned casework to keep track of all casework progress
- Screens and monitors cases to determine if referring the case to other government entities is appropriate
- Answers casework correspondence, meets with constituents, and serves as a liaison with federal, state, and local authorities to act as the representative for the Member within their areas of responsibility
- Attends community meetings and supports public events
- Writes responses to constituent letters relating to casework to answer questions or inform them of case progress
- Organizes workload to prioritize tasks in accordance with varying deadlines and ensure work is completed in an efficient and effective manner

Featured Skills:

- Attention to Detail: Performs work thoroughly and accurately; acts conscientiously when attending to detail.
- Constituent/Stakeholder Service-Driven: Anticipates and meets constituents' needs. Delivers high-quality products and services.
- Interpersonal Skills: Develops and maintains effective relationships with others from diverse backgrounds and in different situations. Shows understanding, courtesy, tact, empathy, and politeness.

Teamwork: Encourages and facilitates cooperation, pride, trust, and group identity. Fosters commitment and team spirit; works with others to achieve goals.

Written Communication: Writes in a clear, concise, organized, and convincing manner for the intended audience.

Preferences:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and experience
- Social Work degree or similar strongly preferred
- Prior experience working for federal, state, or local government, especially related to casework, is preferred
- Experience handling sensitive information and maintaining confidentiality is preferred
- Ties to Maryland's Fourth District
- Bilingual proficiency (Spanish)
- Access to personal transportation

Applicant Instructions:

All interested candidates are encouraged to submit a cover letter, resume, and a one page writing sample as a single PDF titled Full Name-Caseworker by 6 pm on July 30, 2026, to md04resumes@gmail.com

Notice:

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin.

MEM-224-26

Representative Raúl Ruiz, M.D. is a Senior Member of the Energy and Commerce Committee and former Chair of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus. The Office of Representative Ruiz seeks a Legislative Assistant to lead a portfolio focused on health policy and other issues as assigned in his Washington, D.C. office. The Legislative Assistant will support the Congressman's work on the Energy and Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Health. This is not an entry-level position. Salary is commensurate with experience; the office offers competitive and comprehensive benefits.

The Legislative Assistant will work closely with the Legislative Director and Chief of Staff to develop and execute a coordinated legislative strategy across health and assigned issue areas. The ideal candidate is highly motivated, detail-oriented, and able to work under pressure while meeting deadlines in a fast-paced environment. Candidates with ties to California are encouraged to apply.

Qualifications

Ideal candidates will have:

- A bachelor's degree or equivalent relevant experience.
- Either 2–3 years of Capitol Hill experience or relevant health policy experience.

- Strong written and oral communication skills, including demonstrated ability to draft legislation, amendments, talking points, briefing materials, and memoranda.
- Familiarity with the congressional committee process, including preparation for and staffing of hearings and markups.
- Knowledge of federal health policy, including issues within the jurisdiction of the Energy and Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Health.
- Demonstrated ability to manage a legislative portfolio and develop proactive policy strategy in coordination with leadership staff.
- Ability to work collaboratively with communications and district teams and to engage effectively with constituent groups, advocacy organizations, and agency officials.
- Strong attention to detail and the ability to manage competing priorities in a fast-paced environment.
- California ties are a plus.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Lead the Congressman's legislative portfolio on health policy and other assigned issue areas.
- Support the Congressman's work on the Energy and Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Health, including preparing for and staffing committee hearings and markups.
- Work with the Legislative Director and Chief of Staff to develop and execute a coordinated health care legislative strategy.
- Draft legislation, amendments, and cosponsor recruitment materials.
- Write talking points, briefing materials, and memoranda pertaining to assigned issue areas.
- Monitor policy developments across the assigned portfolio and proactively flag emerging issues for leadership.
- Work closely with the communications and district teams to advance the Congressman's health policy priorities.
- Interact with key constituent groups and stakeholders, including patient advocates, health care providers, insurers, and federal agency officials.
- Perform additional duties as assigned by the Legislative Director and Chief of Staff.

How To Apply

All interested candidates are encouraged to submit a resume and cover letter with "Legislative Assistant: Last Name" as the subject line to CA25resumes@mail.house.gov

Equal Opportunity Statement

This office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, military status, parental status, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other factor or basis prohibited by applicable federal law. Applicants with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation to participate in the application or hiring processes are encouraged to request an accommodation at any time during those processes.

MEM-219-26

Congressman Rob Menendez (NJ-08) is seeking a highly motivated and collaborative Senior Advisor to join his Jersey City, New Jersey office. Title and salary are commensurate with experience.

This position is responsible for supporting the day-to-day operations of the district office; leading strategic outreach initiatives across the district; developing solutions to address the most pressing issues impacting residents; and fostering cross-departmental collaboration to advance priorities and strengthen relationships with community stakeholders. The position also provides support across the district office as needed, assisting with additional priorities and responsibilities to ensure the office operates effectively. Many of these essential job functions must be performed in-person.

The ideal candidate is passionate about serving New Jersey's 8th Congressional District and thrives in a dynamic, mission-driven environment. They enjoy designing and executing initiatives that achieve meaningful outcomes for the district and its residents. The ideal candidate is proactive, results oriented, highly organized, and able to manage multiple priorities while maintaining strong attention to detail. This position works collaboratively with the District Director and the other department leads while reporting to the Chief of Staff. Fluency in Spanish is a plus.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a cover letter, resume, and up to three references in one PDF document to nj08hiring@gmail.com with the following subject line: "Full Name – Senior Advisor."

This is a full-time position. This office offers benefits including competitive options for health, dental, vision, and life insurance; retirement match; and student loan repayment. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex (including marital or parental status), color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, pregnancy, genetic information, military status, or any other legally protected characteristic. Applicants with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation to participate in the application or hiring processes are encouraged to request an accommodation at any time during those processes.

POSITION OPENING: DISTRICT DIRECTOR

District Office | Reports to the Chief of Staff | Full-Time, Exempt

About the Office

A New Jersey Congressman is seeking a motivated District Director to run his multiple District offices spanning from the George Washington Bridge in the east to the Pennsylvania border in the west. The district is home to a thriving health care and life sciences sector, advanced manufacturers, farmers, thousands of small businesses, and more than 26,000 veterans.

The office is built around a relentless commitment to constituent service, lowering costs for Jersey Families, and delivering results through bipartisan problem-solving. We are looking for a District Director who shares that commitment and can lead our district operation with energy, discipline, and heart.

Summary

The District Director is essential to leading the strategy, direction, and implementation of the Member's vision across Northern Jersey in partnership with the legislative and communications teams. This position is responsible for overseeing the effective delivery of immediate and long-term constituent services, outreach development, grants delivery, and stakeholder engagement. The District Director represents the Member at events and meetings throughout the district and serves as a liaison to federal, state, and local government entities, as well as community stakeholders.

This position oversees district office operations, the Member's district schedule, the assignment of responsibilities, and staff performance, and manages a team of up to six staff members. The role requires excellence in coalition building, interpersonal communication, written and oral communication, community engagement, and staff and project management. The District Director serves as the Member's senior staffer in the district, reports to the Chief of Staff, and works closely with the Legislative Director and Communications Director.

Essential Job Functions

- Leadership and Team Management
- Leads and manages the district team to carry out the Member's vision and priorities.
- Directly supervises up to eight employees in accordance with office policy and applicable laws.
- Sets staff expectations and ensures compliance with high office standards, policies, and protocols.
- Builds staffing capacity by interviewing, hiring, and training district office employees.

- Handles formal staff evaluations, appraises performance, and provides constructive feedback.
- Directs district efforts by assigning projects and providing guidance for implementation.
- Constituent Services, Outreach, and Grants
- Oversees the Outreach, Constituent Services, and Casework teams to ensure their efforts align with the Member's strategic vision, goals, and priorities.
- Guides the Outreach Liaison and team in developing, implementing, and evaluating the district strategic outreach plan to maximize the Member's exposure and community engagement.
- Guides the Constituent Services and Casework teams to secure timely and accessible resources and services for constituents.
- Advocates for constituent and stakeholder needs with federal, state, and local agencies.
- Ensures the effective implementation of district roundtables, town halls, meetings, tours, corridor walks, and similar engagements.
- Stakeholder and Intergovernmental Relations
- Represents the Member and meets with groups and stakeholders on the Member's behalf.
- Serves as the lead to the New Jersey Congressional Delegation offices, as well as other federal, state, and local government partners, for joint local efforts.
- Acts as a liaison to stakeholders, coalitions, constituents, and government agencies to develop and maintain effective, positive relationships.
- Identifies and maintains strong partnership opportunities with coalition and cross-jurisdictional offices.
- Meets regularly with stakeholders to gather insight and recommendations on constituent services, policy development, and community impact.
- Coordination with the Washington Team
- Collaborates with Washington, D.C. staff to ensure district priorities, needs, and relevant updates inform the Member's legislative and communications strategy.
- Works in partnership with the Communications Team to promote district efforts and relevant news, and to inform website, mail, and digital content.
- Works in partnership with the Legislative Team to guide community-based policy development and facilitate information sharing across offices.
- Drives annual district goals in collaboration with the Member and district team.
- Operations, Planning, and Reporting
- Approves and guides the process for district-related written materials, including event proposals, talking points, memos, guides, resources, social media, and flyers.
- Oversees the Intern program and works in partnership to review and approve staff scheduling requests, stakeholder invitations, office purchases, security plans, and district operations.

- Guides the district team to build out a yearly calendar of events, workshops, trainings, satellite hours, and staffing.
- Prepares periodic reports for the Chief of Staff and Member with updates on district efforts (at minimum, mid-year and end-of-year).
- Understands and navigates differing perspectives to resolve conflicts and develop solutions.
- Maintains a good working relationship with the Member, staff, stakeholders, and constituents, and undertakes other duties as needed.

Education and Experience

- At least four years of leadership, staff management, or supervisory experience in government, civic engagement, campaigns, non-profit, policy, or community outreach.
- At least one year of experience in a government office or agency at any level of government is strongly preferred.
- A post-secondary degree is not required, but is preferred.
- Familiarity with Northern Jersey communities, stakeholders, and local government is a significant plus.
- Proficiency in an additional language spoken across the district, such as Spanish or Korean, is a plus.

Skills and Knowledge Required

- Ability to perform the essential job functions above, and a demonstrated willingness to take initiative.
- Knowledge of House, legislative, and communications operations, and demonstrated political acumen, a plus.
- Strong oral and written communication skills.
- Strong leadership and organizational skills to motivate and manage a district team.
- Temperament to communicate with a variety of personalities in a tactful, pleasant, and professional manner.
- Ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment in fulfilling casework responsibilities, outreach efforts, and stakeholder engagement.
- Experience handling sensitive information and maintaining confidentiality.
- Thoroughness and careful attention to detail.
- Understanding of office policies, practices, and procedures.
- Thorough knowledge of local, state, and federal agencies and departments.
- Understanding of the issues and events in the district in which the Member is involved.
- Ability to capture, analyze, and synthesize large amounts of information.
- Proficiency with standard office computer applications.

Working Conditions

- Duties require work during regular office hours, as well as some nights and weekends.
- Employee must be able to drive and hold a valid driver's license (driving self and Member as needed).
- Employee must be able to work in a moderately noisy and crowded environment without an expectation of privacy.
- Travels throughout the district at regular intervals to stay abreast of local concerns (at least half of working hours).
- Accepts performance-based criticism and direction.

How to Apply

Interested candidates should submit a resume and cover letter to Jobs@mail.house.gov with the subject line “District Director.” Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. No phone calls, please.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The employer is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity, or pregnancy), national origin, age, disability, military or veteran status, or any other basis protected by applicable law. Candidates from diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged

MEM-214-26

Western Conservative Member seeks an energetic and proactive Press Assistant/Secretary with excellent writing skills to serve in the Member's Washington, D.C., office. The candidate will work directly with the Member, Chief of Staff, Deputy Chief of Staff, and Legislative team to communicate the Member's policy goals and drive a cohesive message.

Primary responsibilities include:

- Working with key staff to develop and implement a comprehensive communications and media strategy that promotes the Member's policies and priorities.
- Drafting press releases, speeches, e-newsletters, talking points, and other messaging as assigned.
- Managing all social media channels, including the official website, and creating digital content.
- Assisting the Chief of Staff and Deputy Chief of Staff with the Member's franked communications portfolio, including tele-town halls, newsletters, targeted emails, and mailers.
- Pitching and fielding a high volume of press requests to engage the media in the Member's activities.
- Building relationships with local and national reporters to book the Member for media appearances.

- Assisting in preparing the Member for all interviews (including TV, radio, and print) and other public appearances.
- Compiling daily press clips for distribution to office staff.

Exceptional writing, editing, and proofreading skills are required. Western ties and prior experience on Capitol Hill are preferred but not required. The position is based in the Washington, D.C., office. Title and compensation are commensurate with experience.

Please submit a resume, cover letter, 2 writing samples and references to Ally Hibben at ally.hibben@mail.house.gov with the Subject Line: Full Name, Press Assistant Candidate

MEM-209-26

Congresswoman Emilia Sykes seeks a Communications Director to serve in her Washington, D.C. office. Candidates must be proactive, possess superior written and oral communication skills, boast excellent leadership qualities, and be able to execute a robust communications strategy.

This is not an entry-level position. Only candidates with prior political or legislative communications experience will be considered.

Primary responsibilities:

- Creating and executing a robust communications plan;
- Establishing and maintaining relationships with Ohio, national, and D.C.-based media;
- Advancing press events and staffing the Member as needed, including occasional night and weekend commitments;
- Drafting and distributing press releases, statements, and media advisories;
- Creating, editing, and strategically placing op-eds;
- Overseeing the development of social media content creation, including rapid response;
- Managing a franked communications plan including text messages, e-newsletters, digital ads, radio ads, 499s, mailers, etc;
- Pitching to reporters and producers, responding to press inquiries, and serving as the main point-of-contact for media;
- Updating the website as needed;
- Managing the Press Secretary; and
- Performing other duties as assigned.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

To apply, please send a resume, three references, and two writing samples in one pdf to JoinTeamSykes@mail.house.gov with the following subject line: Full Name – Communications Director.

MEM-208-26

The Office of Congressman Joaquin Castro (TX-20) seeks a creative Digital Manager/Director to join his fast-paced three-person communications team. The candidate will work closely with the Member, Communications Director, and Press & Digital Assistant to carry out the Office's digital media strategy. The ideal candidate has a passion for digital communications and a proven track record of creating compelling content.

Job Responsibilities:

- Work with the communications team to develop and implement the office's digital content strategy.
- Produce timely content tied to legislative activity, hearings, press conferences, and key policy and news moments.
- Pitch and coordinate with creators and new media to schedule interviews, direct-to-cameras, and other digital opportunities.
- Track digital performance metrics and recommend growth strategies.
- Clip TV appearances, floor speeches, and other video content for social media.
- Draft newsletters paid digital ads, and other franked materials.
- Draft scripts, talking points, and speeches for videos, livestreams, and DTCs.
- Monitor news and social media to identify emerging news developments.
- Manage and maintain the Office's official website, digital technology, and digital archives.
- Staffing events (press conferences, interviews, podcasts, etc.).
- Other communications and office-related tasks as needed.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Ability to craft compelling digital content across formats and platforms.
- Proficiency in video editing and graphic design using Canva, Adobe Premiere Pro, or equivalent tools.
- Deep familiarity with major platforms, creator networks, and emerging trends.
- Detail-oriented, proactive, and comfortable working in a fast-paced environment.
- Strong organizational skills with the ability to manage multiple projects, priorities, and deadlines.
- Spanish language proficiency is preferred. This is not an entry-level position and occasionally requires working nights and weekends. Position based out of Washington, DC, or San Antonio, Texas.

To Apply:

To apply, please email Castro.Resumes@mail.house.gov with “Digital – [Name]” in the subject line and the following application materials attached as one combined PDF.

Cover Letter

Resume

One Writing Sample

One Digital/Creative Sample

We will consider applicants on a rolling basis.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

MEM-207-26

The Committee on Ethics has an opening for a Staff Assistant. Duties include assisting the technology needs of Committee staff; editing and maintaining the Committee’s website; answering telephones; assisting with the tracking and processing of committee correspondence; providing administrative support in setting up committee meetings; and entering data and navigating databases with accuracy. This is a non-partisan position which requires the ability to serve all Members of Congress equally and refrain from political or partisan activity. Applicants must have excellent organizational skills and a professional telephone manner; good computer skills; proficiency in Microsoft Word and Excel; ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others; ability to use good judgment in responding to inquiries and requests; and flexibility in assisting with daily tasks and projects. This is an entry level position with a starting salary of $55,420 per year.

Please email cover letter and resume with “Staff Assistant” in the subject line to ethicsjobs@mail.house.gov

NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE.

MEM-200-26

The Legislative Director serves as the Member’s chief policy advisor and leader of the office’s Legislative Team. The Legislative Director’s primary responsibilities are to manage the Legislative Team, advise the Member on legislation, and direct the development of policy positions and legislative initiatives.

Requirements:

- The position is based in the Washington, DC office. Regular, predictable attendance is required for performance of duties, including in-person supervision of legislative staff and providing rapid response to urgent legislative issues.
- Has strong expertise, strategic judgment, leadership skills, and a working knowledge of Capitol Hill.
- Ability to communicate effectively with the Member and staff, members of the public, representatives from other offices, outside organizations, and others.
- Ability to attend in-person meetings with constituents and stakeholders.
- Ability to represent the Member in-person including speaking on behalf of the office and participating in discussions regarding legislative strategy.
- Frequently engage in public-facing interactions with Members of Congress and their staffs; political, industry, government, and state leaders; and members of the public, including constituents.
- Ability to work long and unpredictable hours, weekends and holidays, as needed.
- Travels as necessary for performance of duties. Driver's license strongly preferred.
- Ability to prioritize and perform duties under pressure in a fast-paced environment.
- Regularly use typical office equipment, software programs, and methods of communication, including, for example, a computer, email, telephone, smartphone, photocopier, etc.

Duties:

- Ensures that the Legislative Team is properly focused on the Member's legislative and policy goals.
- Handles long-term and short-term legislative planning for the Member. Recommends strategies and tactics on bills and positions. Works with the Member, Chief of Staff, and Legislative Assistants to formulate positions on legislative issues.
- Manages, trains, supervises, and assigns areas of responsibility to the Legislative Team. Assigns tasks, sets deadlines, and establishes workflows for the Legislative Team.
- Directs legislative staff meetings.
- Reviews, provides feedback, and approves legislative actions, letters, memos, and constituent correspondence.
- Provides technical analysis of pending legislation, legislative developments on policy issues; recommends strategies and tactics on bills and amendments; and maintains up-to-date status reports on legislation.
- Crafts vote recommendations for the Member's consideration on a regular basis and reports legislative activity to the Member and Chief of Staff.
- Drafts bills and amendments. Drafts memos to the Member and staff on policy topics, relevant issues, and recommended actions.
- Identifies oversight opportunities related to federal programs and agencies.

- With respect to hearings, coordinates the preparation of witness lists, drafts background memos and questions for witnesses, edits transcripts, and ensures that relevant materials are submitted for the hearing record.
- Advises and assists the Member during House floor debate, including preparing floor statements, talking points, and rebuttals to opposing arguments.
- Acts as a liaison with Committees, House and Senate staff, government agencies, and outside groups. Negotiates with staff from other offices and agencies regarding amendments and other legislative developments.
- Engages with constituents, stakeholder groups, and other parties. Builds and maintains relationships with constituents, advocacy organizations, federal agencies, and industry stakeholders. Meets with constituents and outside groups.
- Tracks constituent concerns and integrates feedback into policy strategy.
- Attends briefings, hearings, and stakeholder events on behalf of the office.
- Identifies, develops, and proposes opportunities to advance the Member's priorities.
- Coordinates with Communications Team on press releases, op-eds, talking points.
- Coordinates with the Operations Team on scheduling and long-term planning.
- Coordinates with the District office team on stakeholder outreach, policy/casework crossover, federal grants, and other projects. Provides information about policy and activity in Washington, DC.
- Completes projects assigned by the Member and Chief of Staff.

Standards of Excellence:

- Performs all duties of the LD role.
- Develops a positive reputation (for oneself and the Member) amongst internal and external stakeholders
- Develops an organic understanding and comprehensive knowledge of issues within our portfolio.
- Has comprehensive knowledge of the Congressional District
- Participates in professional development activities.
- Provides deliverables accurately and meets deadlines.
- Pays close attention to detail.
- Conducts oneself professionally.
- Is ready and willing to assist other members of the Legislative Team and office staff.
- Creatively solves problems.
- Thinks of new ideas.
- Builds relationships with Congressional staff and stakeholders.

Interested applicants may submit their resume and cover letter to FloodHiring@mail.house.gov.

MEM-196-26

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Congressman Ro Khanna's office in Washington, DC has an immediate opening for an Operations Assistant help manage office operations, help drive and staff the member in Washington, DC (including occasional evenings and weekends), manage the DC intern program and work closely with the member, management, and the scheduling team on office operations, and other administrative duties for the office.

This is a non-supervisory, exempt position. The starting salary is $71,000 per year. The application process may include several interviews and a practical test of relevant skills. There is one current job vacancy, and the office has the right to fill any number of positions vacant or becoming vacant during the life of postings.

Successful candidates are consummate team players, strong writers, adept at making sound judgment calls and thinking quickly at a moment's notice, and being exceptionally organized self-starters. It is preferred that candidates have a valid driver's license, daily access to a vehicle, and a good driving record.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

- Perform administrative duties that facilitate logistical operations, such as overseeing equipment and supplies, assisting with office administration, as well as answering phones, logging calls and helping to serve walk-in constituents.
- Drive and staff the member in Washington, DC (including occasional evenings and weekends),
- Work with fellow staff members on a variety of tasks and projects that directly benefit our constituents.
- Anticipate and stay up to date on schedule changes/obstacles and help communicate them to Rep. Khanna and staff.
- Special project coordination and helping the team manage events hosted by the Congressman, such as issues-based forums and roundtable meetings.
- Lead the office's intern program and train and mentor student interns.
- Assist the communications team with clipping TV appearances, committee hearings, and other video content for social media and with maintaining press lists.
- Assist the legislative team with memos, research, and bill recommendations.

EDUCATION (OR EQUIVALENT EXPERIENCE): A bachelor's degree with strong academic credentials, or equivalent experience/training in legislation or public service (e.g., casework, constituent service, community outreach) is required.

SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED:

- Ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others (both co-workers and constituents). Past customer service experience is strongly preferred.
- Strong oral and written communication skills, as well as public speaking experience.

- Professional telephone manner and temperament to communicate with a variety of personalities in a tactful, pleasant, and professional manner.
- Familiarity with video editing and social media platforms.
- Thoroughness, organizational skills, and careful attention to detail.
- Ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment in fulfillment of casework responsibilities.
- Knowledge of office policies, practices, and procedures; office computer applications; and proficiency in word processing.

WORK CONDITIONS, SCHEDULE and BENEFITS:

- The Operations Assistant is a represented position, eligible to join the Congressional Workers Union.
- The Operations Assistant reports to the Chief of Staff.
- Work is mainly performed in an office environment. Noise levels are usually low to moderate. Staff may have small workstations.
- Work schedule: The Washington, DC office functions on a hybrid basis, with each staff member expected to be present when needed to staff the Congressman and take meetings. In addition, staff are expected to be monitoring for any scheduling issues that could arise outside of normal work hours. Commensurate flex time (time off during the week) within proscribed standards will be granted upon request.
- Benefits: Staff currently accrue 1.25 days of annual leave per month, which totals 15 days per year (6 of which may be carried over to the following year). 15 annual Sick/Mental Health Days are granted at the start of each year. Flex time is also allowed for necessities such as emergencies, medical appointments, short-term needs, etc. Other benefits include the opportunity to participate in group health insurance, retirement savings, a potential annual bonus, etc.

TO APPLY: The Office of U.S. Congressman Ro Khanna is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate based on race, color, religion or lack thereof, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, marital or family status, disability, arrest history, military service, organizing activity, or any ground that is specifically prohibited by law or regulation applicable to the Office; all are welcome and encouraged to apply. Note that all successful candidates must meet citizenship-related requirements and undergo a security check. Please e-mail a cover letter, brief writing sample and resume to ca17jobs@gmail.com

