Digital Director / Press Secretary - MEM-270-26

Digital Director / Press Secretary — Congresswoman Lois Frankel (FL-22)

The Office of Congresswoman Lois Frankel (FL-22), Ranking Member of the House Appropriations National Security and Department of State Subcommittee (formerly SFOPS), is seeking an experienced Digital Director/Press Secretary with exceptional writing skills and digital expertise to join her team. This is a full-time, in-person position based in Washington, D.C. or Delray Beach, FL.

Responsibilities include:

- Drafting digital content across the Congresswoman's social media platforms and website;
- Taking and editing photos and videos of the Congresswoman;
- Advising spending on paid digital media, including social media ads and boosted posts and managing external vendors.
- Executing regular press conferences in close coordination with district and legislative staff, including pitching topics, identifying guests, coordinating memos, drafting media advisories and remarks, and conducting direct personal outreach to media outlets.
- Drafting press releases and newsletters;
- Fielding press inquiries;
- Other duties as assigned.

The ideal candidate will be an exceptionally strong writer, have high proficiency in digital media, be able to build and maintain relationships with reporters, be able to adapt to the Congresswoman's voice and needs, be willing and able to effectively incorporate AI tools into their writing, and be a team player who is eager to collaborate with colleagues. Florida ties are a bonus. This is not an entry level position. Professional, full-time experience is required.

The starting annual salary range is $70,000 - $85,000. Exact title and salary commensurate with experience. Salary includes a generous benefits package, including health, vision, and dental insurance, paid vacation days and sick time, student loan repayment, and transit benefits.

Interested candidates should submit a resume, writing sample, and graphics and photography portfolio at tinyurl.com/FrankelDD. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply ASAP. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until Wednesday, September 9 at 11:59 PM ET.

The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Mid-to-Senior Legislative Staff - MEM-269-26

U.S. Congressman Ed Case (Hawai'i - 01) is seeking a mid-to-senior legislative staff member for his Washington, D.C. office.

Primary responsibilities include the full range of management of a diverse and active portfolio of substantive issues, to include foreign affairs. Specific duties include advising, briefing and staffing the Congressman on assigned issues, preparing and advancing related appropriations requests, monitoring and advancing related committee matters (including the Congressman's Appropriations Committee, where legislative staff are assigned one or more subcommittees) and full House activities, advancing legislative initiatives, drafting constituent correspondence, and representing the office in meetings with constituents and others. Direct report is to the Chief of Staff, although the Congressman is routinely involved in all aspects of his office operations and there is routine direct interaction with the Congressman.

The position also requires initiative, interpersonal skills, the ability to multitask, work independently and effectively under pressure, make decisions and solve problems, orientation to detail, excellent verbal communication and writing skills, and long hours especially adjusting to changing time zones.

Strong preference given to commensurate Capitol Hill experience, and Hawai'i background and knowledge is highly valued though not required. Applicants are asked to detail these attributes.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, three references and two short writing samples to HI01resumes@gmail.com with "DC Legislative Staffer" in the subject line. Please, no phone calls, faxes or drop-ins.
