

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service

Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Internship Openings

Week of May 26, 2026

MEM-164-26

The Office of U.S. Representative Mark Takano (CA-39) seeks legislative and communications interns to serve for the Fall of 2026 in the Representative's Washington, D.C. office.

Interns will work with the D.C.-based staff performing legislative, communications, and administrative work. Tasks include answering phones, sorting and drafting responses to constituent correspondence, attending briefings and hearings, performing legislative research, drafting communications material, and supporting staff members on various projects. Ideal candidates should be professional and possess excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, and a commitment to public service and progressive values. All interns will be paid a monthly stipend of $1500.

The Office of Representative Mark Takano is an equal opportunity employer. Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, new Americans, people with disabilities, and members of other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. State and/or district ties (Riverside, CA) are a plus.

The application period for Fall 2026 internships is now open and will grant offers on a rolling basis until August 1st.

Interested applicants should go to takano.house.gov/services/internships and follow all instructions in order to apply.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Office Description:

The House Office of the Legislative Counsel provides legislative drafting services to the committees and Members of the United States House of Representatives on a non-partisan, impartial, and confidential basis. Our goal is to work with committees and Members to understand their policy preferences in order to implement those preferences through clear, concise, and legally effective legislative language.

Position Description:

The House Office of the Legislative Counsel (HOLC) is looking to hire up to five Summer Associates to start in June of 2027. Appointments to all positions in HOLC are made without regard to personal political affiliation and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the work. The House Office of the Legislative Counsel (HOLC) is looking to hire up to five Summer Associates to start in June of 2027. Appointments to all positions in HOLC are made without regard to personal political affiliation and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the work.

Summer Associates assists Attorneys at HOLC of the United States House of Representatives, and its Committees and Members, in drafting legislation and performing related legal functions on a nonpartisan basis. The legal issues encountered in furnishing this assistance involve constitutional, statutory, and administrative law questions, as well as questions in other fields of Federal law. A Summer Associate performs the following duties:

- Drafts legislation and prepares bills according to statutory style and format standards.
- Drafts bills and amendments at each stage of the legislative process, from introduction through conference.
- Analyzes policy proposals, engages with clients, applies relevant legal principles and court decisions, and conducts research as necessary to prepare effective statutory language.
- Advises clients regarding the legal effect and constitutionality of proposed legislative measures in the context of existing laws and legislative procedure.
- Attends sessions of a subcommittee and full committee of the House and of a conference committee between the House and the Senate; may respond as requested to questions from legislators and legislative staff; may assist members by being present to provide drafting assistance to members on the House Floor.
- May communicate with various stakeholders, at the request of the Member or Committee, as necessary to draft legislation.

- After gaining necessary experience in these duties and responsibilities, trains newly hired attorneys, provide mentorship to team members, and may assume a leadership role on teams.
- On a volunteer basis, may assist with office management initiatives to promote the effective operation of the office.
- Performs related duties as assigned

The ideal candidate should have a desire to work in nonpartisan public service and a strong academic background. The ideal candidate should actively and enthusiastically embrace and promote the HOLC's work culture, develop effective working relationships with other attorneys and employees, and strive to provide exceptional service to clients.

Ideal candidates will have knowledge of legal principles, applications, and practices of law, as well as basic knowledge of fundamental subjects of law and legal research procedures. Strong written and oral communication skills, and the ability to remain impartial at all times with respect to the policies to be incorporated into a legislative proposal are a must for this position. The ability to analyze complex problems and handle difficult situations as they arise with judgment, tact, and discretion, as well as excellent problem-solving skills, and a strong interest in learning within a high-performing environment are all key characteristics of a successful Summer Associate.

Qualifications:

HOLC also has a summer associate program. The summer program is available to law students only during the summer before their last year in an accredited law school and may lead to an offer of full-time employment upon completion of law school, depending on performance and the needs of HOLC. Summer Associates, working under close supervision, are expected to perform similar duties to that of the full-time Attorneys, with the understanding Summer Associates will work for a minimum of six weeks, and with the assignment ending by the beginning of August.

All applicants must be United States Citizen.

To be considered for this exceptional career opportunity, submit your résumé, cover letter, a legal writing sample of no more than 10 pages, a copy of your law school transcript, and the names, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three references. Either your cover letter or résumé should indicate your citizenship.

Within the cover letter, please directly answer the following questions:

1. What specifically interests you about this position and why would you like to work with the House Office of the Legislative Counsel (HOLC)?
2. Have you held an internship, fellowship, or similar position (paid or unpaid) in a partisan office? If so, did you seek out the placement, or were you placed there by your school or sponsoring organization? Please provide any relevant details, as well as your responsibilities.

Your résumé should reflect years and months of employment and/or relevant legal experience.

How to Apply:

Interested and qualified candidates apply here by Friday, June 5th, for consideration.

MEM-141-26

The House Committee on Oversight and Reform Democratic Staff is hiring for a paid full-time Press Intern (Summer 2026) to work in the Committee's Washington, D.C. office. The Press Intern works closely with the communications team.

Primary educational opportunities and responsibilities will include:

- Compiling daily news clips.
- Assisting with graphic design.
- Drafting press releases and other written materials.
- Copy editing written materials.
- Maintaining press lists.
- Clipping committee remarks and cable hits.
- Media monitoring and researching.

The ideal candidate must be able to work in a fast-paced environment, demonstrate keen attention to detail, understand deadlines, and have prior communications internship experience.

Interested applicants should send a one-page resume, one sample press release, one sample graphic, and three relevant sample tweets to ethan.cesar@mail.house.gov and OversightPress@mail.house.gov with “PRESS INTERN APP: Full Name, Spring 2026” in the subject line.

All qualified applicants, including candidates of diverse backgrounds, are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-118-26

The Office of U.S. Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA-07) seeks highly motivated, organized, and dedicated interns to serve for the Fall of 2026 in the Representative's Washington, D.C. office.

Interns will work primarily with D.C.-based staff performing legislative and administrative work. Tasks include answering phones, sorting and drafting responses to constituent correspondence, attending briefings and hearings, performing legislative research, and supporting staff members on various projects. Ideal candidates should be professional and possess excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, and a commitment to public service and progressive values. All interns will be paid a one-time stipend of $5,850 unless funded by an outside organization.

The Office of Representative Pramila Jayapal is an equal opportunity employer. Women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, new Americans, people with disabilities, and members of other underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply. State and/or district ties are a plus but not required.

The application period for Fall 2026 internships is now open and will close on June 30th at 11:59 PM ET.

Interested applicants should e-mail a resume, cover letter, short writing sample, three references, and availability to Jayapal.DCInternships@mail.house.gov with the subject "First Name.Last Name Internship Application."

We are an equal opportunity employer and do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. Diverse applicants encouraged to apply.

