Legislative Director - MEM-267-26

Rep. Melanie Stansbury Policy Advisor Position

Reports To: Legislative Director

Position Summary

Congresswoman Melanie Stansbury (D-NM-01) is seeking an experienced Policy Advisor and Legislative Drafter to help develop and execute priority legislative projects, with a focus on climate, water, energy, healthcare, behavioral health, housing and other topics.

The Policy Advisor will be tasked with developing policy priorities, drafting signature legislation, reports, and advancing signature projects and initiatives. The successful candidate will work closely with the Legislative Director, Legislative Assistants, and the Member to advance policy priorities, develop and draft original legislation, build bipartisan and stakeholder support, and advance a long-term legislative strategy to enact and implement legislation and policy proposals.

This is an ideal opportunity for someone who enjoys turning policy ideas into legislative proposals, leading policy projects, and helping to shape a Member's agenda and strategy.

This is not an entry-level position. Prior Hill experience and significant experience in direct legislative drafting and strategy are required.

Core Responsibilities

- Develop and execute legislative projects and initiatives in priority areas for the Member, including energy, environment, climate, water, behavioral health, rural health, and other areas as assigned.
- Research emerging policy issues and identify legislative opportunities.
- Draft original legislation and proposals, amendments, policy papers, and legislative agendas.
- Coordinate closely with House Legislative Counsel, committees, and staff on legislative drafting.
- Build and maintain relationships with relevant committee staff, executive agencies, and outside stakeholders.
- Represent the Member in meetings and monitor legislative developments as needed for assigned projects, and provide strategic recommendations.

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Required Qualifications

- At least four years of congressional, executive branch, or comparable legislative policy experience, including time in a Capitol Hill role.
- Significant demonstrated experience in legislative drafting and policy writing.
- Exceptional understanding of congressional procedure and the legislative process.
- Excellent analytical and communication skills.
- Ability to independently manage multiple long-term projects and competing priorities.
- Strong judgment, attention to detail, and organizational skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- Availability to work extended hours as congressional business requires.

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience developing original legislative proposals, translating complex policy concepts into actionable legislation, and managing long-term policy projects and strategy.
- Background or interest in healthcare, housing, climate, energy, environmental policy, and related issue areas.
- Building coalitions among stakeholders and congressional offices.
- Thinking strategically about opportunities to advance a Member's policy priorities.
- Ties to New Mexico or the Western United States, and familiarity with the communities of the 1st Congressional District of New Mexico.

Applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and three professional references in one PDF file to RepStansburyResumes@mail.house.gov with the subject line and PDF file title "Policy Advisor – Firstname Lastname" by COB Friday, September 4; applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Island County Community Liaison – MEM-255-26

The Island County Community Liaison serves as Rep. Larsen's primary representative to communities on Whidbey and Camano islands. The liaison is responsible for engaging with constituents, businesses, organized labor, nonprofit organizations, federal agencies, tribal governments and federal, state and local officials throughout Island County. The position covers a broad portfolio of federal issues, including military and veterans' affairs, service academy nominations, federal grants, housing, transportation, agriculture, outdoor recreation, access to recreation and outdoor spaces, and other matters assigned by the District Director.

The liaison is expected to build strong relationships with community stakeholders, develop a detailed understanding of local projects and policy concerns, and communicate those priorities to the Representative and office staff. The liaison will also help stakeholders understand federal policies, programs, and opportunities that affect Island County.

The position is based in Representative Larsen's Everett, Washington office and reports directly to the District Director. District staff work closely with the Washington, D.C., office, and all staff report to the Member and Chief of Staff.

Essential job functions include:

- Serve as an official representative for Rep. Larsen at meetings, forums and public events;
- Build and maintain relationships with constituents, businesses, labor, non-profit organizations, federal agencies, tribal and local government, and other stakeholders in Island County;
- Travel regularly throughout the district to monitor local issues, projects and activities;
- Work with Washington D.C.-based staff on federal policy development and help interpret federal policies for local stakeholders;
- Assist constituents and organizations in navigating federal agencies, grants and other federal resources.
- Plan and coordinate meetings, public events, site visits, and other district activities.

Desired skills and knowledge:

- Strong knowledge of Island County and North West Washington;
- Experience conducting outreach with government officials, cultural communities, the business community, organized labor and local stakeholder groups;
- Strong understanding of veteran's issues, active duty and reserve issues, as well as military organizational structures and relevant terminology;
- Ability to exercise discretion and independent thinking while working as part of a team on sensitive projects and issues;
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills and comfort with public speaking;
- Flexibility to work evenings and occasional weekends;
- A valid driver's license, reliable access to a vehicle and the ability to travel regularly throughout Island County and the congressional district;

This position provides an opportunity to be part of a hard-working, cohesive, and dynamic team with a common mission of making a difference in the lives of others. The ideal candidate is self-motivated, great at multi-tasking, has great interpersonal skills with a teamwork-oriented attitude, and has a strong desire to help people. This position requires someone who is detail oriented and organized.

This is a full-time position with federal benefits such as health care, the Federal Employees Retirement System, Student Loan Repayment Program, vacation/annual leave, paid sick and parental leave, and others.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. We are committed to building and maintaining an organization that reflects the needs of the diverse community we serve.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to cameron.caldwell@mail.house.gov as a single PDF document with the subject line “Community Liaison Application [Your Name]”

Staff Assistant – MEM-254-26

The Office of Congressman Morelle seeks a highly organized, detail-oriented, and professional individual to serve as Staff Assistant in the Washington, D.C. office.

The Staff Assistant serves as the first point of contact for constituents and visitors while working directly with the Director of Operations to support the Member’s scheduling, calendar management, and daily logistics. If you are the type of person who color-codes your calendar, thrives in a fast-paced environment, finds satisfaction in keeping people and projects organized, and is looking to grow with a collaborative team, we'd love to hear from you.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Managing the front office and ensuring constituents, visitors, and callers receive a professional, responsive, and positive experience interacting with the office.
- Coordinating Capitol tours, flag requests, and other constituent-facing administrative services.
- Supporting the Director of Operation’s scheduling program including tracking and processing meeting requests, maintaining scheduling correspondence, and coordinating calendar logistics.
- Assisting with meeting preparation, briefing materials, daily schedule logistics, and last-minute scheduling changes.
- Keeping the Member organized, prepared, and on schedule throughout the day.
- Collaborating with the Chief of Staff and Director of Operations on scheduling strategy and office operations, including travel coordination, reimbursements, records management, stocking supplies, and administrative projects.
- Supporting the DC Intern Program.

The ideal candidate will have:

- Exceptional organizational skills and meticulous attention to detail.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- The ability to manage multiple priorities, meet deadlines, and remain calm under pressure.
- Sound judgment, professionalism, and discretion.

- A positive attitude, willingness to learn, and commitment to public service.
- Demonstrated interest in scheduling, logistics, calendar management, and office operations.
- District or New York ties are a plus but not required.

About Our Office: We work hard because the people of Rochester deserve an office that delivers. We're a collaborative, high-performing team that values initiative, humility, accountability, and kindness. Everyone is expected to pitch in, support one another, and leave their ego at the door. Our Staff Assistant is trusted with real responsibility from day one and will have the opportunity to develop meaningful scheduling and operations experience while building a career on Capitol Hill alongside teammates who genuinely enjoy working together.

To Apply: interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to NY25.resumes@mail.house.gov with “Staff Assistant - [Your Full Name]” in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. No calls or drop-ins.
