Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Member and Committee Openings

Week of September 21, 2026

Press Secretary - MEM-276-26

The Office of U.S. Representative Deborah Ross seeks a highly organized, creative, and team-oriented Press Secretary to join its team. The Press Secretary will play a critical role in shaping, branding, and maintaining the public image of the Congresswoman, requiring a combination of strong writing skills, strategic thinking, and enthusiasm for social media. This position reports to the Communications Director and is based in the Washington, D.C., office. This is not an entry-level position.

Responsibilities include:

- Drafting written materials, including press releases, remarks, speeches, talking points, and media advisories
- Leading the Congresswoman's website and newsletter program
- Managing all social media accounts and creating digital content
- Assisting with coordinating and preparing for national and local media interviews
- Staffing press events, including occasional travel to North Carolina to staff in-district events and press conferences
- Staying informed on current issues impacting the Member and the district
- Monitoring news coverage to determine how the Member and her agenda are portrayed by the media and helping the office respond quickly and effectively

Skills and knowledge required:

- Minimum of two-three years of experience in a fast-paced, political environment
- Excellent writing, editing, and proofreading skills with experience in both long and short-form writing
- Proven ability to translate complex policy issues into clear, compelling messages
- Proven ability to manage multiple priorities with speed, accuracy, and message discipline
- Comfortable operating in a high-profile, high-stakes communications environment on tight deadlines
- Fluent in social and digital media

North Carolina and/or district ties are a plus. Hill experience is also a plus. Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status or parental status.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, two writing samples, and two digital samples to Ross.applications@mail.house.gov with the subject line: [Full Name]_Press Sec Application. Applications accepted on a rolling basis.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

Policy Assistant - MEM-275-26

The Committee on Energy and Commerce Democratic staff seeks a Policy Assistant to join the Commerce, Manufacturing, and Trade Subcommittee. The ideal candidate will have at least two years of policy experience. Excellent writing, verbal, and organization skills, a high attention to detail, and a solid understanding of the legislative process are essential attributes. Additionally, the ability to thrive under pressure, meet strict deadlines, and manage multiple priorities are key. This is not an entry-level position.

Essential Job Duties

- Assist subcommittee staff with preparation for committee activity including witness interviews and preparation, member outreach and consultation, document organization, drafting member remarks, and other duties, as necessary.
- Assist subcommittee staff on stakeholder engagement, including taking meetings with a wide variety of stakeholders.
- Assist subcommittee staff on a wide range of projects, including drafting legislation and legislative research.
- Assist subcommittee staff on liaising with agency staff.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, three references, and a short writing sample with "CMT Policy Assistant 2026" in the subject line to ECD.jobs@mail.house.gov.

Applications are due on September 25, 2026. No calls or drop-ins, please. Applicants who previously applied to the "CAT/CMT Policy Analyst 2026" role will be automatically considered for this position and do not need to reapply.

Staff Assistant - MEM-273-26

The Office of Congresswoman Maggie Goodlander (NH-02) seeks a dynamic Staff Assistant to join the team in the district.

To apply, please submit your application via the application portal: Application

The Staff Assistant provides administrative, logistical, casework, and outreach support in the district office. This position manages front office operations, helps compile and maintain the Congresswoman's daily briefing book when in the district, supports interns, and assists staff in drafting memos and materials. The role also includes driving the Congresswoman to and from events as needed. The Staff Assistant ensures smooth day-to-day operations of the office and provides essential support for constituent services and events.

Core responsibilities include answering phones, greeting visitors, and managing incoming mail; logging and routing casework; compiling briefing binders, event materials, and memos for the Congresswoman; managing and supervising interns; maintaining office supplies, organization, and equipment; and performing other duties as assigned.

The ideal candidate will have excellent organizational and multitasking skills; strong written and verbal communication; and a strong attention to detail and ability to manage deadlines.

This position is based in Concord, NH with occasional district travel and may require evening/weekend support. A valid driver's license is required. Salary range is $45,000-$50,000.

Communications Director - MEM-272-26

Congresswoman Emilia Sykes seeks a Communications Director to serve in her Washington, D.C. office. Candidates must be proactive, possess superior written and oral communication skills, boast excellent leadership qualities, and be able to execute a robust communications strategy.
This is not an entry-level position. Only candidates with prior political or legislative communications experience will be considered.

Primary responsibilities:

- Creating and executing a robust communications plan;
- Establishing and maintaining relationships with Ohio, national, and D.C.-based media;
- Advancing press events and staffing the Member as needed, including occasional night and weekend commitments;
- Drafting and distributing press releases, statements, and media advisories;
- Creating, editing, and strategically placing op-eds;
- Overseeing the development of social media content creation, including rapid response;
- Managing a franked communications plan including text messages, e-newsletters, digital ads, radio ads, 499s, mailers, etc;

- Pitching to reporters and producers, responding to press inquiries, and serving as the main point-of-contact for media;
- Updating the website as needed;
- Managing the Press Secretary; and
- Performing other duties as assigned.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The office is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

To apply, please send a resume, three references, and two writing samples in one pdf to JoinTeamSykes@mail.house.gov with the following subject line: Full Name – Communications Director.

Mid-to-Senior Legislative Staff - MEM-269-26

U.S. Congressman Ed Case (Hawai‘i - 01) is seeking a mid-to-senior legislative staff member for his Washington, D.C. office.

Primary responsibilities include the full range of management of a diverse and active portfolio of substantive issues, to include foreign affairs. Specific duties include advising, briefing and staffing the Congressman on assigned issues, preparing and advancing related appropriations requests, monitoring and advancing related committee matters (including the Congressman's Appropriations Committee, where legislative staff are assigned one or more subcommittees) and full House activities, advancing legislative initiatives, drafting constituent correspondence, and representing the office in meetings with constituents and others. Direct report is to the Chief of Staff, although the Congressman is routinely involved in all aspects of his office operations and there is routine direct interaction with the Congressman.

The position also requires initiative, interpersonal skills, the ability to multitask, work independently and effectively under pressure, make decisions and solve problems, orientation to detail, excellent verbal communication and writing skills, and long hours especially adjusting to changing time zones.

Strong preference given to commensurate Capitol Hill experience, and Hawai‘i background and knowledge is highly valued though not required. Applicants are asked to detail these attributes.

To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, three references and two short writing samples to HI01resumes@gmail.com with "DC Legislative Staffer" in the subject line. Please, no phone calls, faxes or drop-ins.

Scheduler - MEM-268-26

Scheduler – Congresswoman Jennifer McClellan (VA-04)
Location: Washington, D.C.

The Office of Congresswoman Jennifer McClellan (VA-04) seeks a highly organized, detail-oriented candidate to serve as her scheduler in her Washington, D.C. office. This position reports directly to the Chief of Staff and will work closely with both the D.C. and District staff.

The scheduler will assist in developing, coordinating, and managing all aspects of the Member's schedule and logistics in D.C. and in the district. Other responsibilities include tracking, evaluating, and responding to all invitations and scheduling requests, coordinating travel for the Member, compiling her briefing materials, and providing operational support for the office.

Duties include but are not limited to facilitating Member to Member and stakeholder outreach, coordinating internal and external events, coordinating with the legislative, communications, and district teams for necessary briefing materials, overseeing coordination with other Member offices, committee staff, leadership offices, the White House, executive departments and other federal agencies, coordinating with campaign and non-official staff on non-official scheduling requests, and other tasks as assigned.

Previous scheduling or administrative experience is required. The ideal candidate will have excellent attention to detail, strong communication skills, thrive in a fast-paced work environment, and have previous Hill experience.

This position requires the ability to multitask, work well under pressure, manage conflicting requests, communicate scheduling changes to the Member, and the flexibility to respond to urgent scheduling needs outside of normal hours when necessary.

The salary range for this position is $70,000 - $80,000 and includes federal benefits such as health insurance, retirement plans, generous PTO, paid FMLA, student loan repayment assistance, transit or parking benefits, and flexible work-from-home options. To apply, please email a resume and short cover letter or statement of interest to VA04.Jobs@mail.house.gov.

This full-time position is based in her Washington, D.C. office. Congresswoman McClellan's office is an equal opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status.

COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR - MEM-263-26

Congresswoman Deborah Ross seeks an experienced and collaborative Communications Director to join her Washington, DC office. This person will serve as the office's senior communications strategist, working closely with the Congresswoman and senior staff to advance the Congresswoman's priorities. Successful candidates will have exceptional writing and editing skills, sound judgment, and strong attention to detail. This is not an entry-level position.

Responsibilities include:

- Develop and execute a comprehensive communications strategy in partnership with the Chief of Staff that advances the Congresswoman's priorities and reflects the needs and interests of the district.
- Serve as the office's primary strategic advisor on communications, messaging, media strategy, and rapid response.
- Advise the Congresswoman and senior staff on how to effectively communicate complex legislative and policy issues.
- Build and maintain strong relationships with local, regional, and national reporters and media outlets.
- Manage day-to-day press operations, including responding to media inquiries, coordinating interviews, pitching stories, and identifying opportunities for coverage.
- Draft and edit press releases, statements, talking points, op-eds, speeches, newsletters, media advisories, and other communications materials.
- Prepare the Congresswoman for interviews, press conferences, speeches, and other media appearances, including developing briefing materials and conducting media preparation.
- Manage a DC-based Press Secretary and oversee the office's digital and social media strategy.

To Apply:
Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and two writing samples to Ross.Applications@mail.house.gov with "Communications Director - [Your Full Name]" in the subject line. No phone calls or drop-ins please.

Equal Employment Opportunity
The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. Candidates of diverse experiences and backgrounds are encouraged to apply.