MEM-176-26

Rep Scott Peters (CA-50) seeks a Field Representative/Caseworker for the district office. Applicants must be detail and service oriented, have excellent organizational and communication skills, and strong computer skills. This job requires the ability to complete projects on time, manage multiple tasks simultaneously, and work well under pressure while being professional and courteous with colleagues, constituents and community members. Caseworkers handle sensitive information and, thus, must have good judgment and discretion. As a field representative, the position requires the ability to communicate on behalf of the Congressman about his work in the district and Washington D.C. Field representatives serve as the Congressman's eyes and ears within the community and must be able to hear concerns and deliver those messages to the office. High School Diploma required. Some college preferred. Knowledge of the legislative process is desirable but not required. Interest and knowledge in immigration and housing policy and San Diego ties are a plus but not required.

Candidates of diverse backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation.

To apply, please email a cover letter and resume to sdcongressjobs@gmail.com by 5pm PST on Thursday, June 11. No phone calls, emails or drop-bys.

Candidates should submit in PDF format a resume, cover letter, writing sample of 500 words or fewer, and three references (including name, title and organization, phone number, email, and relationship to the candidate) to nv03resumes@gmail.com with the following subject line: "Full Name – District Staff Assistant."

MEM-169-26

Congresswoman Maxine Dexter is a physician, a founding member of the Democratic Doctors Caucus, and one of Congress's most committed voices on healthcare, climate, immigrant rights, and working families. Her office is seeking an experienced, creative, and strategic Communications Director in her Washington, D.C. office.

This is a senior role with real creative authority. You will set the communications agenda, shape the Congresswoman's public voice, manage a small and talented team, and be a key thought partner to the Chief of Staff, Legislative Director, and District Director. The ability to maintain a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends as necessary—with the ability to flex time during slower periods—is essential. Dexter's Portland-based district is highly engaged, and her communications operation needs to match that energy. This is a fun office that moves fast, takes the work seriously, and believes that good communication is itself a form of advocacy.

This is not an entry-level position. Salary starts at $95,000 and is commensurate with experience and qualifications. The office also offers a competitive package of benefits (health insurance, student loan repayment, and more).

Responsibilities:

- Develop and execute a proactive, comprehensive communications strategy across earned media, franked communications, and social platforms.
- Draft and review floor speeches, press statements, op-eds, talking points, and social content in the Congresswoman's voice — daily, and often on deadline.
- Pitch and field press inquiries across TV, print, radio, and digital media; build and maintain strong relationships with local Oregon and national reporters.
- Manage the Congresswoman's franked communications program, including direct mail, digital advertising, mass texts, and monthly telephone town halls, ensuring full compliance with franking regulations.
- Oversee the Congresswoman's official website and newsletter program.
- Prepare the Congresswoman for press conferences and media appearances; and support field and legislative staff in preparing the Congresswoman for public events in their portfolios.
- Collaborate with legislative staff to translate bill introductions, legislative victories, and Floor activity into compelling public narratives.
- Proactively work with the District Office to publicize Oregon-based events including town halls and community conversations.
- Supervise and mentor a Digital Manager (D.C.) and part-time Press Assistant (Portland).
- Respond rapidly to breaking news at the national and district level.
- Monitor and engage emerging and new media platforms — including YouTube, Substack, and podcasts — identifying opportunities to expand the Congresswoman's reach and connect with audiences beyond traditional press.
- Support video production, graphic design, and photography — our Digital Manager leads on most content creation, but a CD who can backstop in a pinch is essential.

Application Process:

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. The office will contact the most qualified candidates to begin the interview process in June. To apply, please submit a cover letter and resume to OR03Resumes@mail.house.gov with the subject line: “Communications Director”

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, military status, marital or parental status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Digital Engagement Director

The Office of the Democratic Leader is seeking a dynamic and highly skilled Digital Engagement Director to join our communications team. The Digital Engagement Director will be primarily responsible for strategizing compelling, high-impact video, audio and visual content for the Leader's official channels across social media platforms. The Digital Engagement Director will collaborate with colleagues to relentlessly propose text-based posts as well as ideas for video and image-based platforms. Finally, the Digital Engagement Director will gather data and analytics and design strategies for increasing the Leader's reach, impact and following across platforms. The ideal candidate has experience in video editing and social media management, understands the digital media landscape and thrives in a fast-paced environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead collaborative content brainstorming and planning process on a daily, weekly and monthly basis, in addition to spotting real-time opportunities for rapid response and identifying relevant trends.
- Amplify content by identifying and engaging with aligned content creators, influencers and key voices.
- Monitor the work of House Democrats—including committee hearings, floor activity, press conferences, media interviews and events—to identify and elevate powerful moments.
- Collaborate closely with policy, press and digital colleagues to ensure content is aligned with the Leader's voice, goals and message strategy.
- Track and report engagement metrics across platforms, using data to inform ongoing content planning.

Qualifications:

- Minimum 3-5 years of relevant experience in video, audio and visual content creation for political, media or advocacy organizations.
- Expertise in editing software such as Adobe Premiere Pro, After Effects, Veed, Photoshop and Illustrator (or equivalent tools).
- Deep understanding of social media platforms, audience behaviors and platform-specific best practices.
- Strong political acumen and familiarity with Democratic priorities and the legislative process.
- Proven ability to move quickly, manage multiple projects under tight deadlines and respond in real-time to breaking news and political developments.
- Excellent judgment, storytelling instincts and a collaborative approach.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience working in a congressional, campaign or political office.

- Familiarity with analytics tools to evaluate content performance.
- Comfortable working both independently and as part of a close-knit, high-performing team.

Salary:

Competitive and commensurate with experience.

Application:

Interested applicants submit your resume and cover letter here.

Office of Congressman Donald G. Davis (NC-01)

District Office Staff Assistant

Our Vision of Service: “We aim to meet our constituents where they are, ensuring they are seen and heard in Washington, D.C., to make life better for all families and provide hope and assurance they are not forgotten.”

The Office of Congressman Donald G. Davis seeks a Staff Assistant for the district office serving North Carolina’s First Congressional District. The Staff Assistant is the first point of contact between constituents and the Congressman’s office and plays a central role in delivering responsive, high-quality service to families across eastern North Carolina. This position reports directly to the District Director.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Managing the front office: answering phones, greeting visitors, and providing a welcoming, professional first impression for every constituent.
- Intaking casework requests and routing them to the appropriate caseworker; logging constituent opinions and tracking follow-up.
- Processing incoming and outgoing mail and drafting form and individual responses to constituent correspondence in coordination with district and DC staff.
- Supporting district events, town halls, and mobile office hours, including occasional staffing of the Congressman at community functions.
- Coordinating the district internship program, including recruitment, onboarding, daily supervision, and school documentation.
- Assisting local organizations with information about federal grant opportunities and notifications as directed by senior staff.
- Providing general administrative support to the District Director and other district staff, and performing other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate is highly organized, detail-oriented, and committed to public service, with excellent written and verbal communication skills and a customer-service mindset. Applicants should be able to handle competing demands in a fast-paced environment, exercise sound judgment and discretion with sensitive constituent information, and work both independently and as part of a close-knit team. A bachelor's degree is required. Prior administrative, customer service, or government experience is preferred. A valid driver's license and access to reliable transportation are required for travel within the district. Ties to the First Congressional District is strongly preferred.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, writing sample, and at least three professional references in a single PDF to NC01resumes@gmail.com with "NC-01 District Staff Assistant" in the subject line. Due to the volume of applications, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. No phone calls, direct emails to staff, or walk-ins, please.

Office Description:

The House Office of the Legislative Counsel provides legislative drafting services to the committees and Members of the United States House of Representatives on a non-partisan, impartial, and confidential basis. Our goal is to work with committees and Members to understand their policy preferences in order to implement those preferences through clear, concise, and legally effective legislative language.

Position Description:

The House Office of the Legislative Counsel (HOLC) is looking to hire up to two full-time Attorneys. Appointments to all positions in HOLC are made without regard to personal political affiliation and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the work.

Attorneys at HOLC assist the United States House of Representatives, and its Committees and Members, in drafting legislation and performing related legal functions on a nonpartisan basis. The legal issues encountered in furnishing this assistance involve constitutional, statutory, and administrative law questions, as well as questions in other fields of Federal law. An Attorney performs the following duties:

- Drafts legislation and prepares bills according to statutory style and format standards.
- Drafts bills and amendments at each stage of the legislative process, from introduction through conference.
- Analyzes policy proposals, engages with clients, applies relevant legal principles and court decisions, and conducts research as necessary to prepare effective statutory language.
- Advises clients regarding the legal effect and constitutionality of proposed legislative measures in the context of existing laws and legislative procedure.
- Attends sessions of a subcommittee and full committee of the House and of a conference committee between the House and the Senate; may respond as requested to questions from legislators and legislative staff; may assist members by being present to provide drafting assistance to members on the House Floor.
- May communicate with various stakeholders, at the request of the Member or Committee, as necessary to draft legislation.
- After gaining necessary experience in these duties and responsibilities, trains newly hired attorneys, provides mentorship to team members, and may assume a leadership role on teams.
- On a volunteer basis, may assist with office management initiatives to promote the effective operation of the office.
- Performs related duties as assigned

The ideal candidate should have a demonstrated commitment to nonpartisan public service, a strong academic background, and an openness to long-term employment with HOLC. The ideal candidate should actively and enthusiastically embrace and promote the HOLC's work culture, develop effective working relationships with other attorneys and employees, strive to provide exceptional service to clients, and serve as an effective role model for others.

Ideal candidates will have knowledge of legal principles, applications, and practices of law, as well as basic knowledge of fundamental subjects of law and legal research procedures. Strong written and oral communication skills, and the ability to remain impartial at all times with respect to the policies to be incorporated into a legislative proposal are a must for this position. Attorneys in this office are concerned with the legislative policy only for the purpose of making sure that the bill, resolution, or amendment accurately reflects the policy of the Committee or Member for whom it is being drafted. The ability to analyze complex problems and handle difficult situations as they arise with judgment, tact, and discretion, as well as excellent problem-solving skills, and a strong interest in learning within a high-performing environment are all key characteristics of a successful Attorney.

Qualifications:

The minimum requirements for Attorneys include United States citizenship, graduation from a law school accredited by the American Bar Association prior to the commencement of employment, and some experience performing legal work, which may be satisfied by employment during law school. Active membership in the bar of a State, the District of Columbia, or a territory of the United States within one year of employment as a full-time attorney is required.

All applicants must be United States Citizen.

To be considered for this exceptional career opportunity, submit your résumé, cover letter, a legal writing sample of no more than 10 pages, a copy of your law school transcript, and the names, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three references. Either your cover letter or résumé should indicate your citizenship.

Within the cover letter, please directly answer the following questions:

1. What specifically interests you about this position and why would you like to work with the House Office of the Legislative Counsel (HOLC)?
2. Have you held an internship, fellowship, or similar position (paid or unpaid) in a partisan office? If so, did you seek out the placement, or were you placed there by your school or sponsoring organization? Please provide any relevant details, as well as your responsibilities.

Your résumé should reflect years and months of employment and/or relevant legal experience.

How to Apply: Interested and qualified candidates apply here by Friday, June 5th, for consideration.
