

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service

Questions? Connect with us at ResumeService@mail.house.gov or at 202-226-0221.

Internship Openings

Week of April 13, 2026

MEM-116-26

The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Ways and Means seek a paid Communications Intern to join a fast-paced, committed team for Summer 2026. The Intern must have graphic design experience, enjoy advancing the Committee's priorities, and holding Republicans accountable. Scheduling is flexible for candidates with academic commitments.

Essential Job Functions:

- Pitch timely, punchy social media content
- Produce high-quality graphics and videos in conjunction with the team
- Assist the team with managing press lists and website

Exceptionally Qualified Candidates will have:

- Demonstrated understanding of or familiarity with Ways and Means' jurisdiction

Please send a cover letter, resume, and 2-3 graphic or video samples to dylan.peachey@mail.house.gov with the subject line "COMMUNICATIONS INTERN SUMMER 2026: Last name" by Friday, April 17, 2026.

We are an equal opportunity employer and do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. Diverse applicants encouraged to apply.

MEM-110-26

Representative Seth Magaziner (RI-02) seeks part-time, paid Summer 2026 interns for his Warwick, Rhode Island office, to start at the middle May until the end of August.

Duties include, but are not limited to:

- Provides a welcoming environment and positive first impression of the Member office to constituents, visitors, and other VIPs;
- Answers incoming calls with poise, professionalism, and promptness;
- Sorts and distributes mail;

Office of Talent and Development
CAO | U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

- Assists Member and key staff (e.g. staff assistant, scheduler, District Director) with logistical and administrative duties;
- Receives and logs input from constituents on policy matters for the Member office's consideration and response;
- Conducts research, and drafts correspondence and memoranda;
- Assists with planning and execution of Member's public outreach at local events;
- Accompanies district staff to public forums, meetings, and events as a representative to the Member.

Applicants should apply on our website <https://magaziner.house.gov/services/internships>

Consistent with applicable law, the Office requires all interns to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 as a term and condition of employment.

Female, minority, and LGBTQ+ candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer; we do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender identity or expression, or sexual orientation.

MEM-097-26

Congresswoman Doris Matsui, representing the 7th Congressional District of California, seeks interns for her Washington, D.C. office for the Summer 2026 term. Interns will have a unique opportunity to learn about the legislative process first-hand and the many functions of a Congressional office. The Press and Digital Intern will help build out the Congresswoman's digital and social media presence, with heavy emphasis on creating engaging social media content and graphics.

Qualified candidates should have strong writing, editing, and social media skills to assist with time sensitive assignments, as well as basic familiarity with graphic design/video editing software. Candidates with experience in a press or digital media role (including internships) are preferred but not required. Press Intern responsibilities will vary but may include answering phones and data entry. Washington DC interns may be asked to assist in researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending briefings, hearings, and markups, and answering constituent letters on various issues.

To apply, please visit the "Internships" page of Congresswomen Matsui's official website and complete the application form: <https://matsui.house.gov/services/internships>. As part of the application, a cover letter, resume, and 2 writing samples are required. Ties to California's 7th District are preferred, but not required. All applications are considered on a rolling basis.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status.

MEM-096-26

Congresswoman Doris Matsui, representing the 7th Congressional District of California, seeks interns for her Washington, D.C. and District (Sacramento) offices for the Summer 2026 term. Interns will have a unique opportunity to learn about the legislative process first-hand and the many functions of a Congressional office.

Intern responsibilities will vary but may include answering phones and data entry. Washington DC interns may be asked to assist in researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending briefings, hearings, and markups; and answering constituent letters on various issues. Interns based in California may also be asked to assist on a variety of constituent casework or in-district projects, as needed.

To apply, please visit the “Internships” page of Congresswomen Matsui’s official website and complete the application form: <https://matsui.house.gov/services/internships>. As part of the application, a cover letter, resume, and 2 writing samples are required. Ties to California’s 7th District are preferred, but not required. All applications are considered on a rolling basis. All applications are considered on a rolling basis.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status."

MEM-095-26

COMMUNICATIONS INTERN/FELLOW – The Committee on House Administration Democratic staff is currently seeking to fill the Communications Intern/Communications Fellow vacancy. The individual in this role will work closely with a fast-paced communications team. Qualified candidates should have demonstrated graphic design experience, strong writing and social media skills, and a desire to help create engaging content.

Key responsibilities will include:

- Drafting social media content and designing graphics
- Editing and captioning videos
- Compiling daily press clips
- Taking photos during Committee hearings and events
- Drafting press releases, media advisories, and weekly reports

The Committee on House Administration is primarily responsible for oversight of the House offices and legislative branch agencies within the Committee's portfolio. These include the Library of Congress, Smithsonian Institution (including the National Zoo), Chief Administrative Officer, Clerk of the House, Sergeant at Arms, House Inspector General, United States Capitol Police, Government Publishing Office, Architect of the Capitol, Office of Congressional Accessibility Services, and the Office of Congressional Workplace Rights.

To apply, candidates should submit a resume, and at least two graphic design and writing samples to resume.chadem@mail.house.gov with the subject line: "Communications Intern _ [First Name] [Last Name]".

This is a paid, full-time, limited term position. The intern will learn about House Committee practice, the legislative process, and the policy areas in the Committee's jurisdiction. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. The Committee is committed to, and benefits from, a diverse staff, and candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

MEM-089-26

The U.S. House Financial Services Committee – Majority Staff is seeking law clerks for the summer of 2026. The position offers law students the opportunity to gain experience conducting congressional oversight and investigations. Law clerk responsibilities will include conducting legal research, drafting memorandum, letters, and reports, assisting Committee staff in performing administrative duties, and other duties as assigned. Law clerks will work closely with counsels and professional staff on a wide range of issues. This position is unpaid, but law school credit is available. Previous Capitol Hill, prosecutorial, investigative, or litigation experience preferred, but not required.

Interested candidates should submit a resume and cover letter to erin.kuhls@mail.house.gov.

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin.

