DIGITAL INTERNSHIP: The Office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Summer 2026 digital interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from mid-May through August.

Our office offers part- and full-time internships for students who are in college or a similar post-high school training program, or who have just graduated. We are dedicated to fostering the continued success of our interns beyond their time with our office. Former interns of ours have gone on to work in other offices across Capitol Hill, on state-wide political campaigns, and in various profit and non-profit organizations. We offer needs-based stipends to students who are Pell Grant eligible. Our internship program has returned to in-person work, and we are seeking press interns for our Reading, West Chester, and Washington, D.C. offices.

Ideal intern applicants are adaptable and proactive self-starters who have experience in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented work environment. Digital interns will be responsible for compiling and distributing press clips, helping develop digital content including graphics and videos, and drafting copy for social media and press materials. Digital interns will also have the opportunity to staff the Congresswoman to capture videos and photos of events.

Successful interns in our office are adaptable and proactive self-starters who have experience in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented work environment. Applicants must be independent problem-solvers, have strong writing skills, and be comfortable communicating to both internal and external audiences.

An ideal digital intern has technical experience with video editing software (Premiere, Headliner) and/or graphic design tools (Canva, InDesign, Illustrator). Spanish language skills are preferred but not required. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience, ties to PA-06, and experience with photo editing programs (Photoshop, Lightroom) are all a plus.

To apply, please send: 1) a resume, 2) ONE brief paragraph about yourself and why you're interested in interning in our office, 3) a writing sample, and 4) one example of digital work (video, graphic or photo) to PA06Press.Internships@mail.house.gov.

This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. If you have any questions, please reach out to Nirmal Singletary at nirmal.singletary@mail.house.gov.

MEM-040-26

LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP: The Office of Representative Chrissy Houlahan (D-PA-06) is accepting applications for Summer 2026 legislative interns in our West Chester, Reading, and Washington, D.C. offices. This internship will run from mid-May through August.

Both full and part time internships are available, and we offer stipends to applicants, with accommodations for Pell-eligible applicants. Our internship program has returned to in-person work with flexible telework options should interns need to work from home.

Ideal applicants are self-starters who bring a customer service mindset and a passion for community service. Applicants must be intellectually curious, willing to spend a lot of time on the phone and write well.

Responsibilities range from helping constituents, to doing research and drafting memos for our legislative staff, to staffing the Congresswoman in hearings or meetings. We offer interns the opportunity to see Congress up close and from the inside. Prior volunteer, leadership, and work experience are a plus. Ties to PA-06 are also a plus.

Please submit applications through the “Legislative Internship” form our website, Houlahan.house.gov.

Due to a high volume of applicants, you will likely only be contacted if you are selected for an interview. This office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate based on race, religion, disability, age, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, LGBTQ identification, family status, or military status. Women, people of color, and other members of traditionally underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-035-26
