Internship Openings

Week of June 15, 2026

MEM-188-26

The Office of Congresswoman Marcy Kaptur (OH-09) is seeking motivated college students, recent graduates, and graduate students for the Fall 2026 Internship Program in her Washington, D.C., office.

Intern responsibilities vary daily but typically include assisting with constituent services, sorting mail, answering phones, conducting legislative research, attending hearings and briefings, and providing general administrative support to staff.

The ideal candidate will have strong written and oral communication skills, an interest in public service and the legislative process, and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment. Applicants should be organized, dependable, and eager to learn. Ties to Ohio are strongly preferred but not required.

To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a single PDF containing the following materials:

- A current résumé
- A one-page cover letter outlining your interest in the position and availability
- A short written response (300–500 words) to the following prompt:
 - What does public service mean to you? You may share a personal experience, describe values you live by, or reflect on a moment that has shaped your interest in public service.

Please send completed applications in a SINGLE PDF to angela.maloney@mail.house.gov with the subject line: Fall 2026 Internship Application – [Your Name]
Application Deadline: July 21, 2026, at noon.

This internship offers a unique opportunity to gain firsthand experience in a congressional office, develop professional skills, and contribute to the work of Congresswoman Kaptur and her team.

The Office of Congresswoman Kaptur is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or Senior Republican Member of House Financial Services Committee Seeks Legislative/Financial Services Fellow.

A senior Republican member serving on the House Financial Services Committee is seeking a fellow to assist the Legislative Team in covering the committee and research portfolio. This is a paid opportunity. The person in this role will work on substantive financial services issues like banking, crypto, housing, capital markets, fintech, insurance, and monetary policy in the Member's personal office. The fellow will also be asked to assist the Legislative Director in research projects. The fellow will also be attending hearings, monitoring legislation and regulations, assisting with official and constituent correspondence, providing meeting materials, and more. The fellow should leave this role with an in-depth understanding of how Capitol Hill operates, as well as the major policy issues in financial services.

Ideal candidates must be excellent writers, able to work in a fast-paced environment, and have good judgment. A background in finance, financial policy, and or Capitol Hill experience is not required but strongly preferred, whether it is in the private sector, government, or school.

- Specific responsibilities include, but are not limited to:
- Writing briefing materials for meetings with the Member
- Preparing materials for hearings, markups, and the House floor
- Conducting policy research
- Taking notes at meetings, hearings, briefings, and other events you attend
- Tracking legislation and official correspondence
- Observing House proceedings
- Drafting constituent correspondence

This is a paid opportunity. Interested candidates should send their resume to Jackson.notes@mail.house.gov and joseph.arbie@mail.house.gov.

The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Rules is seeking part-time or full-time, energetic interns for the fall (September/October – mid-December). Our interns work closely with Committee staff to prepare materials for Committee meetings, conduct research projects, learn about the Rules of the House and the various procedures for legislation to reach the House Floor, and complete a variety of other administrative tasks. Ideal candidates have strong writing skills, a good work ethic, an interest in learning about House floor procedures, and are detail-oriented. Interns will gain experience in legislative analysis, political communications, and institutional processes.

A stipend will be available for qualified candidates. This opportunity can provide flexibility for candidates who are looking for full-time work and may need to leave before the end of the internship term. Massachusetts ties are a plus.

All offers are conditional on completion of a federal criminal background check. The office is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds or with untraditional experience to apply.

Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter explaining why you want to join the Democratic staff of the House Rules Committee to democrats-rules.house.gov/about/internships. Please indicate your availability on a week-to-week basis (e.g. PT/FT) and your potential start and end dates. No calls or drop-ins, please. The deadline to apply is July 10, 2026.
